Recreation group forms new executive

By Mrs. R. Zwicker

The Recreation Association held their first meeting Jan. 4. The new slate of officers for the year are as follows: president Alfred Vandespyker, vice president Dr. R. Muirhead, secretary Dorothy Murray, treasurer Verna Parent, ball convener Ross Sanderson, social convener Mrs. B. Dukeshire, publicity Marg Longdo, rink convener Fred Arnold.

The Board of Directors consists of: Lloyd Coote, Paul Dubuc, Bruce Nicholson, Stan Price, Rudy Koster, and teen representative Kandy Nykoruk. Tickets are being sold for a dance to be held Feb. 19 at Halton Sportsmen's Club. Meetings are to be held on the first Tuesday of each month.

Skating trip

Tuesday, Dec. 20, the pupils of Kilbride school enjoyed an unusual experience. The ice was rented at Nelson Arena and the whole school was taken by bus for two hours of skating fun. This was a family affair and parents were invited to go along.

For those children who were unable to skate an alternative trip was planned for the same day. The students travelled by bus to Toronto where they viewed special Christmas displays at City Hall and store windows. Altogether seven busloads enjoyed these special trips.

Carol singing

An excellent attendance enjoyed the Christmas Eve

community carol singing service at Kilbride United Church.

Mr. and Mrs. William Watson, Bill and Ken were dinner guests with Mr. and Mrs. Leon Grenier and Daniel of Guelph, Jan. 2.

On Christmas day, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Small served Christmas dinner to 25 members of their family and relatives from the surrounding area.

Christmas visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Schilling's visitors for Christmas day were Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hower and Harvey from Fergus, Ontario, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Baker, Hamilton, Mrs. Lorne Kennedy, Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Henry of Kilbride, Miss Mabel Baker and Miss Ann Harvey from Waterdown. This is an annual family gathering which has taken place for over 50 years.

Christmas day visitors with Mr. and Mrs. James Wetherell were Mr. and Mrs. George Hardsand and Georgina, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Mader and Michael, Whitby, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wetherell, Burlington, and Doug Benson, Campbellville.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fretz and family, Milton Heights, and Mr. and Mrs. Andy Wetherell were Christmas dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Fretz.

Mrs. Billy Anderson and family, St. Catharines, spent Jan. 2 with their aunt, Mrs. Alma Bullard. Mrs. Pearl Anderson from Guelph was also a guest.

Dinner guests

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Weir, and Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Sharpe were Communion will be observed next Sunday. The annual meeting will be held January 18.

Holiday gatherings

Miss Susan Simpson, Grade 2 teacher at Wawa, flew down to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Simpson.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Munro had his parents from Manitoulin Island visit them over Christmas.

Among many family gatherings were 34 guests entertained at Earl Ward's; a large crowd of the clan at Chas. Thomson's in Acton; 16 guests for New Year's dinner at Ron McLean's.

FOCUS ON FITNESS was the theme of the 4-H Homemaking Club Achievement Day held in St. Paul's United Church on Saturday. Provincial and County honors were presented to several girls of the 4-H Club, who over the years have managed to complete worthwhile projects under the direction of the 4-H Club. The holders of the Provincial Honors

The North Trafalgar Euchre Club held their first euchre party of the year 1972 on Saturday night, at the North Trafalgar Recreation Centre. There were 10 tables of euchre in play with the following ladies winning the top prizes: Mrs. Marie Peacock, Mrs. Marie Murray and Mrs. Marjorie Sparling. The high prizes for the men were won by Keith Webb, Charles Brown and Ralph Featherston. The lucky draws were won by Wilbert Nix and Mrs. V. Sinclair.

Karen Marks of Bronte, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Reid of Hornby, where she enjoyed the Christmas holiday with her friend Annette Reid. Karen had visited at the Reids in the summer time and was very interested in the farm animals.

Extend sympathy

Rev. Milton John Aiken, died in St. Joseph's Hospital on Friday, Dec. 31, at the age of 82. Mr. Aiken was active in the Methodist and United Churches in the Hamilton area and Oakville. Mr. Aiken served at the Eden United Church prior to moving to Patricia Dr., Burlington, and Oakville after his retirement in 1957.

He was president of the Hamilton Conference of the United Church in 1944. He is survived by his beloved wife, Edna M. Hunt, and daughters Ruth of Toronto, and Jean of Sault Ste. Marie. The funeral service was conducted in West Plains United Church, Burlington, on Tuesday, Jan. 4, 1972 at 10 a.m. then to the Scarrow Funeral Home, in Tara, where the Memorial Service was held at 3 p.m.

Focus on fitness

Achievement Day for "Focus on Fitness" was held on Saturday, Jan. 8, at St. Paul's

United Church, Milton. A number of 4-H Club members participated in this project and a high percentage completed the course. Betty Jean Marchmont and Christine Kreutz were presented with their county honors and Joyce Wilson was presented with her provincial honors. Congratulations are extended to these girls and their leaders.

Mr. and Mrs. Garry Hamilton of the Ninth Line, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Don Shea of Ontario St., Milton, on Saturday night.

Get well wishes are extended to Mrs. Clarence Peacock who is a patient in the Milton District Hospital.

Sincere sympathy is extended to the Course family on the sudden death of Mr. Archie C. Course, who died suddenly while visiting friends at Orillia, on Friday, Jan. 7.

Greetings

Birthday greetings are extended to the following who are celebrating their birthdays, David Pearson on Friday, Jan. 14; Albert Marchmont and Ken Ella on Saturday, Jan. 15; and Isobel Stout on Sunday, Jan. 16.

Anniversary greetings are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mercure on their wedding anniversary on Sunday, Jan. 16.

Ice and blowing snow caused the death of Lorna Peters on Friday morning when she was involved in an accident on Trafalgar Rd. and the Lower Base Line. Miss Peters was on her way to the Holy Rosary School at Milton where she taught school.

New Kilbride correspondent

This week Mrs. R. Zwicker of Kilbride assumes responsibility for the Kilbride and district news column for The Champion's popular District Page.

Mrs. William Watson, who has been writing the Kilbride news for several years, is taking a temporary holiday from her newsgathering chores. Organizations and individuals in the Kilbride area wishing to have news included in the weekly Kilbride column can contact Mrs. Zwicker at 878-6191.
