Hydro blackouts chase residents back to bed

By Mrs. Jim Hamilton

The North Trafalgar Euchre Club held their weekly euchre party on Saturday night, Feb. 5, at the North Trafalgar Community Centre. There were seven tables of euchre in play with the prizes going to the following winners Mrs. Clare Wilson, Mrs. Ralph Featherston and Mrs. Vi Preston for the ladies and winners for the gents went to the following Buck Burton, Ralph Featherston and Clare Wilson. The lucky draws were won by Mrs. Bob Crozier and Frank Peacock.

Anniversary greetings are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rutledge who will celebrate their wedding anniversary on Wednesday Feb. 16.

High winds

High winds disrupted hydro service in the Hornby North district early Friday morning as the winds whipped wires together, causing periodic blackouts. The hydro crew was on duty in the north end of Hornby working to get the power on where it had been out for some time. Several furnaces were cut off intermittently and many residents were compelled to go back to bed to keep warm. The sanding crew and snow plows were kept busy continually until the winds eased a little.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Rutledge of Clinton visited with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Les Rutledge and Mr. and Mrs. John Drummond of the Ninth Line.

Birthday greetings are extended to Valerie Plant who will celebrate her eighth birthday on Tuesday, Feb. 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Shea of Milton visited with Mr. and Mrs. Garry Hamilton and family on Saturday evening.

Greetings

Birthday greetings are extended to Len Buckler, who will celebrate his birthday on Feb. 9; to Janet Calhoun, who will celebrate her birthday on Feb. 10 and to Patsy Ford, who will celebrate her birthday on Feb. 11.

Elmer Bailey has been quite busy for the past few days plowing out lanes plus his regular job of delivering the local mail to two mail routes. His wife Vera goes along to help him out which speeds the delivery.

Lowville

Plan terrace at museum this year

By Mrs. R. Sovereign

The winter executive meeting of the Halton Presby-terial United Church Women was held at Appleby United Church on Jan. 24. Mrs. Burdge Gunby and Mrs. Roy Coulter led in the worship service. Mrs. F. O. Colling also represented the church.

The afternoon was very informative with Miss Molly Donnelly of Hamilton Trust Company speaking on "Why make a will and what might happen if you don't" with very interesting anecdotes as well as illustrations. A question period followed.

Mr. and Mrs. George McCormack stayed the weekend with friends at Honey Harbour for the winter carnival and went trail riding by snowmobiles.

The community is pleased to hear that Rob Heatherington and Ken Smith are home from the hospital.

Host meeting

The Lowville United Church Women's executive meeting was held at the home of Fran McCormack on Feb. 1, beginning with a pot luck lunch. President Fran McCormack opened the business with a prayer. The officers present were Mrs. Marj Hall evening unit leader, Mrs. Ella Foote afternoon leader, Olive Colling friendship and visiting.

Kilbride

Church services, growth reviewed at annual meet

By Mrs. R. Zwicker

The annual congregational meeting of Kilbride United Church was held Monday evening Jan. 31 in the Sunday School room with Pastor R. Harwood presiding.

Mrs. Leslie Willsher, congregational secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting.

Printed annual reports covering the year's activities of each organization within the church were distributed and discussed. The session report showed that Kilbride United Church began the year with a total membership of 108 persons; closing the year with 92 residents and 20 non-resident members or 112 in all. The minister performed three baptisms, five marriages, four confirmations, and six funeral services.

On May 2, the first of a three-part series of panel discussions, "The Probe" was presented at Lowville United Church. The panel consisting of Rev. R. Harwood, Rev. Charles Hainer, and Rev. W. Irwin, discussed "The Resurrection". Several persons attended from the Kilbride area. Two further panels were presented at Carlisle and Milton and those attending felt it had been quite worthwhile.
