

THE VERANDAH WAS DEMOLISHED at the Trafalgar Rd. home of Mrs. Irene Saunders one evening last week when a south-bound car hit a pothole and went out of control, crashing through a ditch and landing on the front verandah of the home. Judy Saunders, shown inspecting the damage at the front door, said the car came to rest with a fender scraping up against the front door.

Residents in the area of Trafalgar Rd. between Drumquin and Highway 401 are upset about the county of Halton's plans to widen and improve the road this year—the work will put the road much closer to many homes. Traffic is heavy and there have been several bad accidents on the stretch. —(Photo by R. Downs)

May start girls' ball seek coaches, helpers

Girls' softball will be revitalized in Milton if the initial response is any indication of the interest that exists. While the movement to form a league is still in the exploratory stages, interest is reported to be keen. More than 50 girls have expressed interest in playing softball.

A meeting is planned Monday night at 8 p.m. at the USW Hall on Pine St. Parents and persons interested in coaching or helping out with the organization of clubs are welcome to attend the meeting.

Recreation

The groundwork connected with the formation of the league is being done by the Milton Recreation Committee. Committee spokesman Joe McCann said there were no age limits set. He indicated the league would operate on its own as a separate entity with its own rules and regulations.

There hasn't been softball in town for girls during the last three or four years. The last girls' club was known as the Milton Belles. They played in a rural league. But through lack of interest the club fizzled out. The new league won't be playing teams from other areas but will remain as a house league structure, for the first year at any rate, McCann indicated.

ADS, PUBLICITY MAKE CLINIC SUCCESS

Dear Sir:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you on behalf of the Milton Cancer Society for your coverage and assistance in preparing the publicity and ads on our recent pap clinic. You will be pleased to know that Mrs. Melanson's column was mentioned by the ladies attending.

We have found in the past that The Canadian Champion advertising is first in many homes and apparently by our results at the clinic, it still is.

Hoping that our campaign at this time is as successful.

Sincerely,
Doreen Bill (Mrs. C.)
Milton and District Unit,
Canadian Cancer Society.

Raiders near championship

Georgetown Raiders can take a commanding 3-0 lead in games in their best of seven O.H.A. Intermediate "A" final series by defeating Durham Huskies in the third game of the set in Georgetown, tonight (Wednesday) at 8.

Raiders chalked up impressive 7-2 and 6-2 victories on the weekend in the first two games.

Paul "Porky" Robinson potted a pair of goals and Blake Inglis, Terry Holmes, Jim Blair, Ron Lane and Neil Cotton shot singles for Georgetown in Friday night's game.

Huskies were only temporarily successful in their efforts to run Raiders out of the rink in Durham, Sunday afternoon. A 2-0 Huskie lead was short-lived, as Georgetown bounced back with six unanswered goals.

Carl Hymers and Blake Inglis bagged two goals apiece. Junior Tibbitts and Terry Holmes added singles for Georgetown.

More than 200 fans accompanied Raiders to Durham for Sunday's game.

Fourth game of the series will be played in Durham, Friday night with the fifth, if necessary, slated for Georgetown arena, Sunday night at 8.
