For Lowville Dale Smith had four singles in five trips to the plate, Stu Dolbel singled twice, Stu King doubled and singled.

Frank Bertasson tripled, and Doug Coverdale doubled while singles went to Murray Dawson, Doug Powell, Lee Coulson.

For Hornby the losing pitcher was Ed Dunn. He was relieved by Morris Curtis. Harold Merry, Bob McGee and Ross Smith singled while Andy Trencs and Ron McHugh doubled.

and five errors. Ten Lowville batters were left on base.

Inglehart managed two hits himself, one of which was a home run. Palermo scored three unearned runs in the eighth inning to win the game and scored two earned runs in the ninth.

Lowville hitters included Doug Coverdale with a triple and single, Doug Powell with two singles, Ron Nixon with a double and singles went to Stu King, Dale Smith, Murray Dawson and Stu Dolbel.

Ron Nixon was charged with the loss. He went eight innings and was relieved in the ninth by Jacques Paquette.

Good game
John Inglehart was the king pin in the Palermo game holding Lowville to two runs on nine hits

Moffat squirts post fine mark

Moffat "A" Squirts have earned a three win, one loss record in the 1972 Tri-County season to date, gaining impressive wins over Rockwood 14-5, Eden Mills 39-3 and Belwood 26-2, while suffering their only loss to Ponsonby Tigers, 7-6.

Ponsonby Tigers and Moffat A's were well matched with eight hits with the Tigers gaining three walks and Moffat none.

Moffat runners strung nine bases together to Ponsonby's one, while Tigers struck out 11 times to Moffat's 10. The well played game lasted 45 minutes, was tied 6-6 till the final inning, when the Ponsonby club scored the winning run.

Moffat A's pitchers Wayne Thompson (1-1) and Martin Osso (2-0) have allowed only 20 hits, while striking out 58 batters. The team has scored 56 runs and been scored on 17 times.

The A's have totalled 85 hits for a team average of .582. Big guns are George Brown .722, Tom Rosenbersky .722, Martin Osso .647 and Earl Essery .611.

Moffat runners have also been adept at stealing bases and have earned many runs stealing home.

Coach Gabe Rosenbersky has been assisted by Eleada Thompson, Bob Brown and Merv Thompson during games and pre-game warmups. The team met Ponsonby Lions Monday and will host Hillsburgh Squirts, Friday night, June 2 at 7 p.m.

The line-up is: Scott Deeler, George Brown, Earl Essery, Michael Hebert, Doug Joss, Randy McLean, Pete Muselius, Martin Osso, Joe Penberthy, Tom Rosenbersky, Tim Spurrell, Wayne Thompson, scorekeeper Tammie Thompson.

Coverdale is coach
After six years as team coach Stu King has turned the reins over to Doug Coverdale. A club spokesman said Coverdale had been connected with the club for a number of years and is an knowledgeable softball man. King will remain with the club as a coach and Coverdale will be a playing coach.

Lowville hosts Georgetown June 2 at 8.15 and Procor June 6.

Campbellville dropped their opening game in Leaside by a 4-0 score. In doing so they showed the lack of early season competition. It was their first game and Leaside's third.

The winning pitcher was Jack Tators who went the route. He shut Campbellville out on 4 hits. He walked six, hit one batter and struck out 13 including the last seven batters he faced. Ron Nayler worked seven innings for Campbellville and in defeat he pitched an excellent game.

He gave up four runs off nine hits while walking four, hitting one batter and striking out 10.

In one inning Garnet Mitchell held Leaside hitters and struck out two.

Two singles
Doug Lang hit two singles for Campbellville while Lou's Faggion, Elmer Dredge and Ken Moore all singled once.

FOOTNOTES: Campbellville missed a great opportunity in the third when they had the bases loaded and one out but Faggion's screaming line drive was grabbed by the short stop who doubled Lang off second.

C'ville Bantams suffer defeat

Campbellville Bantams, suffered their third consecutive defeat Monday night, by a 7-6 score to Oakville. Tim Roberts, normally the team's regular catcher, made his first appearance on the mound and struck out seven batter's while allowing six hits and only walking two.

Campbellville took an early one run lead in their first, when Elliott walked, Roberts singled and Buttery followed with a single. Oakville exploded for three runs on four hits in the top of the third, however Campbellville tied the score with two more runs on a walk to Roberts, an error, and three more walks to Charles Currie, Scott Gadd and Larry Wigod.

Takes Lead
In the fifth inning Oakville took the lead with a run on an infield error and a double. Campbellville came right back in their fifth, with a walk to Gary Bertasson, Ted Fuller's sacrifice bunt, a double by Elliott and an infield error, to score two runs and take a 5-4 lead. However, Oakville put the game out of reach with three more runs in their sixth on a walk, an error, a triple and a sacrifice fly.

Campbellville came within one run of tying the score in the seventh on three walks over a sacrifice bunt and an infield

Lawn bowling underway

On Monday Archie Cairns won the prize for high man and William McFadden won the prize for low man while Violet Service was high woman and Alice McFadden was low woman.

Lawn bowlers from the district will take part in a tournament here Saturday.

error. With the bases loaded and one out, Gary Brooks, the Oakville pitcher, shut the door on Campbellville by striking out the last two batters.

Campbellville's offence consisted of 13 walks and singles by Tim Roberts and Jack Buttery and a double by Paul Elliott.

Footnotes
After winning their league opener, a 4-3 victory over Brampton, Campbellville fell victim to injuries to ace pitcher Dan Thomson and shortstop Dan Baynton.

Their last three games have been losses of 4-0 to Georgetown, 9-2 to Waterdown and 7-6 to Oakville.

Campbellville visits Milton tonight for a 6:30 p.m. game at the Fairgrounds and their next home game is next Monday with Georgetown the opposition.
