

Trips for Manor residents booth at fall fair planned

Halton Centennial Manor Auxiliary met in the Manor Auditorium on Sept. 9, for their regular monthly meeting following a two month summer recess, with Mrs. Ruth Allen, president, in the chair.

It was decided to send a delegate from the Auxiliary to the annual convention of the Provincial Auxiliary, Ontario Association of Homes for the Aged at the Skyline Hotel, Toronto, on Sept. 11.

A letter was read from Boat Tours International and it was decided to sponsor a boat tour from Ontario Place to the Toronto Islands, following which the residents would be taken out for lunch if suitable accommodation could be found. Date of tour and arrangements for transportation would be taken care of by the Manor Recreational Director.

Mrs. M. Childs reported that $54.16 had been spent for bingo prizes.

New hymn books
It was decided that 22 additional hymn books would be purchased for use in the chapel along with one hymnal with music for the organ, and also that five new song books (50 Hymns America Loves Best), would be purchased and placed on the pianos throughout the Manor.

Mrs. F. Jennings reported the Visiting Committee had continued their visitation program on a smaller scale during the summer months and she requested that this program get into full swing again with the coming of the fall season. Mrs. Jennings made mention of the fact there are probably many senior citizens in the Milton area who would enjoy visiting the residents on a regular basis and she suggested that new workers be solicited for this purpose.

Mrs. Ruth Allen advised that a further report on the purchase of a whirlpool bath would not be available until next month.

A trip to Shoppers World on Sept. 11 was announced and Mrs. Mary Brownridge, Mrs. L. Hopkins and Mrs. B. Elliott volunteered to assist the residents.

Booth at fair

The Auxiliary decided to set up a craft booth at the Milton Fair again this year with Mrs. L. Hopkins, Mrs. F. Jennings and Mrs. B. Elliott volunteering to assist at this booth.

A discussion was held regarding the purchase of a number of sets of lawn bowling balls for the use of residents at the Manor and Mrs. E. MacIntosh was requested to bring back further information to the next meeting.

It was decided to purchase four large picnic hampers for the use of the Auxiliary when providing outings for the residents.

Mrs. M. Childs and Mrs. M. Brownridge offered to provide lunch for the October Auxiliary meeting.

Fry Society open house

The Board of Halton-Peel chapter of the Elizabeth Fry Society held a meeting last week to plan the fall activities. Their president, Mrs. Marjorie Amos reported that the chapter had received a grant from the Provincial Ministry of Corrections, which will enable them to expand their work. Office space, and telephone service have been obtained at 33 Main St. N. in Brampton. Mrs. Lois Williamson, volunteer co-ordinator, will be in the office on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Details were discussed for the open house to be held on Thursday, Sept. 21, afternoon and evening, at the "Y", 247 McMurchy St. S., Brampton. Mrs. Pat Whiteford, Brampton, chairman and Mrs. Betty Brownridge, Georgetown, co-chairman of Public Relations, are in charge of publicity to encourage interested people to come and chat with the volunteers about the avenues of service and study in the field of corrections. This event will be followed by weekly training sessions for new volunteers, in the month of October.

Fiddle queen at fall fair

Fiddle Queen of Canada, Eleanor Moorehead will attend Milton Fair this weekend. Andy Frank, who has been active in fiddling contests, said the 28-year-old fiddle queen from Fergus would be at the fair. Mrs. Moorehead won the open competition at the Canadian National Exhibition this year.

Showers held
Before the wedding, Mrs. Jeanne Robinson held a Tupperware shower for the bride-to-be; Mrs. Rosemary Stull held a miscellaneous shower; Judy Lang held a miscellaneous shower and Mrs. Sharon Barr a kitchen and bathroom shower.

J. R. Currie O.D.
OPTOMETRIST
BURLINGTON MALL
Telephone 632-7788

PAUL THOMPSON, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Thompson of Milton, was married to Joan Cowan in a wedding ceremony at St. Luke's Anglican Church, Palermo, on Aug. 26. The newlyweds are pictured with the bridal party on the steps of the church.

(Photo by C. R. Photographic)

Wedding

Thompson - Cowan

St. Luke's Anglican Church, Palermo, was the scene of a wedding on Saturday, Aug. 26, when Paul Thompson and Joan Cowan exchanged vows before Father Kenneth Patterson.

Ross Cowan gave his daughter in marriage to Paul who is the youngest son of Wilmer and Margaret Thompson of Milton.

Joan's gown was of white sheer polyester flocked with daisies. The traditional "something borrowed" was a dainty heart pendant loaned by Kathy Wettlaufer. A white picture hat and cascade bouquet of daisies, blue cornflowers and baby's breath completed her bridal costume.

Sky blue gowns

Dorothy Cruikshank of Dundas served as maid of honor and Mary Collinson of Mississauga was bridesmaid. Both girls wore sky blue gowns and white picture hats trimmed with blue. They carried baskets of daisies and blue cornflowers.

The wedding music played by Mrs. Helen Inglehart, was a blend of traditional and more contemporary selections.

Bride, groom honored

Before the wedding, Joan was honored with a surprise shower given by her friends at the Hamilton Civic Hospitals School of Nursing, where she is a student. A community shower was held also at the home of Mrs. Victor Lawrence with co-hostesses Mrs. Harold Lawrence and Mrs. Ira Cowan.

Paul was similarly honored with a surprise stag party at the home of Levio Bonin.

Joan and Paul will be residing in Hamilton where they are continuing their studies.

Guests from a distance were Paul's brother Joe Thompson, his wife Nancy and children Scott, Mark and Shelley from Edmonton, Bill and Linda Thompson of Boston and their little daughter Elizabeth, Dan and Christine Thompson of Orillia and their children Angela, Danny and Michael.

Mothers receive
The reception was held in the Blue Room of the Estaminet Restaurant in Burlington. The bride's mother received wearing a dress of salmon pink with a white carnation corsage. The groom's mother wore a dress of buttercup yellow chiffon and a corsage of blue tinted carnations. Master of ceremonies for the occasion was Jack Pemberton of Toronto.

Following the reception, guests gathered at the bride's home in Palermo. Donna Boyle of Brantford caught the bridal bouquet and Levio Bonin was presented with the bride's blue garter by the groom.

A family picnic was held at the home of the groom's parents on Sunday, August 27, providing a last get-together before the departure of out of town guests. A hearty lunch was served by Mr. and Mrs. Thompson assisted by their daughter, Mrs. Pat Kinnaird.

Artist name is James
A newspaper picture of a painting of Bruce St. School last week gave the artist's name as John Hopkins. It should have said James D. Hopkins. The picture appeared in the coverage of the Milton District Hospital Auxiliary's lawn party.

W.I. prepares for convention

Hornby Women's Institute members met at the home of Mrs. Delbert Downs, Milton, with 13 members and two visitors present. The meeting opened by singing the Institute Ode and repeating the Mary Stewart Collect. The President Mrs. H. O'Connor read a poem. Mrs. L. Sampson read the minutes of the last meeting.

The roll call was answered by all present "A hint on flowers from a green thumb to a greenhorn." Correspondence consisted of a report on the 4-H Training School held on September 12, 13, 14 and 15, on "Dressing Up Home Grown Vegetables".

New club leaders are Hornby South Juniors Mrs. C. Patterson and Mrs. Keirnan; Hornby North Juniors Mrs. T. Bousfield and Mrs. Bowler; Hornby Seniors Mrs. J. Mackay and Mrs. M. Smith.

A training school on "The Knack of Sewing With Knits" will be held on October 3 and Oct. 4. Mrs. R. Wilson and Mrs. William MacPherson will be Hornby leaders. A reply has been received on cemeteries needing attention in Esquimesing.

Don Kruger, Toronto is investigating and trying to find the ownership of some of the land these cemeteries are situated on. A letter had been received from Jim Snow, MPP, saying that cemeteries had become the responsibility of the municipality and the two cemeteries members were interested in had been brought to the attention of the township of Esquimesing. Mrs. L. Sampson is to keep in contact concerning same. The government pays for the work but council is responsible for keeping them in condition.

A letter was read from the Chinese adopted child. The Guelph area convention will be held on Nov. 2, 3. Several resolutions will be discussed—on elm trees, pollution, more discipline needed in schools and one on textiles should be labelled as to care. Articles for Milton Fair Institute exhibit were discussed and some brought in.

Two flower arrangements, No. 1 "From your garden viewing one side" and No. 2 "A flower arrangement for a dining table" were judged by Mrs. John MacMillan and Mrs. Guy Bussell. Mrs. Roy Wilson and Miss Lorraine Godward were the winners.

Three carloads, five members in each, then visited the flower gardens of Mr. and Mrs. R. Tinkler and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Readhead. These were still beautiful and enjoyed. Lunch was served at the hostess' home by Mrs. William MacPherson and Mrs. C. Wrigglesworth.

NEWLYWEDS John and Peggy Newbold are pictured signing the register after their recent marriage in the Presbyterian Church, Puslinch.

Mrs. John Murray is guest speaker

The September meeting of the Scotch Block Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. C. Rowney. President Mrs. J. Irving opened the meeting.

The topic was on world affairs and citizenship and the roll call dealt with helping teenagers of today become good citizens of tomorrow.

Miss Eva Chisholm and Mrs. Chester Service were named to attend the area Convention in Stratford Nov. 2, 3. Mrs. Rowney and Mrs. H. Robertson will attend a course on sewing with knits Oct. 3 and 4. Miss Eva Chisholm offered to help in the District W. I. publicity booth on the Friday night of Milton Fair.

Guest Speaker
Mrs. Murray, wife of the Rev.

John M. Murray of Knox Presbyterian Church was guest speaker. Her talk was entitled "Let us share our bounty with the less fortunate of the world". She said all must have a vision according to the gift we have. This is our bounty to share.

ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS
MEETS EVERY TUESDAY 9 p.m.
Grace Anglican Parish Hall
HAWING A PROBLEM? DROP IN

BONNIE LANG and John Hasselfeldt were married in Grace Anglican church, Milton, on August 26.

Wedding

Hasselfeldt - Lang

Bonnie Marie Lang of R.R. 1 Acton and John William Hasselfeldt of 100 Court St. N., Milton, were married in a five o'clock ceremony in Grace Anglican church, Milton, August 26. Rev. Foster officiated for the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Height of Acton and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hasselfeldt of Milton.

The bride chose a long satin gown with long lace sleeves, a train of lace falling from the Empire waistline. She wore her sister's shoulder length veil held in place by a beaded headpiece and carried a bouquet of red carnations and white stephanotis.

Pink and mauve
Maid of honor Judy Lang, sister of the bride, wore a floor length floral gown of pink georgette with a pink headpiece and carried a bouquet of pink mums.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Jeanne Robinson, sister of the bride; Mrs. Sharon Barr, sister of the groom, and Carol Height, sister of the bride. Their gowns were of mauve georgette with mauve headpieces and their bouquets were of mauve mums. Flower girl Tammy Hasselfeldt, niece of the groom, was dressed in pink also.

The bride was escorted by her father; groomsmen were Fred Herenga, a friend, and the ushers Gord Hasselfeldt, brother of the groom; Bob McKee, a friend, and Bill Lang, brother of the bride.

Ring bearer was Tim Height, brother of the bride.

Don Clements was soloist for the wedding, singing The Wedding Prayer and The Lord's Prayer.

Reception at Legion
The reception in the evening was held at Acton Legion Hall.

The bride's mother wore sapphire blue lace over taffeta, white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The groom's mother wore raspberry crepe with silver accessories and white carnations.

Guests were welcomed from Acton, Milton, Guelph, Erin, Paisley, Port Elgin, London, Campbellville, Rockwood, Ear Falls and Ripley. Among them were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hagedorn, a family friend Mrs. Isaac Beech and the groom's aunt Mrs. Agnes Hathaway.

The bride's mother made her wedding cake and her aunt Mrs. Ola McDonald of London decorated it.

For leaving the bride wore a peasant dress of brown and white checked cotton with matching accessories and a white gardenia corsage.

The couple are living at R.R. 5, Milton.

Artist name is James

A newspaper picture of a painting of Bruce St. School last week gave the artist's name as John Hopkins. It should have said James D. Hopkins. The picture appeared in the coverage of the Milton District Hospital Auxiliary's lawn party.

J.W. MacDonald
DISPENSING OPTICIANS
•Oculist Prescriptions Filled
•Contact Lenses

HOURS—
Mon. - Fri. 9 a.m. - 5:30 p.m.
Thurs. 9 a.m. - 9 p.m.
Closed Saturday
175 Lakeshore Rd. E.
845-3621
OAKVILLE

HOURS—
Tuesday and Wednesday
9:30 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.
70 MAIN ST. E.
878-5151
MILTON

Scotch Block Squares
LIGNY HALL, MILTON
Every Tuesday thru to May
8 P.M. - 10.30 P.M.
Beginners Classes Start
OCTOBER 3rd
First Night Free
Just come, you'll have fun
for further information call 878-6178

PICK-YOUR-OWN STARTING SEPTEMBER 22 AT CHUDLEIGH'S
2 mi. North of 401 & Hwy. 25
(416) 878-2725

Do It Yourself!
Come in and choose your own individual dried grasses
Large Selection From Italy And Mexico
Bring in your own novelty or dish...
I will arrange them or show you how!
• Weddings
• Arrangements
• Potted Plants
• Cut Flowers
MILTON Greenhouses
Barry Burne Proprietor
Conveniently located in downtown Milton
164 Main St. 878-9501

Johnson's Furniture NEW LOCATION 137 MAIN ST. MILTON
OPEN 9:30 A.M. TO 9 P.M. DAILY
SPECIAL BEDDING SALE
NEW "NAME BRAND" MATTRESSES OR BOX SPRINGS $24<sup>88</sup>
Beautiful 54" MATTRESS $34<sup>95</sup>
BEAUTIFUL NEW TWO PIECE CHESTERFIELD SUITES $129<sup>88</sup>
Brand New and Complete BUNK BEDS $99<sup>87</sup>
CONTINENTAL BEDS $49<sup>95</sup> Bedroom Suites $139<sup>95</sup>
Free Private Parking Rear Entrance off James St.
FREE LOCAL DELIVERY
JOHNSON'S FURNITURE
137 Main St. Open evenings to 9 p.m. 878-3781

Syer's 228 Main St. 878-2067
DRAPERY SALE 20% OFF
CHOOSE FROM 180 COLOURS OVER 30 PATTERNS
ALL SIZES
Maximum: 250" wide by 108" long
PURCHASE NOW FOR LATER DELIVERY