Older homes of Milton

NO. 105 MILL ST.—In April 1881 when G. A. Hemstreet moved into this house the interior was completed but he had no outside painting done. Some years later the verandah was glassed in. This is the only house on the street built and lived in continuously by the family. The younger daughter, Mrs. J. P. Bartleman, still lives in it. Mr. Hemstreet was a photographer in Milton in 1840. Next he had a general store on Main St. and was on the town council. For many years he was town clerk and retired in 1936. Mr. and Mrs. Hemstreet celebrated their 75th wedding anniversary in 1956. He died in 1959, aged 103, and Mrs. Hemstreet five months later, aged 102.

Ebenezer

Sale for church project

By Mrs. Ron McLean
Ebenezer held a very successful auction sale at Brookville Hall. A large assortment of items realized a nice sum for the improvement of the church before the 150th anniversary next year. Special thanks are given to Max Storey and Cal McIntyre who donated their services as auctioneer and clerk.
World Wide Communion Service was observed at Ebenezer. Mrs. W. Gardner was the soloist. Next Sunday is Thanksgiving; Oct. 15 is Anniversary, and the following Sunday, Oct. 22, Ebenezer services are cancelled in order not to conflict with Arkell anniversary.
Mr. Fred Huffman, Mrs. Hayward's father has taken up residence at Milton Centennial Manor.

—Next Monday, Oct. 9 is thanksgiving day.
