O'Connor students' choice

Like their parents, students in the grade five class at W. I. Dick School chose Terry O'Connor the winner in Halton's federal election Monday too.
The students had been studying the federal election for the past few weeks and so on Monday, while their parents were heading to the polling booths the students held their own election at the school. Staff members joined the pupils in the voting and the final result was, 17 votes for PC candidate (and Halton's MP-elect) Terry O'Connor, 14 for former MP Rud Whiting of the Liberals, and nine for NDP runner Carolyn Holstein.

Cruiser invitation still open

The invitation to Milton residents to take part in the Milton Police Department's ride-a-cruiser program is still open, says Police Chief Ray Andrews.
Purpose of the program, inaugurated in the springtime, is to give the public an inside view of the problems the force has to encounter. Among the few restrictions are that women and girls bring a friend with them. Interested individuals can ride in a cruiser almost any time.
Application forms can be obtained at the Milton Police office in the Town Hall, Main St.
