John Inglehart, brother of the bride, was usher.

W.I. plans sewing course next week

The October meeting of the Nassagaweya Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. S. Anderson with the President, Mrs. Glen Pearce, in the chair. The rollcall was answered by the 12 members present by a showing of their special handicrafts. Among these were jewellery making, weaving, embroidery, quilting blocks, rug making and woodworking. Business arising from the minutes included plans to send Mrs. Pearce and Mrs. Jensen as delegates to the area convention in Stratford on Nov. 2, 3. "Whatnot" A letter from Mrs. Zoller was read relating to a gift to be made to the Eriand Lee Home at Stoney Stony Creek, as the 75th Anniversary Project. Among the articles mentioned as needed in the Home was a 'Whatnot'. Mrs. Andrew offered one that has been in her family for well over 100 years. Mrs. DeBlauw and Mrs. Pearce of the visiting committee gave an account of newcomers visited and welcomed to the community. The President introduced the subject of Mother's Groups in the community. There was much discussion but no plans were adopted at this time. Sewing with knits The "Sewing With Knits" course with instructors Mrs. Pearce and Mrs. Jensen will be held at the home of Mrs. Andrew from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Nov. 7-14. Mrs. L. Daigle, the convener of the program, showed handicrafts made from many varieties of wood. The wood carving even included one made by insects - in a contemporary design. Wooden objects from "Century" homes in the area were displayed and the history of each related. Wooden articles from many parts of the world completed Mrs. Daigle's interesting and informative talk. Mrs. McLaren, courtesy convener, thanked the hostess and speaker and all taking part. Plan course on sewing Nelson Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. J. Vansickle, Palermo. Arrangements were made to hold four evening classes of "Sewing with Knits" under the direction of Mrs. J. Campbell and Mrs. Harry Wilson, also plans for a euchre party at the home of Mrs. Ed Vivian, Cedar Springs Rd., Nov. 14. Mrs. J. Taylor gave a report of the Leadership Convention she attended at Guelph and Mrs. R. McKeown, the thought for the day. Mrs. A. C. Harner was in charge of resolutions dealing with community concerns and needs. A tasty lunch followed.

Gorters celebrate

Despite a miserably wet night on Oct. 21, a capacity crowd turned out to Kilbride School to help Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gorter celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary. Receiving with them were their son, Kenneth and his bride Alyce, as well as their son, Jim. Mrs. J.L. Blair of Kitchener was in charge of the guest books, and Mrs. Anna Scott McNabb and Mrs. Clarence Galbraith eldest cousin of the couple, poured tea and coffee at the buffet table. Dancing to the strains of Miller's Orchestra appeared to be thoroughly enjoyed. It was an enjoyable evening.

Oct. 25 a delightful surprise dinner party with 10 friends was enjoyed at the Plainsman Restaurant with the Gorters as guests of honor.

Then on Friday, Oct. 27, about 60 cousins gathered at the Boyne Centre and provided a delicious smorgasbord with the head table complete with a lovely anniversary cake. With Ken Galbraith of Erin as master of ceremonies the bride and groom of 25 years were presented with a handsome gift to commemorate the occasion. The balance of the evening was spent in playing euchre.

The Gorters were happy that guests came from Parham, Bramalea, Owen Sound, Mississauga, Clarkson, Ingersoll, Inglewood, Bolton, Erin, Georgetown, Campbellville, Carlisle, Milton, Burlington, Aldershot and Kilbride.

MARNIE HARE and Ronald Rand exchanged wedding vows at Alderwood United Church in Toronto. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hare of Milton and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rand of Weston.

Ellen Casson, 312 Kingsleigh Ct., recently returned from Florida where she spent 10 days on a business trip. Ellen's husband Bill joined her for the weekend and they visited Disney World, and J. F. Kennedy Space Centre, both of which will be visited on the tour they plan to conduct in February. Knox Church held their 117th anniversary service on Sunday, Oct. 29. Rev. Alex Calder from Peterborough and one time minister of Georgetown Presbyterian Church was guest speaker. While in Milton Rev. Calder was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Craig Reid, R.R. 6, Milton. Knox church was built 117 years ago and the sounds from the old pipe organ proved that there are some old fashioned things that are still good today. The day was one of music and song and the Haltones Choir led the singing at the evening service with choir director, Ken Harrison playing the organ. Following the service a time of fellowship was held in the lower auditorium. Congratulations and best wishes go to Mary Hutchinson, 129 Thomas St. who celebrated her birthday on Monday, Oct. 30. Latest newcomers to Churchill Ave. are Mr. and Mrs. W. Kay and their four year old twin daughters from Mississauga; Mr. and Mrs. A. Clark from Downsview, Mr. and Mrs. S. Woods from Mississauga, Mr. and Mrs. E. Gill from Scarborough, Mr. and Mrs. C. Walker from London and Mr. and Mrs. B. Feddery from Toronto. We welcome you to our town. Hood's Chicken Queens of the senior girls' softball league held a chicken supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Fitzpatrick, 379 George St. on Wednesday evening. Following dinner the girls presented Mr. and Mrs. Pete Crewson, Grant Coulson and Doreen Vaughan with a gift and their thanks for a good baseball season. Happy birthday wishes go to Gord Warrington, 335 Woodward St., who celebrates his birthday on Saturday, Nov. 4. New residents at the Glen Eden apartments are Mr. and Mrs. T. Wedding

Rand - Hare

Two hundred guests at Alderwood United Church, Toronto, witnessed a beautiful Christ-centred wedding when Marnie Hare, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hare, Milton, and Ronald Rand, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rand, Weston, exchanged vows at a late afternoon ceremony, Sept. 30th.

The organist Danny Hynek played many suitable selections preceding the service, breaking into "Jesu Joy of Man's Desiring," along with cellist Stuart Kinsinger; as Marnie, on the arm of her father, approached the altar, preceded by maid-of-honor Michele Hare, sister of the bride, and bridesmaids Gay Stimers (nee Oliver) and Janice Muncaster, both of Toronto.

At the altar with the groom were his best man, Tim Nimigan, ushers Ken Marek and Rod Nicholas, all of Toronto; ministers Rev. H. D. Moddle of Alderwood United Church, and Dr. H. C. Slade of Jarvis St. Baptist Church, Toronto.

The bride's floor length gown was a creation of her own designing. She chose white polyester batiste, fashioned with a simple fitted bodice and Empire waist line, falling into a delicately bouffant three-tiered skirt. An opal pendant, gift from her parents, completed the bride's ensemble.

The velvet ribbon trim on the attendants' multi-flowered gowns inspired designs for crewel embroidery which was worked on the bride's gown. Each tier of the three-tiered skirt was worked in autumn shades in Hearts and Flowers motif by the bride herself, her mother, paternal grandmother and friends. The bouquets also picked up the colors in the embroidery.

Also unusual was the fact the groom chose to wear his father's wedding suit with a maroon silk morning tie, and a pocket watch, chain and fob, the gifts of the bride. The other men in the party wore black tuxedos with red and white ruffled shirts.

Chose scriptures

The ceremony, solemnized by Rev. Moddle was preceded by the reading of several scriptures, chosen by the couple, and read by Dr. Slade, emphasizing Christ's love for His own and His approval of Holy Matrimony.

The Wedding Song, sung and accompanied on a guitar by David Moddle followed, after which the vows were exchanged from memory by the couple.

Quiet Holy Communion for the wedded couple was partaken of, preceded by the congregation singing "O Perfect Love", following which, the happy wedding party hurried down the aisle to the strains of "Ode to Joy."

A hot buffet dinner in the fellowship hall followed, hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Hare.

Among honored guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hare, London, Bertha C. Gadsby, Hamilton, grandparents of the bride, and Mrs. Marek, Minitonas, Manitoba, grandmother of the groom.

Toast in Czech

Tim Nimigan, toastmaster, called upon Ralph Morton, Oakville to toast the bride; Rev. Wm. Sift, Aldershot, to toast the mothers; Rev. David Ganton, Welland, to toast the grandmothers; and a special toast was given for grandmother Marek by her son Joe, of Oakville in Czech.

Guests, both from Toronto and the Milton area, included Jack Johnston, Galt, great uncle of the bride, and from Manitoba, as well as the groom's grandmother, were an aunt, Miss Vera Marek, and an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. R. Rascinsky.

The newlyweds travelled north and returned to live in Milton. Other preceding festivities for the happy couple were an engagement buffet supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norm Hare; showers by Sally Sullivan and bridesmaid, Janice Muncaster at her home, Toronto; Jean Falkenstein and Pat Benson at her home, Campbellville; Ethel Rascinsky, the groom's aunt Toronto, and a "His and Hers" shower by Olga Marek, aunt of the groom, at her home in Oakville.
