Plan achievement days Dec. 2, Dec. 16

Hornby Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. L. Sampson with nine members and seven visitors present on Nov. 8. Our president Mrs. H. O'Connor welcomed the visitors and read a Remembrance Poem.

Mrs. L. Sampson read the minutes of the last meeting and gave the treasurer's report. Correspondence consisted of a letter from our adopted Chinese child, notice of dates of Achievement Day, Dec. 2 and Dec. 16. A letter was read from Mrs. Grange a lady the group corresponds with in Ireland, also a letter was received concerning abandoned cemeteries saying that the county was undergoing an inspection and that the cemetery matter would be investigated. The A.C.W. Competition will consist of an essay (1,500 words) written in ink or typed (three copies)—on the subject of folk customs or festivals. A wall hanging 24" x 18" (no larger) was second article and third, an unframed painting with no glass.

Christmas parcel

A Christmas parcel had been sent to the adopted child. A report was given of the 75th anniversary District Day held at Lowville. As a remembrance from Hornby W.I. Miss Joyce Wilson will be presented with a small token of appreciation for winning the titles of 4-H Princess and Queen in two consecutive years. Mrs. L. Sampson and Mrs. H. Reed were appointed to look after that.

Mrs. I. Howden and Mrs. R. Wilson were named as a committee to buy Christmas gifts for some convalescing neighborhood ladies. Mrs. H. O'Connor gave a report of the convention held at Stratford. Mrs. I. Howden also attended. Members were told that all W.I. money spent should be on Institute projects and community work. There should be better communication between branches and there should be a drive for new members.

Prepare vegetables

Mrs. I. Howden was in charge of the agriculture part of the meeting. Roll call was "How I prepare a Vegetable for the freezer." Mrs. Howden presented a paper on different methods of preparing fruits and vegetables for the freezer.

The pennies for friendship box was passed and the meeting closed with "O Canada" and grace. Mrs. Roy Wilson and Mrs. L. Sampson served lunch and a social half hour was enjoyed.

Hospital auxiliary seeks new members

Milton District Hospital Auxiliary hopes to bolster membership and interest in their work Nov. 17 when they hold a membership tea from 2 to 4 p.m. and their annual gift shop sale from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

"We're always trying to boost membership and interest new members and once a year we make a public appeal," member Anne Ptolemy explained.

The auxiliary plays a number of roles within the hospital. Arranging flowers, refreshment carts taken from room to room, diversional therapy which includes leather crafts and other crafts come under the auspices of the auxiliary.

Hair do

Two hairdressers in the community volunteer their time and the auxiliary provides the materials for some of the female patients to have their hair done while they are patients.

The auxiliary works with candy strippers as well. Girls 15 and over are welcomed into the ranks of the candy strippers. "The only reward is self satisfaction," Mrs.

Ptolemy said.

For the past few years the group has been diverting proceeds from fund raising projects towards cost of x-ray equipment valued at about $20,000.

"I'm shopping at Loblaws again because of price"

Sheila McFadden started shopping at a 'discount' store awhile ago. She thought she was saving money.

"I got fed up with the lack of service. There never seemed to be anyone around when I needed them. And even if there was someone there, they never seem to have time."

"I went back to Loblaws and know what? Their prices are as low as the 'discount' prices. They must have done something."

"Anyway I went back for the service and stayed for the prices. Put that in your newspaper ad!"
