Cub Supply Building
I am sure many of us were wondering what Fred Arnold was doing directing traffic along Kilbride St. and up Panton St. last Saturday. It sure was a big load and Fred ably directed the truck which had to negotiate under some overhanging branches, and slowly but surely the Cubs Supply Building was transported from the Old Hall to its new site behind the Kilbride Public School.
The building will house the flags and equipment, and be more convenient for the leaders and boys.
Ice Capades
The Safety Patrol children had a fun afternoon last Saturday as they were taken to see the Ice Capades in Toronto. Amongst the children from the Kilbride Public School were Karen Watson, Jan Foss-Peterson, Nancy Odorico, Nancy Dubrec and Judy Jones. Two guests also went along, namely Ricky Muirhead and Cathy Anderchek.
