Two teams tie for first place

Milton's 3-1 win against Burlington here Sunday allowed Streetsville to move into a two way tie with the league-leading Burlington Club. The week's action didn't represent any significant change in the Flyers' standings.

Teams	GP	W	L	T	GF	GA	Pts
Burlington	17	10	4	3	91	57	23
Streetsville	17	10	4	3	86	74	23

Break even then lose

Milton Pee Wee Optimists were engaged in two hard fought contests over the weekend. In an exciting game at Bramalea on Saturday the Optimists came away with a 1-1 tie. It was an excellent team effort including outstanding goaltending from Mike Shepherd.

Milton's only goal was put in the net by Duane Stark on a great passing play, from Norm Flemington. Chinguacousy's goal was notched by Dave Samson.

Sunday Milton dominated the game against Guelph and had strong goaltending but still came out losers 4-3. Norm Flemington, Ian Wanless and Doug Dorsey scored Milton goals and John Leprich assisted on Flemington's goal.

Novices bombed

Milton Minor Novices dropped a 3-1 lead to the powerful Chinguacousy hockey club Saturday and wound up with a 14-4 loss. Many of the Chinguacousy goals were scored on breakaways.

The locals held their own well into the second period and at one time held a 3-1 lead in the first period. It was a matter of three balanced lines overcoming the Milton skaters.

Chris Graham scored twice Jeff Caputo and Eddie Gaeton assisted on the first and Doug McCann and Mark Bradley on the second. Smooth skating Stan Fay scored twice and assists went to Mike Claer, Chris Adamson and Barry Riebot.

Bulldogs blanked
On Saturday afternoon the Milton Credit Union Bulldogs played host to the undefeated Brampton triple "A" team and were shut out 3-0. The Bulldogs came up with their best effort of the season as they held the visitors to one goal in each period.

Dave Toletzka turned in a top notch game in the Milton net and only some great goaltending at the other end of the rink kept the Bulldogs off the score sheet. Coach "Punch" Wilson noted that if the boys turn on like that against the teams in their own division, they should win a lot of games.
