The annual Rotary Club Grey Cup dance was a sell-out success this year under the committee of Dave Thompson, Chuck Beeton and Howard Griswold. A buffet dinner at the Legion Hall was followed by dancing to the music of the Big Five.

The Tri-Chem Liquid Embroidery open house was held on Nov. 23, 24, and 25, at the home of Mrs. Marion Irwin, 371 Meadowbrook Dr. Mrs. Irwin's daughter Mary, who is a student at Ontario School for the Deaf, had many items on display which she had done herself as well as the eight items for which she won prizes at the Milton Fall Fair and the Tri-Chem Convention.

Mary and her two friends Cathy and Janice, who spent the weekend with her were busy working on a Nativity scene and other Christmas paintings. Watching the girls at work was proof that the hobby is quickly gaining popularity.

Mary's introduction to this type of painting began when her father, the Rev. R.J. Irwin died. Mary took the loss very hard. Her uncle in Nevada realized that Mary needed to be kept busy and got her started with the painting. A light lunch was served to those attending.

Congratulations to Buck and Joan Gervais, 308 Kingsleigh Ct. who will celebrate their wedding anniversary Dec. 4.

Bert Casson and Daryl Dingman, 312 Kingsleigh Ct. and Dale and Dianne Dingman of Oakville travelled to Ivy Lea in the 1,000 Islands on the weekend to visit Bruce and Dorothy Dingman (formerly of Milton). They also visited Daryl and Dale's grandmother Mrs. Ken Shipman and their great aunt Miss Ethel Shipman who will celebrate her 92nd birthday on Dec. 3. Both ladies read The Canadian Champion faithfully to keep informed of the latest happenings in Milton.

Get well wishes go to Dermot Gildea, 364 Kingsleigh Ct. who is in Milton District Hospital. We join with his family and friends in wishing him a speedy recovery.

The youth of Milton Youth Council deserve credit for their planning and enthusiastic participation in Friday evening's broomball game between the Youth Council and the Town Council and Milton Police. The Youth Council's cheer leaders caused a lot of laughter (and stares) as did the players and way out uniforms. It was too bad that more people failed to come out and support those who worked so hard for the event.

Those who did attend were heard to say that it should be made an annual event. Everyone was invited back to the Coffee House after the game and again only a few attended. Those who did were treated to coffee and sweets baked by the girls of the Youth Council and their parents. It was apparent that the young people were proud of their place and they went out of their way to make the adults feel at home.

Many happy returns of the day are wished for Joan Horning, 217 Parkway Dr. who will celebrate her birthday on Sunday, Dec. 3.

The November meeting of the Harmony Court residents was held in the common room on Thursday evening, Nov. 16.

Russell Clements was in the chair and 20 people were present. Mrs. Eves, Mrs. McKinnon and Mrs. Riddell were appointed as the nominating committee. The next meeting on Dec. 8 will be a Christmas dinner meeting and it is hoped that Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. McNabb will be home from hospital by then. Rev. J. Murray showed pictures on India which everyone enjoyed. Visiting her father, Russell Clements was Eleanor Butcher from Newliskeard. Blanche Elliott moved a vote of thanks.

Robert Cragg, 422 Woodway St. left on Saturday evening for Australia where he will visit relatives at Melbourne, Sydney, Adelaide and Alice Springs. He will also tour the country and be away for three months.

Alfredo and Enrichetta Bonin of R.R.3 Milton were guests of honor at a supper at the Charles Hotel on Sunday. The get-together was in honor of the Couple's 25th wedding anniversary on Wednesday Nov. 22. About 65 friends and relatives gathered to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Bonin and the couple received many gifts and cards of congratulations.

Inspiring address at CWL breakfast

On Sunday Nov. 19 the Catholic Women's League Milton held their annual Communion Breakfast at the Charles Hotel. About 30 ladies were in attendance. The guest speaker was Audrey Wallner from St. John's Parish, Burlington.

Her inspiring address gave much food for thought for the ladies in attendance. Special copies of her talk were made up so all the ladies could go over the wealth of encouragement and inspiration throughout her address.

R.I.A. GRADUATE

The phrase that hit home was: "You're as young as your faith, as old as your doubt, as young as your self confidence, as old as your fear, as young as your hope, as old as your despair." A delicious Breakfast was enjoyed by all.

Ladies of church shower L. Jeffares

At a euchre in St. George's Anglican Church Hall on Tuesday, Nov. 21 the prize winners were Martha Stokes, Elsie Watson, Burness Coulson and Lloyd Stokes. Frank Peacock won the lucky draw.

The Evening ACW of St. George's, Lowville held their November meeting at the home of Kathy Powell. The president Mrs. Kenny opened the meeting with a poem taken from the Living Message. The roll call word was "Peace". The Christmas program was organized and the meeting is to be held at the home of Margaret Harris in the form of a pot luck supper. Speaker for the evening was Mrs. Kay Fisher, a public health nurse who stressed "good mental health ways from childhood to senior citizens." The church calendars were on sale.

Christmas tables shown

Milton and District Horticultural Society held its Christmas meeting on Nov. 20 in the UAW Centre on Martin St., with president C. S. Lockie presiding. Mrs. G. Byerman reported on get well cards sent and Mr. Lockie conducted a question and answer period on Christmas customs. Miss Sari Herrera played four selections on her piano-acordion.

Mrs. Cox was in charge of the "hospitality table" while Mrs. Thompson had a "children's party table" and Mrs. Tasker a "Christmas at home" table. Each was decorated differently, using blended colors for interesting decorations. Mrs. Stares of Kilbride was judge for the flower show. Not all the classes had entries. The following were winners: Three Christmas favors — Mrs. Thompson. Wall or door decoration made on a coat hanger — Wilmer Thompson. Coffee table arrangement — Mrs. Thompson, Wilmer Norman Flemington of R.R. 1, Hornby recently graduated as a registered member of the Society of Industrial Accountants.
