

OLD TIME MUSIC went over in a big way at a benefit dance held at Ligny Hall Friday night. About $75 was collected for the families burned out of their homes before Christmas on Martin St. The band and hall were both donated and the ladies provided the lunch.

Amos topic WMS group

On Jan. 9, the evening department of Knox Church Milton's W.M.S. held their meeting at the home of Mrs. P. Denboer. The meeting opened with a "greeting to the new year" by the president, Mrs. D. Lockie.

Devotions for the evening were conducted by Mrs. G. McIntosh.

The theme of the study for the night was "Who cares to show that faith in God is more than just a gesture?" conducted by Mrs. K. Marshall. Mrs. Marshall also gave a background on the life of Amos.

The treasurer's and secretary's annual reports were read and adopted. Thanks were extended to all members.

U.C.W. names new officers for 1973

St. Paul's United Church Women's General Annual meeting was held in the Fellowship Room on Jan. 8, beginning with an enjoyable pot luck supper together. Annual reports were received and passed showing endeavors and plans accomplished, and allocations in supplies and moneys fulfilled. Mrs. Harold Coulson presided.

Mrs. Clarence Cole, recording secretary gave the complete year's report, reviewing many interesting and successful occasions, outlining the general work of the units, attendance at Halton Presbyterian annual and executive U.C.W., special gatherings, work shops, World Day of Prayer service, June morning church U.C.W. service with guest speaker and guest choir. The yearly report of the treasurer was read by Mrs. T.A. Hutchinson in the absence of Mrs. Ross Lawrence. These two satisfying records were given a hearty clap of appreciation by all present.

The retiring president, Mrs. Coulson thanked her officers and members of the U.C.W. for their untiring, willing services, and then presented the new slate of 1973 officers including Hon. Presidents, Miss Mina Hume and Mrs. C.A. Hainer. Past president is Mrs. Harold Coulson, president is Mrs. James Gilbert, first vice-pres. is Mrs. Charles Thomson, rec.-secretary is Mrs. Clarence Cole, assist.-sec'y is Mrs. Stanley Love, treasurer is Mrs. Ross Lawrence and corres-sec'y is Mrs. Gordon Thomas.

Committee chairman include supply and social assistance Mrs. James Holmes, stewardship and vocation is Mrs. Norman Gropp, community friendship and visiting is Mrs. Keith Fay and Mrs. W. Fidler, christian and missionary education is Mrs. Harold Coulson, citizenship and social action is Mrs. E. W. Foster, literature and communications is Mrs. William Mahon, membership is Mrs. Charles Wilson, nominations is Mrs. T. A. Hutchinson, bazaar convener is Mrs. Charles Williams, flowers is Mrs. J. M. Ledwith, manse committee is Mrs. John Venstra and Mrs. J. McGeachie, finance is Mrs. Charles Fay, press and publicity is Mrs. F.W. Harbottle and observer is Mrs. J.G. Purdy.

The new U.C.W. president, Mrs. James Gilbert was asked to take charge, giving thanks and appreciation for the confidence and trust placed in her for her new duties. At this time she called back, Mrs. Harold Coulson, who was thanked and presented with a Wedgewood China piece in love and appreciation by Mrs. Charles Thomson, first vice-president, Mrs. F. W. Harbottle, and Mrs. J. Gilbert leading in prayer. Mrs. Coulson has fulfilled two years of unexcelled service and will be still working on the general executive.

To conclude the evening's program, a skit of doctor, nurse and staff to remedy U.C.W. problems and difficulties was skilfully played by Mrs. Mary McEachern, Doctor, Mrs. Lucille Cole Secretary, Mrs. Elva Ezeard, nurse and Mrs. Mabel Coulson, Mrs. Bonnie Fay, Mrs. Lois Thomson, and Mrs. Irene Gilbert.

Members were pleased to have Mrs. H. Riley, Mrs. Cliff Pettigrew and Mrs. N. Gropp out.

Edith Greene

Humor is evident on 104th birthday

Edith Greene celebrated her 104th birthday Wednesday but her friends and acquaintances say she'll never grow old. Displaying exceptional wit and a refreshing sense of humor Mrs. Greene greeted friends, some relatives and fellow Manor residents at a party in the Martin House.

Mrs. Greene told attendees she wanted "nippy old cheese" when asked what she would like to eat on her birthday.

Joking with photographers, she warned broken cameras would result if her picture was taken. Manor administrator Stan Allen suggested, "don't eat too much cake now, Mrs. Greene." "I don't like cake," she replied.

Favorite songs
Mrs. Judy Hunter accompanied by organist Mrs. George Newell sang a number of songs. Among the favorites requested by Mrs. Greene was "The Old Rugged Cross." Mrs. Greene sang along with several of the songs.

Mrs. Greene sat at the front of the common room with 106-year-old Simon Baverstock and 82-year-old Harry Fenn. Mr. Fenn used to play cards with Mrs.

Greene and her husband. Flowers were presented by Warden Mrs. A. MacArthur and a corsage by Manor Board of Management Committee Chairman Bob McCuaig. McCuaig said he'd take good care of Mrs. Greene and the Manor because he wanted to go there when he was 104.

Born in England, Mrs. Greene emigrated to Canada in 1908 with her husband.

While she tires rather quickly, Mrs. Greene still enjoys music and activities at the Manor.

Seeks volunteers to help Line-ups with Feb. heart campaign

The January meeting of Campbellville Women's Institute was at the home of the president, Mrs. O. Van Sickle, who read a poem "The Days."

Letters of thanks were read from those who had received remembrances at Christmas. The draw for the oil painting will be held in the spring. Mrs. V. Cochram will be responsible for permit and tickets. The finance committee was named to be in charge of the Valentine Euchre in the Masonic Hall Feb. 9.

The 4-H girls' club leaders for this session are to be Mrs. W. Webb and Mrs. D. Cramp. Summary Day is Jan. 29. Each member received a recipe book,

"Cooking Ontario Chicken." February being Heart Month. Mrs. R. Elliot the canvas chairman asked any volunteers who would help out with canvassing to contact her at 854-2218.

Roll call was, "What is our generation leaving for the future?" Conveners of Historical Research and current events, Miss K. McPhedran and Mrs. V. Cochram presented an interesting and thought-provoking program. The Motto was The Happy New Year by Mrs. V. Cochram. A humorous reading, "Do you remember the rain barrel?" was given by Mrs. L. Stoke.

Line-ups at the T-bar near the chalet at Glen Eden Ski Club bothered Oakville Councillor Richard Day when he went skiing at the club in Kelso Conservation Area one recent weekend. He complained about the line-ups at a Halton Region Conservation Authority meeting Wednesday.

General manager Murray Stephen was asked to investigate the crowded conditions at the Authority-owned ski club and bring in a report.

A quiz of events and happenings of the past year, and a contest were conducted by Miss K. McPhedran. A dainty lunch served by Mrs. R. Parker and Mrs. L. Stokes brought an enjoyable evening to a close.

President urges Institute expand

Hornby Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. M. J. Brown, Milton on Jan. 10 with 11 members and five visitors present. Mrs. H. O'Connor, president, opened the meeting. A poem was read in memory of the three politicians who recently died, Sir John A. MacDonald's birthday and the 65th anniversary of the W.I.

Roll call, "a custom of another country alien to us" was well answered. The minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. L. Sampson, Summary Day for a course on "Sewing With Knits" will be held at Master Feeds, Georgetown on Jan. 29. It was decided to send $5 to the North Halton Music Festival fund.

Mrs. M. J. Brown, convener of Citizenship and World Affairs was in charge of the program. She gave a reading on "The New Year" and had prepared the motto "It is not the situation in which you find yourself that matters, it is your attitude towards it."

More members
Mrs. Nellis, District President was guest speaker. She said Institutes should strive for an increase in membership. Inviting ladies in the community to W.I. meetings might create interest. Start meetings and end meetings on time, read only W.I. correspondence letters in full, have something entertaining and educational at each meeting. Time of meetings could be morning, afternoon or evening. See that delegates are sent to the W.I. conventions. She felt she was interested in W.I. work on account of the friendship, opportunity and reward. Mrs. Nellis gave an explanation of the Mary Stewart Collect — composed by a housewife, it appeared on the local W.I. programs in 1910. A humorous "Ten Commandments for W.I. members" was also given.

A discussion on prejudice or discrimination followed. A prayer on middle age was read by Mrs. Brown.

Lunch was served by Mrs. D. Downes and the hostess.
