

Mutt show is howling success 55 enter dogs

The dogs had their day Saturday, during the Snow Festival.

Milton Rotary Club organized a "mutt show" which can only be described as a "howling success".

It was held beneath the grandstand at Milton Fair Grounds with around 55 dogs entered by children aged 12 and under. Rotarian Gus Goutouski organized the event, assisted by Burke McNeill, Mike Crucefix, Laura Goutouski and chief judge Mrs. Andy Nunn.

Chocolates, ribbons and ball point pens were given out as prizes and nearly everyone took home something. Winners were:

Hot time for swimmers during winter carnival

While temperatures outside hovered just above zero, youngsters who didn't feel like bundling up against the cold had a "hot time" in the indoor swimming pool at Ontario School for the Deaf Saturday and Sunday.

Swimming competitions were scheduled as part of the weekend Snow Festival. Owing to a lack of registrations, the competitions were reduced to two hours on the Saturday and the pool was thrown open for public swimming for three hours Sunday. Head Lifeguard Julie Stover reports about 60 attended Saturday and around 75 Sunday.

Milton Recreation Committee organized the event and Milton Chamber of Commerce covered the expenses. Lifeguards on duty were Miss Stover, Debbie Butler, Bob Langridge, Joyce DeKoeijer and Paul Stover. "The kids had a lot of fun," Miss Stover said.
