Pintos top minors

Milton Novice Pintos play two exhibition games over the weekend. In the first they dumped the Novice Minor team by a 9-0 score. Scoring for the Pintos were Dave Flemington and Joe Gaeton with two each, Blair Phillips, Eddie Loerich, Brad Nadalin, Richard Shannon and Paul Butler.

Assists went to Brian Serafini, Ivo Zulian (2), Wayne MacDougall, Gaeton, Loerich and Flemington.

On Sunday the Pintos dropped a 5-1 contest to the Oakville Major Novice team. Milton's lone goal came when Joe Gaeton converted a pass from Eddie Loerich to score.

Subdivision at Moffat is proposed

Representatives of Moffat Estates presented plans for a 25-unit estate type subdivision for the Moffat area to Nassagaweya Council Monday.

Council was told the 25 homes would be situated on 40 acres and the developer hoped to put the houses on the market for a price starting at $38,000.

The proposal was referred to committee for final approval but council openly expressed favor for the plans presented.

One major 8 minors

Milton Police report one major accident and eight minor accidents occurring between April 2 and 9 on Milton streets.

The Milton Plaza entrance on Main St. was the site of a collision between automobiles owned by Burkhard Nowak, R.R. 1 Hornby and Ben Sikkema, 97 McDonald Cresc., Milton. Each car sustained $200 damage. The collision occurred Monday, April 9. No injuries were suffered.
