saddened by the passing of Sarah Heatherington. Her fine character and bright spirit will be greatly missed by all who knew her, our concern and sympathy go out to her family and her husband Robert Heatherington who is recovering from an operation in Henderson Hospital.

We would also like to remember Ella Foote who is in Joseph Brant Hospital. And Mary Cowan who has been in Toronto General Hospital the past two weeks.

I would also like to acknowledge and congratulate the several students from this area who have completed their Grade 13. It is quite an accomplishment to "stick with it" through all the secondary grades and they deserve recognition. They are Stephen Price, Mary Dobbie, Anne Ramshaw, Helen Pier, Susan Ferguson, Michael Clements, Lynne Harris, Karen Searles, Kathy Henebury, Charmalita Joy, Kathy Bunce, Terry Heatherington, Claudio Zulian, and Donna Byers.

The Eric Gudgeons' Golf Course, "Lowville Heights" is open for business. What better way to get away from the noise and pollution of today's living than a quiet game of golf on those scenic rolling hills? We wish them every success in their new venture.

Studies opera
Susan Gudgeon is returning home from Toronto where she has been working with the Toronto Repertoire Opera Co. to take part in the Mohawk Opera Workshop for the summer. The J. R. O. Opera Co. is the only place in North America where you can study opera at night.

The Sapphire Matron's Club, Order of the Eastern Star, Hamilton District held their picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. De Quettinille, Grimby. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Coulter attended yesterday.

Linda Karu, Carl and Karen were visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Gunby in April. They moved from Edmonton to Terrace B. C. where her husband Eric is a mechanic in heavy construction. They have bought a house and Linda reports that her grocery bill is much higher than here, eg. milk is 41 cents a quart. She is planning to get a job nursing.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lee are here from Saskatoon.
Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lee are down from Saskatoon, visiting their daughter Pat and her husband Eugene Manion in Toronto. Kay's brother Tom Ramshaw, of Lowville and Henry Ramshaw of Parry Sound.

Potters busy
Richard and Helen Sovereign, Beth and Tommy Spent the weekend at Dunbarton with Merle and Sheila Gunby and family. While Richard and Merle are catching up on the farm, Helen and Sheila will be comparing notes on pottery. They are both avid "potters" and Sheila gave a pottery demonstration on T.V. in Kitchener a while back.

Helen demonstrated and sold pottery at Spencer Park on Saturday. Several other potters from Burlington also donated pots and time. The proceeds are going to the "Save the Lakeshore Fund."
Pauline Biggley of near Baltimore, Md. is home with her parents George and Hazel Colling for two weeks.

We are glad to hear that Laura Warmington is recovering from her illness in the hospital.

Discusses customs
The afternoon group of the Lowville U. C. W. held their meeting at the home of Ella Rocheforte. Ella Foote planned the meeting with Mr. Siddiqui, the Burlington town planner speaking on India and Pakistan, their customs and problems.

Grace Readhead read the scripture, Camy Campbell gave the prayer and conducted the business. Plans were made for the auction and bake sale to be held at the church on June 16, at 1.30 p.m. Marion Gates favored the group with a solo and Velma Norris of Guelph was the courtesy convener.
