

Pasuta — Smith

Carlisle United Church was the setting for the marriage of Miss Elaine Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Smith of Campbellville, and Robert Pasuta, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Pasuta of Campbellville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Harwood.

Mrs. Brenda Smith, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor, while bridesmaids were Mrs. Sharon Hunter, sister of the bride, Miss Susan Pasuta, sister of the groom and Miss Victoria Davidson, cousin of the bride.

Tracy Lynn Smith and Tammy Lee Hunter, both nieces of the bride were flower girls.

Kenneth Pasuta, brother of the groom was best man, while the ushers were Murray Hunter, Richard Bashista, and Edmond Smith.

Reception and dinner were held at the Marion Hall in Frelton. The beautiful three tiered wedding cake with yellow roses and topped with two silver and white bells, was made by Mrs. Irene Smuk, aunt of the groom. Approximately 150 guests attended the wedding and reception. Out of town guests were from Detroit, St. Catharines, Welland, Hamilton and Niagara Falls.

After returning from their trip the couple took up residence at R.R. 2, Campbellville.

celebrates his sixth birthday on Saturday, Sept. 8.

Mr. and Mrs. L.M. Roberts and family from Point Clare, Quebec; Mr. and Mrs. R.S. Burton and family from Toronto and Trinidad; and Mrs. E. Clarke and sons from Bramalea, are all new residents on Applewood Crescent and we welcome them to Milton.

Family and friends of Mrs. Sam Muddle, 56 Bronte St. are sorry to hear that she is a patient in Milton District Hospital and we all wish her a speedy recovery.

About the town

with Dolores Melanson

Phone 878-3138

Mr. and Mrs. Syd Moody from Liverpool, England are presently visiting their daughter and son-in-law Norma and Ian Muir, 625 Churchill Ave. We hope they are enjoying their stay in our town.

Congratulations and best wishes go to Mr. and Mrs. William T. Randall, 92 Charles St. who celebrate their wedding anniversary on Friday, Sept. 7.

Recent newcomers to Milton are Ian Hobbs and his wife Mrs. Janet Hobbs (nee Grass) and their two children Lisa, aged 9 and Julie aged 6 from Oakville. They are residing on Anne Blvd. and we welcome them to Milton.

Visiting the Hobbs last week were James Comiskey and his wife Mrs. Lila Comiskey (nee Hobbs) and their two sons James and Daniel from Windsor. James Sr. is a teacher at Our Lady of Lourdes in London and his wife Lila teaches psychiatric nursing at the University of Windsor.

Mr. Comiskey was very impressed with the town of Milton and also with the town's weekly newspaper The Canadian Champion. He understands newspaper work as he worked for five years in the editorial department of the Chatham Daily News. Mr. Comiskey inquired if columnist Dolores Melanson had relatives in Chatham as he knows a Pat Melanson there.

As it turns out the family is that of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Melanson, formerly of Woodward Ave. in Milton and although the families are not related there will be many people who remember Gordon and his family who moved here when Ontario Steel Products (now North American Rockwell) first opened its plant in Milton. We do hope the Comiskey family is enjoying their stay in Milton.

Mrs. Flo Taylor and her son Mark from Lincoln, England are presently visiting Mrs. Taylor's daughter Mrs. Tom Watson 167 Campbell Ave., Campbellville. She is also visiting another daughter Mrs. Peggy Newbould in Campbellville.

New residents on Willow Ave. are: Mr. and Mrs. I. Glende and son from Toronto and Mr. and Mrs. P. Howe from Toronto.

We welcome them to Milton.

Get well wishes go to Flora Zulian 7580 Tremaine Rd. who is a patient in Joseph Brant Hospital in Burlington. Her family and friends are hoping to see her back home soon.

Happy birthday wishes go to Cliff Barnes, 5550 Appleby Line who celebrates his birthday on Saturday Sept. 1.

Latest newcomers on Woodward St. East are Mr. and Mrs. W. Tyas and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. Matt, and Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Oostrom, all from Toronto. We welcome them to our town.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Randall, 92 Charles St. have just returned from a holiday in the Highlands of Scotland. They report the heather was at its best and they had a wonderful time.

Happy birthday to Billy Corradetti, 168 Lydia Ave. who

A WEDDING TRIP through Ottawa, the Laurentians and the North-eastern United States followed the marriage of Rosalyn Merry and Rand Nielsen at Bethel United Church on Aug. 3.

The groom's attendants were best man Rick Low of Hornby, and ushers Harold Merry, Reed Nielsen and Steve Cookson, all of Hornby.

An evening reception for 130 was held at the Wyldewood Golf Club.

The wedding cake was made by the bride's mother and iced by Mrs. Muriel Ross. During the ceremony the bride wore her great-great grandmother's wedding ring.

Out of town guests travelled from Barrie, Huntsville, and Calgary.

Before the wedding showers for the bride were given by Lois McDougall, Marion Marshall and Jeanette Tallyn. Karen Bouckhuyt, Sue Noble and Bethel United Church ladies. The bride's mother entertained at a trousseau tea.

The bride and groom will make their new home at 2200 Roche Court, Mississauga. The bride will be returning to Credit Valley School of Nursing after a period working at the Halton Manor. The groom is employed by Gulf Oil.

A HONEYMOON at Lake Louise, Alberta was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. William Smith before moving to their new home in Toronto. The bride is the former Barbara Hodson.

Wedding

Smith - Hodson

In an afternoon double ring ceremony Barbara Louise Hodson and William George Henry Smith were married in the First Baptist Church, Burlington, on August 11.

The service was performed by Rev. Gordon Rumford with Mrs. Benson singing Because, Be Now Mine Own, and Love's Offering, accompanied by organist Mrs. Hayward.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hodson of Ontario St. and the groom is the son of Fred Smith and the late Mrs. Marion Smith of Court St.

Maid of honor was a friend of the bride, Carol-Ann Hearn. The bridesmaids were Mary Jean Hodson, the bride's sister, and friends Mary DeBoer and Cindy Corp. Brenda Hodson was a junior bridesmaid and two cousins of the bride, Marie James of Simcoe and Kathy Hodson of Tillsonburg, were flower girls.

The groom's attendants included best man Robert McKee and ushers Dave McKee, Allan Smith, Jack Laird, and Alvin Rawson.

A buffet and dance for 150 was held at the Masonic Hall. Special guests were the bride's grandmother from Simcoe and her grandfather from Langton. Other guests travelled from Tillsonburg, Windsor, Simcoe, Beeton, Oakville, Burlington, Mississauga, Toronto and Brampton.

Several showers for the bride were given by Mrs. Anna Bell and Mrs. Callan, Carol-Ann Hearn and Cindy Corp and classmates at the Toronto General Nurses Residence. A rehearsal dinner was held at the groom's home.

The bride is a nurse in training at Toronto General Hospital and the groom works for Nadalin Electric.

Ladies' group holds annual corn roast

The Nelson Women's Institute held their annual corn roast Aug. 21, at the farm residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. Bell and Mr. and Mrs. F. Bell, Highway 5, Burlington. Their warm hospitality to 40 in attendance offset the chilly weather conditions.

C. Bell showed pictures of his five week visit with relatives in South Africa. The trip began with a nine hour flight from New York to Rio De Janeiro and approximately the same flight time to Johannesburg, the golden city.

Travel to Durban
Travelling on to Durban, a coastal city, he saw much of its modern beauty, fine markets, botanical gardens, thousands of acres of safari, and the blue of the Indian Ocean. He was greatly impressed with the friendliness and kindness shown him, as a Canadian, wherever he travelled. From Nairobi he flew to London, England, and drove by car north to Scotland where he took his flight home.

Following this, the group enjoyed the treat of fresh young corn cooked over an open fire, with watermelon, cookies and coffee completing the menu.

Mrs. D. Wendover expressed courtesy to the Bell family and the committee in charge, Mrs. C. Rose, Mrs. J. Breckon and Mrs. A. Harmer.
