MILTON'S SANITARY landfill site is nearing the end of its term as a dump. Works superintendent Bruce McKerr says his crew will be hard put to make the site last to the end of the year but garbage keeps coming and coming. The amount brought in by town trucks is only a fraction of what is brought in from all sources.

Milton Council Briefs

During a meeting of Milton Council convened at 10:30 Monday following committee deliberations, members:

-Revealed that Clerk J. the interim McGeachie had taken ill at work earlier in the day and would be away from the office for at least a week. Members of Council agreed to undertake some reponsibilities in

St. east of Ontario

-Named Mayor Brian Best to represent the municipality at an OMB hearing in Nassagaweya in conjunction Canadian Pacific Railway with Halton Region Conservation Authority. Both are opposing the application of the quarrying area to 850 facilities at a nearby station. acres. Opposition is based on the possible damaging effect the quarrying could have on the flows into Hilton Falls and through the Sixteen Mile Creek.

—Approved the promotion Ronald Oswald to second class constable on the Milton south of Milton. Police Force.

—Agreed to proceed with a of red maples on areas including Ontario St.

Communication to consider a the Town of Burlington in the subsidized bus service linking action.

HRCA briefs

At an executive meeting of Halton Region Conservation Authority meeting Thursday night at the Halton County

Building, the authority: -discussed the costs involved in having warning signals installed at the

Dufferin Quarries to extend Milton with the GO train tracks near Mountsberg.

-Asked for a public meet ing in Milton to be held by the Solandt Commission regarding the proposed hydro transmission line in Halton. Proposals released recently indicate a consultant's report proposed two lines north and -Agreed to continue their action opposing the license tree planting program to a for quarrying by David Lloyd limit of $1,000 for the planting George Co. and Springbank Gravel since no confirmation in writing of a verbal proposal had been received. The -Agreed to ask the Min- town is involved with the istry of Transportation and Conservation Authority and informed the provincial government had accepted the 1973 budget.

—agreed to have Authority Manager Murray Stephen approach Queen's Park regarding the acquisition of property in Burlington. The land is at the junction of Lake Ontario and Tuck Creek

—There are lots of election posters on poles around the town this week as candidates head into the home stretch for Monday's local and regional election.
