

Queen and Princess are chosen at fair

Verna Fisher and Joanne Wilson won the 4-H Queen and Princess competition respectively and both were honored during the opening ceremonies at Milton Fair Saturday.

Both are 16-year-old residents of Ashgrove and both attended Milton District High School. Skills in homemaking and other projects the girls undertake during the year are judged to help decide who'll be the queen and princess for the year.

Rose Lukewski was runner-up in the queen contest while Nancy Lawrence, Fern Lawrence and Irene Kidd were involved in that competition as well. Winner Verna will go on to the Canadian National Exhibition next summer.

The Queen received a trophy presented by George Brown of the Royal Bank, roses from the fair board and a sterling silver bracelet. The princess received a pen and pencil set from the Bank of Commerce and a corsage from the fair board.

Joining in the official opening was special guest Terry O'Connor, Conservative MP for Halton.

Mrs. Robertson wins 45 at fair

A regular exhibitor at the fair, Mrs. Norm Robertson of Acton dominated in food competitions Saturday. Her 50 entries netted her 45 prizes including 25 firsts, 11 seconds and nine thirds.

Following the display of her goods, Mrs. Robertson set up shop in the Main Mall at the fair grounds and sold her wares to anxious buyers. Baked goods went quickly; she also sold some of her jams and pickles.

Mrs. Robertson enters Milton and Acton fairs without fail each year. Her 60 entries at Acton this year netted her 52 prizes.

"I really enjoy entering Milton Fair," she remarked.

She used to compete at Georgetown also, but gave it up recently. She plans to compete at Milton and Acton for a long while yet.

SOMETHING DIFFERENT has been tried by a Toronto daily paper in an attempt to thwart theft of its paper vending boxes. This one is chained to a town "no parking" sign on Martin St. beside the post office. It should work, if nobody steals the sign too. The lady in the picture was an honest-to-goodness cash customer, incidentally, not an aspiring criminal.
