Recreation worker speaks to seniors

By Dolores Melanson
The Milton Senior Citizens Club held their September meeting on Wednesday evening in Knox Church Hall. President Charles Bounsall opened the meeting. Mrs. Lloyd Crawford played the piano for O Canada and Mrs. Mabel MacNabb led everyone in prayer.

President Bounsall welcomed all members and visitors Mr. and Mrs. Eric Slade and Miss B. Crosley. Secretary Mrs. A. Peddie read the minutes of the last meeting.

It was reported that everyone thoroughly enjoyed themselves on the bus trip to Gravenhurst and the boat trip on Lake Muskoka on Sept. 18.

The chairman of the various committees gave their reports and it was noted the Milton club now has 158 members.

Mrs. A. Peddie's niece, Mrs. D. Denenham and her friend Joyce from Streetsville were introduced.

They entertained the club during the evening by singing many favorites in duets and solos. Mrs. Lloyd Crawford accompanied them at the piano.

Mrs. E. Harbottle introduced Miss Debbie Kelly who is program supervisor for Milton Parks and Recreation Committee.

Welcomes guests
Tom Bradley welcomed Miss Kelly and noted that some of the Senior Citizens clubs were missing a great deal because the zone president had not seen fit to work more closely with the recreation department.

He suggested that when young people graduate and enter this field of work, that they tend to design programs mainly for young people. He noted one instance where the Brampton Recreation Director had members of the Senior Citizens Club playing "leap frog". He felt that a suitable program should be designed to benefit older people.

Debbie Kelly then explained what her job as program supervisor entailed.

Part of her job is to organize programs for groups such as senior citizens.

She was amazed at the size of the Milton Club with its 158 members. A new program called Coffee, Cards and Conversation has been planned. It will take place at the Community Centre on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday, commencing Oct. 15 from 1.30 to 3.00 p.m. and cards, checkers and chess will be available with coffee, cost 50c per person.

Square Dancing
Square dancing classes will be held at Ligny School on Mondays and Tuesdays from 8 to 10.30 p.m. For anyone wishing to learn Karate, classes will commence in October on Monday and Wednesday evenings from 7 to 10 at the high school.

A Christmas decoration class will also begin on Nov. 12 under the direction of Helen Redgrave. They will be held every Tuesday from 7 to 10 p.m.

Debbie said she would like to increase the contact between the recreation department and the senior citizens. She suggested a monthly report on the club's activities would help to create new programs. She noted that communication was important to realize the needs of the senior citizens.

Mrs. Frank Thompson gave an interesting report on the 15th annual convention of the United Senior Citizens of Ontario which was held in Sudbury on Aug. 21 and 22 at the Laurentian University.

Delegates from Milton were Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Campbell Wilson. Also attending as visitors were Mrs. Bena Greneke and Mrs. Ellen Harbottle.

The theme of the U.S.C.O. is "Living Can be Ageless."

Thanks
Mary Hutchinson thanked Debbie Kelly and Mrs. Thompson for their contributions to the meeting.

The next regular meeting will be on Oct. 17. This will be an afternoon meeting and will be held at St. Paul's United Church. The program is to be provided by the Owen Sound Senior Citizens Club.

Lunch was served at the conclusion of the meeting.

Wins with shoe design

Flower drying is demonstrated

Nelson Women's Institute held their September meeting at the home of Mrs. J. Vansickle, Palermo, with 25 in attendance. Each answered the roll call with a way wheat or corn come to the table. Mrs. G. Campbell, president, reported future events and Mrs. J. Taylor, secretary, the financial report.

Mrs. Harold Burkholder gave her personal thoughts on the motto, "Support Canadian products and Canadian industry will support you." She urged the seeking, watching for, and patronizing the Canadian label at all times.

Dried flowers
An instructive talk and demonstration on drying weeds and garden flowers for decorative purposes was given by Mrs. L. Shepherd, Zimmerman. She displayed Christmas ornaments, floral pictures and a lichen as creative arrangements.

An amusing half hour followed with an auction sale of produce from the garden or kitchen donated by the members. Mrs. M. Turner acted as auctioneer and a substantial amount was made for the cheer fund.

Mrs. Jean Everett expressed courtesy and lunch was served by the committee, Mrs. M. Turner, Mrs. W. Seale, and Mrs. C. Young.

1902 cook book shown at meeting

The September meeting of Mountain Union Women's Institute was held Wednesday, September 19 at the home of Mrs. Ruby Brown, Delaware St., Burlington.

It was a very interesting meeting, although there were only 12 members present. Mrs. Farlow, president, opened the meeting and welcomed members and visitors.

Business included the finalizing of plans for the display at Milton Fair with conveners Mrs. J. Robertson and Mrs. A. Britton. Delegates were appointed to the area W. I. convention at Waterloo, to be held the first week in November.

Mrs. Ellen Harbottle introduced the guest speaker Miss Marjorie Harris, president of Consumers and Family Affairs. Miss Harris is the daughter of Elgin Harris former owner and publisher of the Burlington Gazette.

A Women's Institute cook book published by her father in 1902 was brought to the meeting and was very interesting, especially names of early W. I. members who submitted recipes over 70 years ago. It is one of Miss Harris' cherished possessions.

Her talk was on the work of the Consumer and Family Affairs Association. She stated the public has a right to be kept informed of all changes, also the right to be protected from profiteering.

Others worse
Our way of living is changing, especially our eating habits. Most women don't want to go back to making a cake without a prepared mix, as an example. The public will have to live with inflation, other countries are worse than Canada, she said.

Mrs. V. Norris thanked the speaker and presented her with an Ideals book as a token of appreciation.

The roll call "What's New" brought many interesting replies.

A profitable miscellaneous sale was held at the close of the meeting.

Tour factory, market Doon Pioneer Village

The September meeting of Campbellville Women's Institute was an enjoyable bus tour planned by Mrs. A. Moore and Mrs. S. Cramp.

Forty-four guests including several men toured Arran shirt factory and Kitchener Market, with a poolside, smorgasbord lunch at Valhalla Inn.

They visited Doon Pioneer Village for an interesting, educational and enjoyable tour.

Business meet
Prior to the tour Mrs. S. Cramp held an executive and finance committee meeting, Aug. 30. Plans were finalized for the Milton Fair exhibit with Mrs. A. Moore convener. Mrs. L. Andrews reminded everyone of the SPIN recycling project, the first Saturday of each month from 9 to 12 at the Masonic hall. All glass is to be clean, tins clean, dry and flattened, newspaper neatly tied, no magazines or shiny paper is accepted. More volunteers would be appreciated.

Village trustees advised the members the corner park is to be named Elsie Park.

Word was received that Conservation authority will be planting flower beds by the pond, next spring.
