Three Milton dancers, students of Miss Heather McNaughton of Burlington, won prizes at the Western Ontario Highland Dancing Association's competition in Goderich recently. Doreen Lendvay won four firsts, Kathy Arnold a second and a third, Ellen Hurren a first and two thirds in the competition. The girls are members of the Milton section of the WOHDA.

Anniversary

Munn's United Church, Highway 5 and Sixth Line celebrated its 150th anniversary on Thursday, Oct. 25 with a congregational pot luck dinner. About 90 members were in attendance.

After an enjoyable dinner the Milton Senior Citizens Orchestra was introduced by the entertainment convener, Mr. Campbell. Mrs. Tom Bradley acted as m.c. and introduced the members of the orchestra, Andy Frank, Steve House and Tom Bradley on violins; May Crawford on piano; Dorothy Wilson and Cecil Smith on banjos, and Bob Laking on drum.

The audience was delighted with the music and called for a square dance at the conclusion of the program. Mr. Jennings thanked the orchestra on behalf of the members.

The anniversary services were held on Sunday, Oct. 28. Rev. John W. H. Creighton is minister of Munn's Church, and guest speakers were former ministers Rev. Dr. Douglas Jay at the morning service and Rev. Arthur Higginbotham at the evening service.

Wedding Newton - Hackenbrook

Cheryl Ann Harkenbrook and Randolph Harold Newton were married in a double-ring ceremony at St. Paul's Anglican Church, Clinton on Oct. 6. The Rev. S. Sharles officiated. Cheryl is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Hackenbrook of R.R. 5, Clinton and Randolph is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Newton of 265 Bronte St., Milton.

The maid of honor was Lori McClinchey of Bayfield. Bridesmaids were Karen and Debra Hackenbrook, Clinton; Sandra Eden, Bramalea; and Cindy Ryder of Milton.

Flower girls were Patricia Hackenbrook, Clinton and Tammy Newton, Milton.

The best man was Duncan Craig of Milton. Ushers were Clayton Hackenbrook, Milton; Ken Barber, Milton; Kim Bailey, Hagersville; and Dougie Eden, Bramalea.

The bridesmaids' and flower girls' dresses were made by the bride's mother. They wore bracelets given to them by the bride and groom.

90 at reception
A reception followed at the Clinton Legion Hall with 90 guests.

Special guests were the bride's aunt and uncle from Eau Claire and the bride's grandfather from Milton. Other guests were from Mattawa, Brampton, Hornby, Clinton, London, Hagersville, Bramalea, Toronto, Acton, Bayfield and Ridgetown.

A shower for both the bride and groom was held at the home of Mrs. Gloria Newton, sister-in-law of the groom.

The bride's grandparents in Mattawa were unable to attend the ceremony so Cheryl and Randolph visited them following the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton are now living at the Mayfair Apartments, Ontario St., Milton.

MR. AND MRS. RANDOLPH NEWTON are shown opening gifts following their marriage in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Clinton. Mrs. Newton is the former Cheryl Hackenbrook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Hackenbrook of Clinton. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Newton, Milton.

Indian lore topic W.I. district day

Halton District Women's Institute District Day was held Tuesday, Oct. 23 at Master Feeds auditorium. The president for the District, Mrs. M. Nellis, was chairman for the afternoon.

The roll call, an exhibit or talk on Indian Lore, was answered by 12 branches, with 72 women present. A highlight of the afternoon was the presentation of the Ethel Chapman Scholarship award to Grace Bird, daughter of a board member Mrs. Bird.

The presentation was made by Mrs. William Webb.

The new public relations officer, Mrs. H. Wilson, was introduced by Mrs. Nellis. Mrs. Wilson presented Mrs. F. Brown with a gift in appreciation for her work.

Speaks of Indian Work
Mrs. Verna Johnston, guest speaker for the afternoon, was introduced by Mrs. Nellis. Mrs. Johnston is a former member of an Indian W.I. at Cape Crocker Reserve that furnished a hospital ward at Warton Marine Hospital.

Mrs. Johnson spoke about her work with Indian youth attending school in Toronto, her work at Sheridan College, and her research into Indian food and legends. She has also done research into herb and medical customs of the Indian.

She asked that people understand the Indian, why they are oppressed and what can be done to help Indian women obtain equal rights with Indian men. The women feel they should be allowed to keep their reserves and customs, much as other nations have their homeland.

Mrs. Johnson was thanked by Mrs. Jameson and presented with a gift. She also thanked the women of Nelson branch who acted as hostesses for the afternoon, serving tea and sweets.

Four branches had interesting displays of Indian articles which were enjoyed by those present.
