but granted him a reprieve a short time later. St. Nicholas (bottom right) called upon Betty Van Helvoirt to lead the audience in the song "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer". Marilyn Tielemans is holding St. Nick's staff.

Exhibit champion steer

By A. Mac Armstrong
Dave Maher of R.R. 3 Mississauga, Peel County, a member of the Halton 4-H Beef Calf Club, exhibited a Grand Champion Steer at the Toronto Stockyards junior show and sale. This steer was also the champion Angus and sold for $77. per cwt. Dave also picked up $200 prize money for exhibiting the champion steer. Ron Appleyard, R.R. 1 Georgetown won the champion Dairy Beef Class with a Holstein-Angus calf which sold for $52.50 per cwt. Keith McKinnon, although not placing with his calf, a Limousin-Shorthorn Cross sold for $54 per cwt. and weighed 1,390 pounds. Brent Coulson, of R.R. 2 Milton, placed fourth in the Shorthorn class. Neil Coulson also exhibited an Angus calf but did not place.

Similarly, James Lindsay

exhibited a crossbreed calf but did not place but received $55.00 per cwt. for his calf. Halton 4-H members performed exceedingly well in this competition. Many people from Halton attended and showed support and interest in 4-H. This show was held Saturday, Dec. 8.

Aid held their Christmas meeting at the home of Mrs. M. Fraser, in Moffat, on Thursday Dec. 6. A delicious meal of casseroles, cold cuts, salads and relishes was set out on the dining room table and 11 members and guests circled the table and repaired to the living room with well-filled plates. A second trip topped off the meal with dessert and tea.

The W.M.S. meeting was opened with a Christmas hymn and prayer. Mrs. C. McLaren as convener read the Christmas story from the book "The Greatest is Love" a book which translates the Bible into simple everyday language, easily understandable by children.

Mrs. Lowry was guest speaker and her subject was God in Three Persons — the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. She illustrated with a diagram and her explanation did much to clarify the subject. As well, she told of some experiences in her life as a Christian and her address was instructive and interesting.

Life member Mrs. C. McLaren who has been a valuable member of the W.M.S. since coming from Western Canada to make her home here. Mrs. Campbell read the address and Mrs. Lowry presented the pin. Although taken completely by surprise, Mrs. McLaren made an appropriate reply. Mrs. Kennedy thanked the hostess and those taking part in the program and all agreed that it had been an enjoyable time.
