Sentimental words end township annals

The last motion of the last regular public meeting of Esqueving township council

Bruce & Donna Coulson and family Wish all their friends and relatives

A MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR

MERRY CHRISTMAS and a HAPPY NEW YEAR to all our friends and relatives

Bob and Patty Hetherington

was passed Monday after a marathon meeting that lasted from 10 a.m. till 5.30 p.m.—with a break for lunch.

Councillor Maltby and deputy-reeve Coxe moved and seconded the bleak motion that council adjourn.

"Forever," intoned Mr. Maltby.

"It's unusual," Mr. Coxe observed mournfully. "The motion to adjourn always ends with the date to meet again, or to meet at the call of the reeve."

The reeve will be out of existence Jan. 1 to assume the post of mayor of Halton Hills.

The first Halton Hills meeting will be Thursday, Jan. 3 at 2 p.m. with a dinner to follow at Glen Williams.

Getting ready The meeting room in the basement of Esqueving township hall is being renovated for the new council. Panelling is going up this week, while carpeting lies in huge rolls waiting to be installed. Esqueving council chairs will be matched to Acton council tables in furnishing the room.

Full council meetings and also all the committee meetings of Halton Hills council will be open to the public and press.

Presentations Esqueving councillors invited their wives to their last meeting and formally presented them with duplicates of the certificates given at the township appreciation night to staff and members of boards and committees. Present to accept the certificates along with fond kisses were Catherine Leslie, Ruth Coxe, Carol Howitt and Gail Maltby.

Mrs. Hill has been ill and was unable to attend, although she is home from hospital.

On behalf of the wives Mrs. Howitt said despite the nights alone "we're proud of you. We worked hard to get you elected!" She too expressed the general feelings of regret at the last meeting.

Mr. Hill, Mr. Coxe and Mr. Howitt will reappear as Halton Hills council. Mr. Maltby lost in the election and Wilfrid Leslie is retiring.

Clerk Delmar French will join Halton Hills staff as deputy clerk.

Mr. Coxe took the chair to read a motion of appreciation to Reeve Hill for the courteous and efficient manner in which he conducted township meetings.

Mr. Hill had for the second meeting been complaining that the base of his gravel was missing, and it reappeared from Councillor Howitt's pocket with a new engraved plaque. Beaming assistant clerk Cathy Bouskill wheeled in another missing article—clerk Delmar French's chair. It had been reupholstered and bore on the back a new brass engraved plaque.

Season's Greetings

From H. Fobert Real Estate Ltd. to all our friends — May the coming year bring health, happiness and prosperity to you and yours.

The Night Before Christmas

"Twas the night before Christmas our Dad bought a house With a fireplace and mantle (but no hole for the mouse!) There are cabinets a-plenty in the kitchen for Mom And a place in the basement for our old cat, Tom. A house, insulated from ground to attic, Water heater and furnace, both automatic There are three spacious bedrooms and closets galore And our faces reflect in the fine hardwood floor. Just off the hall is a shiny new bath And this takes the place of that well-trodden path. The storm doors and windows installed with care, Keep out the dirt and the frost bitten air; The plumbing is good - and the wiring is too, No repairing at all for Daddy to do! Attached to the house is a heated garage (Could this be a dream? Or, perhaps a mirage?) Round the house is a lawn with shrubby and trees And room there to play whenever we please! While there from the den all panelled in birch Is a view of the tower above our own church, This, I know, is the very best Christmas of all - For Daddy is pleased with the payments so small. So to God we give thanks for our home snug and dear, Such a nice place for Santa to visit this year! May you, too, have a Christmas of love, mirth and fun And a Happy New Year, to our friends, everyone.
