CHARGING IN after stealing the puck from the Mohawk power play unit, penalty killer Ken Fay beat goaltender Rick Katachanoski for Flyers' third goal of the Friday night 6-5 win. Burlington edged the Flyers 5-4 on their home ice Sunday evening after some questionable calls.

Largest crowd in four years as Flyers nip Mohawks 6-5

A total of 585 patrons—the largest regular season crowd in four years-filed into Milton Arena Friday night to tinental Flyers nip the Burlington Mohawks 6-5.

Fans were not disappointed. The game marked the first time the reorganized Milton team has been completely together.

Action never stopped as the third ranked Flyers and the second place Mohawks exchanged attacks on the nets. Second of three ward Rick Bridgman terminated any Burlington hopes when he broke in to score on a great individual effort. Fay and Ron Twiss combined on the pass to Bridgman.

Larry Fischer tied the score for Mohawks with five minutes remaining in the game. League leading Bill Scheer's point total over the game was held to an assist on the Fischer goal.

Blueliner A pair of minor penalties to Burlington brought out the Milton power play team. Ray Love found the corner of the Mohawk goal with a low blueliner. The pass to Love vas shuttled back by Bridgman and Merry The Friday night win left Flyers only four points behind the second slot Mohawks with a chance to gain another pair of points when they visited Burlington Sunday night Flyers would go into the game without experienced defencemen Hugh Marshall, due to an injured nose Friday, and Pete Chuchmach, due to a two game suspension.

Flyer coach "Pie" Lee Andrew Hickson, Jeff made some changes in the de-Penrice and Glenn Swance fense core prior to the Friday scored for Parton in a come game, moving Brent Hoey from behind win. Assists went from the rearguard position to Hickson, Walter Pockocky, to play right wing on the Denis Durante and Greg Ovenden Jeff Lockridge line-an even trade with Bob Color goals were scored by Randy St. John and Henry Rusk.

"Muscle" Lee made the move to add more "muscle" to his forward line. Flyers were confident of a Sunday win after posting the Friday night victory.

Most aggravating to the many Milton followers in the Burlington arena was a goal 30 seconds later past Flyer Doug Weatherall. Milton goal judge Gord Weatherall contended the puck did not cross the line but creased off the goalie's skate, striking the post and bouncing out.

Weatherall, like his Burlington counterpart, did not flick the light yet the referee refused to consult him about the play. The goal was allowed.
