

MOSRA snowmobiles compete in Winterfest classes

The sound of snow machines filled the air Saturday as modified and stock snowmobiles whipped round the fair grounds track in M.O.S.R.A. heats. The races were part of Milton Winterfest celebrations.

Drivers representing a large number of southern Ontario towns worked from the track infield pit areas and filed out into the race course like clockwork throughout the afternoon. There were 18 classes.

"A" Super Stock winner was Acton's Dan Arbie riding a Polaris. He beat out Paul Johnson's Arctic Cat from Toronto and another "Cat" driven by Bill Clubine of Woodbridge.

A John Deere driven by Bryan Bailey of Glen Meyer won first spot in "B" stock with Ken Sutherland of Woodstock on a Roll-O-Flex taking second and Aylmer's Alan Soper finishing third on a Ski-Doo.

Ruppromps

In "E" Stock competition Doug Allen of Markham won. Harry Clements of Goderich was second and Cliff Johnson of Ingersoll posted third. All three drove Rupp.

Allen won "C" Stock riding a Rupp, with Clements finishing second on a Rupp. Barry Dennis of Mississauga won third on a Rupp.

Bill Empey, Auburn, won "A" stock with a Ski-Doo while Warren and Bruce Knight, both of Brussels, took second and third on Ski-Dos.

Cat wins

Ron Moore, Stratford, won the "D" Modified race with an Arctic Cat. Gary Robert of London and Keith Siemon of Walton were runners up on Ski-Dos.

"D" Stock was won by Doug Allen's Rupp with Cliff Johnson and Harry Clements riding their Rupp to second and third money.

Stan Sheard of Streetsville won "C" modified with an Alouette with Gorrie Vanselsfort of Tecumseh placing second with a Sno-Jet and Ilderton's Bob Henshaw taking third with a Ski-Doo.

Robins of Maple won Open Modified competitions with a Sno-Jet. Ski-Dos driven by Andy VanDolder of Owen Sound and Keith Siemon of Walton took second and third.

ABOUT 250 SNOWMOBILE racers were registered for the races held at the Milton fairgrounds Saturday as part of the Winterfest activities. Estimates of people watching the races ran as high as 1,500 on the cool Saturday afternoon. The races were fast and furious. There were a few local winners in the winners' circle during the afternoon. Organizers received nothing but favorable comments about the track and its condition. (Photo by S. Dills)

On a Ski-Doo

Ladies' "B" Stock was won by Cathy Heyndrick of Simcoe on a Ski-Doo. Second was Catharine Spahr of Kitchener on a Rupp with Dorothy Sutherland of Woodstock third on a Roll-O-Flex.

Ladies' "A" Stock was won by Sharyn Soper, Aylmer, on a Ski-Doo. Dorothy Sutherland's Roll-O-Flex took second with Sharon Clark, Strathroy, third on a Ski-Doo.

Cathy Heyndrick took Ladies' "C" Super Stock with a Ski-Doo with Kathy Lewis of Unionville and Sharon Clark taking second and third with a Ski-Doo and a Yamaha.

Mark VanBree of Forest Hill won Junior Stock with a Ski-Doo. Lance Kellestine, Strathroy, was second on a Ski-Doo while a Roll-O-Flex driven by Steven Hartley, Woodstock, took third.

Yamaha first

Don Nelson of Waterford rode a Yamaha to first place in the "D" Super Stock class. Second was Galt's Bill Walsh on a Mercury with another Merc driven by Carl Cassier of Paris taking third.

Georgetown's Rob Allison won the "C" Super Stock with a Ski-Doo with S. Twister taking second. A Yamaha driven by Allen Bailey of Glen Meyer won third.

Kevin Keefe of Richmond Hill won the "B" Super Stock with a Yamaha. Other Yamahas driven by Brandon Winchell, Gormley, and Allen Bailey, Glen Meyer, won second and third places.

Bob Henshaw of Ilderton won "A" Modified with a Ski-Doo with second place finisher Bob Wood, St. Paul's driving a Ski-Doo and Milton's Alan Knight third on a Sno-Jet.

Polaris modified vamp

Barry Webb, Huntsville, rode a "B" modified Polaris to first with a Ski-Doo driven by Steve Morty, Dorchester, taking second and Bill Empey, Auburn, winning third with a Ski-Doo.

Raiders dumped 9-3 Flyers fatten totals

Flyers forgot they had to beat the cellar dwelling Preston Raiders to contend second place and fell behind 2-0 early in the opening period. When they remembered, the Gallinger crew rallied to knock the Raiders 9-3 in Milton Friday night.

Flyer Alec Ovenden started his team off halfway through the opening period following a scramble in front of the Preston goal. Ray Love and Reed Nielsen drew assists.

Ovenden struck again a minute later, picking up Jeff Lockridge's rebound and throwing it up and over sprawled Preston goalie Marcel Potvin. Bob Rusk picked up an assist.

Lit lamp

Rick Bridgman lit the goal lamp later in the period when he punched in alone and flipped home a backhander. Love added to his totals in the last minute with a slow slider to the bottom corner from George Hood.

Ovenden kicked the puck into the Preston net to earn Lockridge a goal early in the second period.

Lockridge's shot was bobbed by Potvin and lay six inches from the goal line. Ovenden, sprawled across the crease, tapped the puck in with his foot—obviously unseen by the referee. "I couldn't reach it with my stick," rationalized Ovenden. Rusk and Ovenden both drew assists on the goal.

Under cross bar

Bridgman connected for his second of the night when he sneaked past defenders and deposited the puck under the crossbar.

Hugh Marshall continued Flyer scoring in the third period, clipping an Ovenden pass in from the left side of the goal.

Defenceman Hood slipped in for the Flyer's eighth counter with George Mills topping off the Flyer effort, needing one in from Ovenden and Rusk.

Control game

Milton controlled the game, levelling 55 shots at the Raider net. They also controlled the penalty box, sitting out 20 minor penalties and a 10 minute misconduct. Raiders sat out 13 minors.

Preston goalie Potvin was chosen the league's most valuable player at an

Overtime thriller CTCs tie again

An overtime stand-off lengthened Milton Canadian Tire Juveniles series with Streetsville in Streetsville Sunday night. The teams drew 3-3.

It was the fourth of the five game series which has gone into extra time. Milton has won one of the overtime games and tied three. Streetsville won the only clearcut decision.

CTCs Allan Fritzy potted the first goal early in the opening period from Dave Anderson and Norm Mowbray.

Streetsville's Joe Guimond beat Milton goalie Glenn Turner early in the second with Pritchard pushing in the hometeam's second goal early in the third.

Serg Mazzorato sent the game into overtime when he collected a pass from Mike Leslie and sent it against the Streetsville twine with 2:13 left in the game.

Kemp scored for Streetsville halfway through the extra period.

Captain Dave Anderson beat Streetsville goalie Harrison with a minute left to regain the tie. Keith McKinnon picked up the assist.

Turner played stront in the Milton goal.

CTCs hosted Streetsville last night (Tuesday).

Blair opened the scoring of the Streetsville game from Duane Stark and Loeplich late in the first period. Early in the second period Loeplich dug the puck out of the corner and laid a picture pass on the stick of Norm Flemington, who promptly drove it home. Mike Shepherd played a strong game in the Milton nets. He was forced to make some key saves to help his teammates and save his shutout.

Avoid elimination

Streetsville came out skating to avoid elimination Saturday. Milton was caught off balance and were victims of two first period goals.

Blair notched his first of the night from Flemington in the second period with Loeplich blasting two point shots home within three minutes to put the Bulldogs up 3-2.

Blair assisted on both goals while Scott Brading helped on the second.

Blair counted the fourth goal with help from Loeplich and Mike Murray.

Persistent

Rick Aselton proved persistence pays off as he fought for and gained possession of the puck in front of the Streetsville goal. He neatly flipped it into the net to make the score 5-2 for the Bulldogs. Streetsville counted in the

In a five game round robin series at the Bayview Country Club in Thornhill over the weekend, our Junior Girls team, winners of the Southern Ontario cup, lost out to Arnprior.

Undeafed Arnprior will travel west to contend the All-Canadian Championship finals.

District winners from Sudbury, Arnprior and Sioux Lookout competed in Thornhill with southern representatives from Camp Borden, Milton and the Toronto Cricket Club.

Impressive opening ceremonies started the playoffs at 9:30 with the teams piped out onto the ice. Southern Ontario Ladies Curling President Nan Kehler threw the first stone.

Congratulations to Ruth Reid, Trudy Sales, Colleen Clement and Claudette Phelps along with helper Jean Sales and coach Leo Furlan. They did the Milton club proud winning the Southern Ontario Cup.

The Sweetheart bonspiel was held Saturday at the Milton club and was won by Milton's Babs Wingrove in an extra end game against Verda Kaeding and her Burlington team.

The winner of the Colt Division 9 was decided February 8, 9, and 10 at Orangeville with each top team playing five gruelling 12-end games. Our own Rick Rowley came out on top with vice Barry Fraser, second Jim Wolsey and Sandy Barnes lead.

The Colt section is for curlers with seven years or less of curling experience. Owing to a technicality Freddie Bell was replaced by Jim Wolsey.

This team will enter the semi-finals for Ontario to be played in Orillia Feb. 17.

Oust Streetsville Leoprich, Blair lead Bulldogs

Milton Community Credit Union Bulldogs wrapped up their best of five playoff series dropping Streetsville 2-0 in Streetsville Thursday night and putting them away 5-3 in Milton Saturday afternoon.

Bulldogs swept the series in three straight games.

Steve Blair and John Loeplich paced the club to both wins—backed up by a great team effort.
