

Omagh

Homemakers get club underway

By Mrs. Cecil Patterson
The first meeting of Hornby South 4-H Homemaking club was held at Omagh Church hall on Saturday Feb. 9 at 9.30 a.m.

The girls were welcomed by the leaders Mrs. C. Patterson and Mrs. M. Kiernau and introduced to the new spring project. The Cereal Shelf. Members' pamphlets were given out. The requirements for a club girl were outlined, namely to keep a record book and start a recipe file.

Methods when working with food new emphasized and explained, have hair tidy, clean hands, wear a clear apron and avoid waste. Members were told to prepare only what is needed.

A discussion was held on the Food Guide for Health and the importance of bread and cereals were stressed. Cereals are the seeds of certain grasses. The six most commonly used for human food are, wheat, oats, barley, rye, rice and corn. Cereal products provide energy and are economical, add variety, are easily stored and transported.

Demonstration
Frying pan cookies were demonstrated, members participating were Sharon Nurse, and Helen and Ann Opsteen. These were later served for lunch and enjoyed by all.

The election of officers was held, voting by ballot those elected are president Monica Lukewski, 1st vice Sharon Nurse, 2nd vice Rosemary Lukewski, secretary Nancy Peacock, asst. Nancy Laurence, treasurer Anne Opsteen. The telephone committee includes Debbie Rayner, Helen Opsteen, Sonya May and Terri MacGregor.

The girls decided on a club name, Hornby S. Dough Girls and record books will be lime green in colour next meeting is Feb. 16 at 9.30 a.m.

Kilbride

Seniors' card nite

by Donna Sargeant
Being a relatively new resident in Kilbride, I haven't had much of a chance to acquaint myself with the local people. So if there is anything of personal or general interest you'd like to see in your column, give me a call at 878-6212 in the evenings or drop in for a cup of coffee at 6554 Glenfern Ave. I'm really looking forward to meeting you.

The Senior Citizens met again for an evening of cards, winners being: high, Anne Taylor, followed by Helen Beatty, then Irene Lee. For the gentlemen it was high, Harry King, followed by Featherstone Colling, then Bob Weir. Hosts and hostesses for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Fretz and Featherstone Colling. There will be another meeting again in two weeks and everyone is welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Twiss and family entertained at a birthday dinner in honor of Mrs. Twiss' mother Mrs. Mabel Clifton of Milton.

Sunday. Those attending were Miss Rita Naylor, Mr. and Mrs. Don Kearney and Debbie and Mr. and Mrs. Doc Trimble, all of Milton.
