About the town with Dolores Melanson Phone 878-3138

Happy birthday wishes go to Gordon Krantz, 163 Main St. who celebrates his birthday on Saturday, April 20.

The 6th Milton Brownies held their mother-daughter banquet at St. Paul's United Church on Wednesday, April 10. The ladies of the church prepared and served the turkey dinner to the girls and their mothers.

The girls of the pack worked hard preparing for the event, making the centerpieces, flowers, programs and place cards etc., all in mauve and yellow.

After the dinner the girls entertained their mothers with skits and songs and then enjoyed several Laurel and Hardy films.
The new Tawny Owl for the 6th Milton Brownies is Arlene Feagan and their Brown Owl is Peggy Barton.

Many happy returns of the day are wished for Kevin Verstraete, Pine St., who celebrates his ninth birthday on Saturday, April 20.

Daryl Dingman, formerly of Martin St. Milton has graduated from Career Academy in Toronto and has accepted a job as radio announcer with C.J.C.J. Radio in Woodstock, New Brunswick.

Daryl is the son of Bruce and Dorothy Dingman, formerly of Milton, now of Ivy Lea. Daryl will be glad to hear from his friends in the Milton area.

Congratulations and best wishes go to Reg and Muriel Gray, 12 Prince St., who celebrate their 30th wedding anniversary on Thursday, April 18.

Nick and Michelle Gauthier, 605 Strathcona Ct., were visited over the Easter weekend by Bob and Lise Ribout and son Joel from Lansdowne, Ontario, and Don and Aura Conway from Thornhill.

Mrs. Moon of Warwick, England has been in Milton for a few days visiting her daughter, Margurite Sharron of Victoria Ave.

Happy birthday wishes go to Darlene Gervais, 163 Main St., who celebrates her 17th birthday on Saturday, April 20.

Art and Dolores Melanson, 627 Churchill Ave., were visited over the Easter weekend by Dolores' parents, Bruce and Dorothy Dingman, her grandmother Mrs. Lula Shipman, and her brother Darren Dingman, all of Ivy Lea in the 1000 Islands.

Columnist Dolores Melanson is interested in printing news of your birthdays, anniversaries, Christenings, visits and visitors and other special events. Call her at 878-3138 or write out your news items and leave them for her at The Champion office, 191 Main St., Milton.

—Weather was partly rainy, partly sunny over the holiday weekend.

Silver wedding at family party for Belvederes

Joe and Rosa Belvedere celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary with a party at Holy Rosary Hall March 31, given by their children Marisa, Lora and Enzo.

Married in Calabria, Italy, March 31, 1949, the couple moved to Milton in April 1951.
Seated at the head table with Mr. and Mrs. Belvedere were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pedulla, Lora, Marisa and Enzo Belvedere and Mrs. Rosaria Belvedere.

Gave rings
Witnessing the exchanging of rings by the couple were the following members of their family, all of Milton: Mike and Heidi Belvedere and family, Maria Rosa Belvedere, Frank and Sylvia Pedulla and family, Luigi and Elsie Antonucci and family, Mike and Linda Pedulla and family, and Tony Pedulla.

Mr. and Mrs. Belvedere thanked the Multaris and many friends and neighbors who honored them. A special thanks was given to the Sergant family and those who cooked for the occasion.

Following the opening of their many gifts the couple led in the dancing to the music of Tony Benediti.

Cambodian child adopted by church

Twenty-six members of St. Paul's U.C.W. met in the Fellowship Room on Monday evening, April 8 with Mrs. J. Gilbert, president in the chair. The meeting was opened with two Easter poems and a prayer, followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison.

Mrs. Grapp of Unit 3 took charge of the Easter program which consisted of Easter poems, hymns and prayer. In place of the Easter message, a tape-recording of a talk by the Moderator Rt. Rev. Bruce McLeod, given at the Hamilton Conference, was presented, in which he spoke of his duties and modern developments in the church today.

Following the minutes and treasurer's report, other reports were presented. Mrs. E. W. Foster, Christian Citizen and Social Action Convener chose the topic "Human Rights" and correlated her remarks with the message of Easter and Christ's promise that He had come that we might have life and have more abundantly.

Help appreciated
It was a pleasure to have Nancy Lawrence report for the Christian and Missionary Education department on the adoption of a Cambodian child who is being financed by the church school under the Foster Parents Plan of Canada. A grateful letter from the child's mother explained that the money sent, not only looked after the child but also the needs and education of the other members of the family.

Highlights of the Halton Presbyterian annual meeting at Port Nelson United Church on March 11 were given by Mrs. Charles Thomson, with excerpts from a speech given by Rev. R. C. Plante urging support for the Mission and Service Fund.

Mrs. A. Clements consented to act as convener for the November bazaar and the various booths were assigned to the units.

The president announced that under the new Unified Board, the U.C.W. is to be represented by one member on each of the seven committees.

Several coming events are of special interest. Plans for the rummage sale, April 26 were finalized.

Final meeting
Four U.C.W. delegates are to attend the last meeting of the Halton Presbyterian on April 29 at Freeton; before unification with Halton Presbytery takes place.

The U.C.W. Sunday Service will be held on June 2 with Mrs. Hildegard Toll of Toronto as special speaker. The annual outdoor congregational service and picnic will be held on June 23. Individual projects and activities of the units were reported and lovely Easter eggs made by Unit 3 were offered for sale.

Delicious refreshments served by Unit 1 brought an interesting and informative meeting to a close.

38 enter

Thirty eight people have submitted what they feel will be good choices for the new town of Milton crest.

A committee which consists of Erla Brittain, Andy Frank, Shirley Smith, Dave Lloyd and A. diBenedetto will meet soon to choose a winner for the contest.

Clean up

"Clean Up, Keep Fires Down."

That's the theme of the spring clean-up literature Milton Fire Department mailed out this week to all the rural areas in Milton. The literature also carries the warning that outdoor fires are prohibited.

Local firefighters urge citizens to be especially careful with fire at this time of year. When the grass is dry it's easily set afire and a serious fire could result.

PROCLAMATION

The Milton Chamber of Commerce is a voluntary organization of business people which is endeavouring to co-operate with the citizens of Milton so that, working together, we may build a community of which we may all be justly proud.

I, therefore, by virtue of the powers vested in me, do hereby proclaim civic support for Chamber of Commerce Week, being observed April 21st to April 27th, 1974, and call on all citizens to lend their active interest, support and co-operation in making this observance successful in every way.

Mrs. A. J. MacArthur, Mayor, Town of Milton.

SILVER WEDDING Anniversary was celebrated March 31 by Rosa and Joe Belvedere of 195 Bell St. Milton. They were married March 31, 1949 in Calabria, Italy.
