Omagh

Slides of Australia shown at WMS luncheon

by Mrs. Cecil Patterson
The annual pot luck luncheon sponsored by the Omagh Presbyterian W.M.S. was held at Boyne Centre on Thursday, April 11. Nearly 100 ladies and gentlemen gathered at 12 o'clock to partake of the delicious smorgasbord meal. Rev. R. Lewis, pastor of the church welcomed the guests and asked the blessing.

Mrs. Cecil Patterson, president of the W.M.S. presided for the program. Miss Mary Joyce was the pianist and William Milligan led in community singing and later Mr. Milligan with accompanist Mrs. Flora Sloksi rendered several vocal solos.

Rick Rowan entertained the audience with beautiful color slides and interesting commentary on a holiday trip he had in Australia last fall. Mr. Rowan is an expert teacher of scuba diving so spent much of his time exploring waters in and around Australia. He showed wonderful pictures of the fish and plant-life under the sea. Other pictures of the animals, buildings, the land and vast areas of treeless and scarce vegetation. He noted that one acre is required for a sheep to graze as grass is very poor inland. The films and comments were much enjoyed by all.

Recites at 94
Thomas Galbraith, the eldest person present, contributed to the program with a recitation entitled "Making a Lady out of Liz", and also told an amusing anecdote. Mr. Galbraith, a life long member of Omagh church is 94 years young.

Twenty gifts were awarded for door prizes, also to the longest married couple Mr. and Mrs. Clare Ford, 48 years; birthday closest to April 11, Mrs. H. Rutherford; youngest persons attending, Reis Lewis, Paul Marshall, Julia Merry and Brenda Marshall; driver bringing most guests to the dinner, Mrs. Olive Dixon. Mrs. Robert Marshall gave the courtesies, expressing appreciation to guests in the

Two win awards

Mrs. Eleanor Berry of Palermo and Mrs. Roberta Dobs of Milton were among 1,000 Ontario residents to win Ontario Graduate Scholarships.

The scholarships offer students $800 per term plus the amount of their tuition fees, for a maximum of three consecutive terms. They are awarded to students who plan to pursue full time graduate studies in Ontario universities.

Lowville

Communion, baptisms confirmation in church

by Mrs. T. Ramshaw
Palm Sunday was made more meaningful to the children of the Sunday School when some of the teachers gave each child a palm branch.

There was a full church Sunday for communion, baptisms and confirmation.

Transferring their memberships were Harold Johnston from East Plains United Church and Robert Newman from Cooksville United.

Those presented for baptism were Cheryl Lynn Chewka, Darleen Ruth Johnston and Ann Christine Newman.

Confirmed were Heather Coulson, Brian Flock, Diane Hamilton, Leslie Ann Johnston, Allison Knight, Laura Knight and Lawrence John Trenwith.

Link in our lives
Rev. Wayne Irwin's communion message the Vital Link, described the bridges in our lives. The church and the Lord's supper is like a bridge which binds us together in the family of God, he said.

Shirley McCormack enjoyed her trip to England in the winter break.

Richard and Helen Sovereign enjoyed their trip to Ottawa last weekend. While there, they visited the parliament buildings, the museum, the art gallery and took a guided tour of the city.

We are pleased that Robert Heatherington is home from the hospital again.

Kilbride

Announce euchre winners

By Donna Sargent
The Senior Citizens Euchre Club met at Kilbride Public School and the results were as follows: Ladies high, Mrs. Laing; second, Mrs. Bullard, and low Mrs. Wetherell. For the gentlemen it was high, Harry King; second, Bob Weir and low, Percy Lee. At the next meeting Mrs. Potter and Mrs. Galbraith will act as hostesses.

Mrs. Wilbert Ford will be entering Brant Hospital for surgery and will be staying two to three weeks, so we wish her a pleasant stay and a speedy recovery.

New residents
Welcome new residents Mr. and Mrs. Grant of Kilbride St. into the village. They come from Burlington where they lived for three years. Prior to that they resided in Quebec. Mr. Grant is an accountant for Consumers Glass.

Optimists
Last Thursday evening the newly formed Optimist Club of Upper Burlington was invited to a supper meeting at the sponsoring Carlisle Club's community hall.

Guest speakers were Bob Parker, lieutenant-governor of the zone, and Norm Shipley, past president of Optimist International.

So far there are 24 members in the Upper Burlington club with prospects looking very good for a large membership. Remember, this is a non-profit organization benefitting youth and the community. Anyone interested is invited to contact Wally Pryor at 878-6302 or Ev Evertsen at 878-6496.
