"Show and tell" session at church women's meet

By Mrs. T. Ramshaw
Lowville United Church was closed last Sunday June 2, while Rev. Wayne Irwin, Jack Barton and George Colling were at Hamilton Conference in Waterloo. The United Congregation worshipped at St. George's Anglican Church.

There were 17 ladies of the afternoon unit of the U.C.W. present at the home of Mrs. Dickinson on Wednesday.

Mrs. Camy Campbell conducted the business.

Mrs. Morden and Mrs. Alma Colling led in worship, the theme being "love". Mrs. Morden read the scripture and the comments on it and Mrs. Colling gave a paper on "Love" and its dynamic force in our lives. Mrs. Louise Gunby led in prayer.

The roll call was answered with a "show and tell" and many interesting things were brought forth such as an invitation Mrs. Woods had, to have tea with the queen.

Auction for Manor

The meeting closed with an auction sale, the proceeds were for the Manor birthday party in August. Mrs. Velma Norris was the auctioneer.

A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Dickinson, Mrs. Velma Norris and Mrs. Grace Readhead.

Mr. and Mrs. Erlend Colling visited with Rev. and Mrs. Burdge Green at St. Helen's. Rev. Green spent his boyhood years at the Gunby farm on the Town Line and has many relatives in this area.

The Youth Group went on a car rally Friday night. The route was tortuous and confusing and many miles and hours later, they ended up at Zimmerman Church to determine the winners and have lunch.

On the sick list are Mrs. Marion Gates in Milton

Hospital, Ken Smith and Mrs. Jessie Jansen in Joseph Brant. We are glad to report that Mrs. Ella Rocheforte is back home. We wish them all well.
