Curling Cues

In-club competition is underway at the Milton Curling Club in both the Ontario Curling Association Intermediate and Cuts sectors. The in-club winner in each sector will represent Milton in the Division Nine playdowns.

In the Intermediate Ron Tracey, John McCutcheon, Thornton Tasker and Bill Gallinger have entered rinks. The Cuts rinks (seven years curling and under) are Jeff Nurse, Rick Rowley, Mike Comba and Thornton Tasker.

The rink of Jack Fraser, skip; Babs Wingrove, vice; Bert Stewart, second and Hazel Stewart, lead emerged the winners and earned the right to represent Milton in the O.C.A. Seagram Mixed Competition (Rose Bowl).

They won out over five other rinks skipped by Thornton Tasker, Rick Rowley, Bill Gallinger, Leo Furlan and Doug Pedie. Jack's rink will enter the Division playdowns in Georgetown at the North Halton Club on Jan. 21.

Milton Curling Club held a men's Open Spiel on Jan. 8 and a Milton rink won first in each of the two draws.

The rinks were Reg Corp and Bill Gallinger, skip; Henry Holm, Jim Sproat and Al Seaton.

This past weekend the Halton-Peel (Kennedy-Ford) competition got underway. Milton entered 15 rinks in this event. Four rinks journeyed to Brampton, four to Oakville, three to Acton, two to Orangeville, one to Chingquacousy while one Milton rink drew home ice.

Results of the past weekend determine which of the four events each rink is in for further competition. Two-game winners are placed in event one and two-game losers are relegated to event four. The splits are in events two and three.

Hog lines

We hear that Reg Corp is writing a book on the art of curling and including a whole chapter on "How to Throw a No-Handle Rock". Also Henry Holm and Leo Furlan are collaborating on a paper on curling entitled "It Isn't Easy to Make the Number Four Event But We Did It".

Neelands backs Birds

Sterling second-period net-minding by Derrick Neelands backed Milton major pee wee T-Birds to a 2-1 Tri-County win over Guelph at Memorial Arena Sunday.

Guelph played the Birds to a 0-0 stalemate after one period then dominated play for the second frame as they held a wide margin in shots. Despite their great territorial advantage, the visitors could only beat a hot Neelands once.

In the third period the Birds broke out with two goals to tie the victory. Mark Miller tied the game, converting a setup from Paul Benton and Doug Riding. Tom Houston fired the winner after Boston had won a faceoff in the Guelph end.

Milton enters the Delhi Tournament this weekend, with games against Stratford and Aurora. Then they start their OMHA playoffs against Streetsville.

Pickett shuts out Guelph

Hockey calendar

Milton Grant Haulage minor bantams continued to improve their league-leading goals against record with a 2-0 shutout over Guelph Monday at Memorial Arena.

Donny Pickett was in the net for the goose egg, which brought the team's goals against to a remarkable 23 in 22 games played.

Brent Pastor and Joe O'Grady each scored margin-of-victory in a close-checking game. Milton has one more Tri-County game against Oakville, and possibly a rescheduled encounter with Burlington before entering the OMHA playoffs. The Grant bantams have a bye in the first round.

Guy Tezmatto tallied twice while teammates Scott McLeod, Brian Turner, Tom Chuchmach and Rick Vascotto added singles as Bills trounced Knights.

Rod Yeo was the only Knights skater to connect with a marker.

Harris 2
Pigment 1

Harris jumped ahead 2-0 on goals from Rich Hewitt and Andy Hickson to hold on for a 2-1 win as Mark Yorke connected for Pigment just over a minute left in the game.

Docs and Dents

Milton Docs and Dents green machine steamrolled over their opponents in two home games this weekend, winning Saturday's game 5-1 against Burlington and defeating Guelph on Sunday 11-0.

Coach ejected

Burlington came to Milton determined to win at all costs, and the type of play used by the Burlington players reflected their coach's philosophy. He was ejected from the game at the 3:54 mark of the second period.

Burlington scored the first goal of the game at the 2:42 mark of the first period. Milton replied less than a minute later with a goal by Bobby Warwick on a pass from Paul Wilson, who played a stand-out defensive game. In the second period Tim Pollen scored on another Wilson pass. Then Glen Houston notched one on a Pollen set up.

Paul Rowan opened the third period scoring when he put away a pass from Trevor Ribot. Pollen scored the last Milton goal and his second of the game on a play from Terry Boudreau and Houston.

Guelph numbed

Guelph's visit here on Sunday proved to be a numbing experience for them as the green machine dominated the play allowing only four shots on the Milton goal-tenders. The Docs and Dents scored four goals in each of the first two periods and three in the third.

Houston led the Milton marksmen with three goals. Boudreau, Ribot and Rowan each netted two.
