Ray Tonelli an all-star in USHL

Milton minor hockey grad Ray Tonelli, who was scheduled to suit up with Georgetown Chrysler Raiders of the OHA Intermediate "A" league, has been named to the northern division all-star team in the United States Hockey League, a semi-pro loop. Tonelli, older brother of John of the WHA Houston Aeros, drew the sixth highest number of votes among northern division teams. Ray plays for Traverse City, Michigan. The league all-star game will be played at Sioux City, Iowa, January 24. Tonelli, who was one of the most valuable players on Raiders' last OHA championship team in the 1973-74 season, signed a card with the Georgetown club this year, then departed for the U.S. again without letting Raider officials know his intentions.

Martin St. cagers lose

Martin Street School advanced to the semi-finals of the Annual Red and White public school basketball meet at Acton's High School Saturday, but the eventual tournament winners, Centennial, halted the Milton school 40-20. Fairview was the only other Milton school, one of eight, to take part in the one day competition for boys. A girl's half of the games is held this Saturday. Martin Street downed Acton's M.Z. Bennett school 36-24 in the first game while Fairview went down 36-33 to Robert Little School. In the consolation semi-finals Fairview lost 50-23 to Rolling Meadows. The Burlington school won the consolation round by beating M.Z. Bennett 43-25. Stewarttown and Brookville also sent teams to the games.
