HEART: CANADA'S BEST NEW ROCK BAND*

At this year's Juno Awards (the equivalent to the Grammy in U.S.), Heart was voted Best Canadian Rock Group. The competition included Bachman Turner OverDrive, April Wine, The Stampeders and Rush.

In less than two years, Heart has risen from being just another good bar-band to the top of Canada's rock scene. Their rise began in 1972, when Nancy and Ann Wilson formed a folk group, called the Mode. They had little luck. Later that year, Nancy met Roger Fisher. He was the guitarist for White Heart. They fell in love and decided to form another band. Nancy's sister Ann, along with three male musicians Steve Fossen, Howard Leese and Mike Desrosiers, were added.

Heart is a group that has all American citizens. They are considered a "Canadian" group because Vancouver is their base and Heart was conceived on Canadian soil. They toiled for many months, playing the bars in and around Vancouver. During one of their shows, the head of a small Canadian recording company was in attendance. He signed Heart on his Mushroom label. With his determination and money, Heart recorded "Dreamboat Annie." To say the album was successful isn't enough... Heart became a phenomenon!

During 1975, Heart toured throughout North America. Three singles were released: "Magic Man," "Crazy on You" and "Dreamboat Annie." All three made the top 10. They enjoyed both commercial and critical favorable response in 1976. Heart has already recorded their second album, "Magazine." If this album is similar to the first one, Heart might as well become permanent citizens in Canada!

BEAU DOMMAGE: QUEBEC'S TOP ROCK GROUP

Translated to English, Beau Dommage means "sure as hell". Five French Canadians formed a rock group in 1973. They paid their dues by playing the small clubs and bars near Montreal. Becoming the best in Quebec was only a matter of time. Their style is reminiscent of Crosby, Stills, Nash and Young.

The band consists of Michel Rivard (sopranos and guitar), Michel Hinton (guitar), Real Desrosiers (guitar), Marie Michele Desrosiers (vocals) and Pierre Bertrand (drums).

Beau Dommage has recorded three albums on Capital Records: "Beau Dommage," "Wedding Night" and "Another Day Comes to the City".

RECORD CARE

The cabinet of a speaker is usually made out of pure wood. By applying lemon oil to the wood, you serve two purposes. Lemon oil creates a clean, shiny finish and moistens the wood. If the wood is left to become dry, chances are cracks will develop.

Summer job office opens

Milton's summer job office for students will be officially opened on Thursday, May 5 on the second floor of the post office building on Main St.

The "Operation Placement" program designed to assist local students to gain summer employment is a joint effort of the federal Manpower Department, the Canadian and Ontario Chambers of Commerce and the Milton and Oakville Chambers and the Oakville Manpower centre. Chamber, council, Board of Education, Manpower and Labor Council officials serve on the steering committee.

Invited guests for the May 5 opening are Mayor Don Gordon and Milton Councillors, Federal Manpower and Immigration Minister Bud Cullen, Halton MP Dr. Frank Philbrook, Oakville MPP Jim Snow and Milton Chamber of Commerce president Yvonne Christie.

Spring dance attracts 100

The Nassagaweya Progressive Conservative Association held a spring dance at Brookville Hall that attracted more than 100 Saturday evening.

Music was supplied by Harry Arbic's Discotheque of Acton running from rock to square dances with Max Storey doing the calling.

Among those present were M.P. and Mrs. Bill Kemppling, Bob Jones, president of the new Federal Riding association, Councillor Brad and Mrs. Clements, Councillor Russ and Mrs. Powadiuk and Mr. and Mrs. George Gray. Mr. Gray is contesting the next provincial election. Dr. Ben Young, one of the senior Progressive Conservatives in Nassagaweya was also present.

Association president Ken Murray assisted by his wife Doll and their daughter, Mrs. Marilyn Ottaway, second vice-president welcomed the crowd with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wood, first vice president.

"It was good to see a truly grass roots association attract so many newcomers and display so much vigor and enjoyment," Mrs. Maurice Newton, one of the members, reported.

Crocheted roses made

Members took home a crocheted rose from the meeting of Crafts Unlimited Wednesday evening. This was demonstrated by Mrs. Jean Barnes. One new member joined the group.

On April 27, members will drive to Georgetown for a quilt and material display by the Pine and Patchwork of Belfountain at the Knox Church Hall. All who are interested in crafts are invited to come along!

Elect officers Nassagaweya W.I.

The home of Mrs. E. Daigle was the scene of the Nassagaweya Women's Institute meeting, Wednesday evening, April 13. The motto of "April showers bring May flowers" was a breath of spring to all.

Members stood for the Institute Ode and Mary Stewart Collect, then played pop for the roll call, payment of fees. Following the secretary treasurer's reports, correspondence was read. The district director spring board meeting report was given by Mrs. K. Anderson. Business arising from that included the District Annual to be held in Georgetown, May 17, its competitions of butter tarts with raisins and plain tea biscuits and the theme and roll call centered around the Queen Elizabeth Silver Jubilee.

Funds were voted to assist the Children's Aid Society Summer Program. Arrangements were made for Mrs. D. DeBlauw to present the Nassagaweya W.I. trophy at the Music Festival, May 17, in Acton, Achievement Day for the 4H clubs will be April 23.

The annual euchre plans, held April 14, were completed. From Mrs. Maluskis letter one important point is the F.W.I.O. special luncheon to be held July 13 in Kitchener to celebrate the Institute's 80th Anniversary.

The annual business meeting was opened with the secretary treasurer's reports. The auditors and conveners of standing committee reports were given.
