

Crowds welcome Santa

PEOPLE LINED the route all the way from the Ernest C. Drury School on Ontario St. to the corner of Main and Brown Sts. Saturday to watch the Santa parade. While many people picked spots along the parade route, the heaviest crowds congregated along Main St.

A LARGE CROWD braved the cold weather to witness Saturday's Santa Claus parade through Milton. The longer than ever parade wound its way from Drury School to the fair grounds, via Ontario and Main Sts. and provided plenty of thrills for the little folks.

RIDING HIGH for a better view of the parade, this little one used a friendly back for a vantage point. Thousands lined the streets to cheer St. Nick's arrival Saturday, and it was a grand parade.

WAVING to all his (her?) friends at the parade is a Burlington Clown. There were 50 clowns from the Burlington school at the parade.

BANK OF NOVA SCOTIA staffers Margot Ortenburg, Evelyn Irving, Diana Fityk, Carolyn Spurgeon and Doreen Bill, dressed in ethnic costumes, accepted the first prize theme float trophy after the Santa Claus parade, from Mayor Don Gordon. The float featured a large globe and Christmas greetings from around the world.

LET'S HEAR IT for good old Milton District High School, urged the cheerleaders riding on the school float in the Santa parade. The girls kept themselves warm with cheerleading antics.
