

MEET THE CLOWNS — the Burlington clowns, that is — who starred in Saturday's Santa Claus parade in Milton. The photographer caught them all together at Drury School prior to the parade, where they huddled to keep warm before starting the mile-long walk to the fair grounds.

CAMPBELLVILLE LIONS float in the Santa parade featured children from the Scout and Guide groups in the village. Plus a friendly Lion.

PRECISION MARCHING was demonstrated by groups like this one from Cardinals of Precious Blood school, in the Milton Christmas parade. There were 10 bands and over 60 entries in the parade.
