

Lesson in perseverance

"Corrie: Behind the scenes with 'The Hiding Place,'" a new full-length color release from World Wide Pictures, will be shown at the Highway Gospel Church, corner Wakefield and Ontario Sts., on Sunday Jan. 8. A single showing is scheduled to begin at 7 p.m.

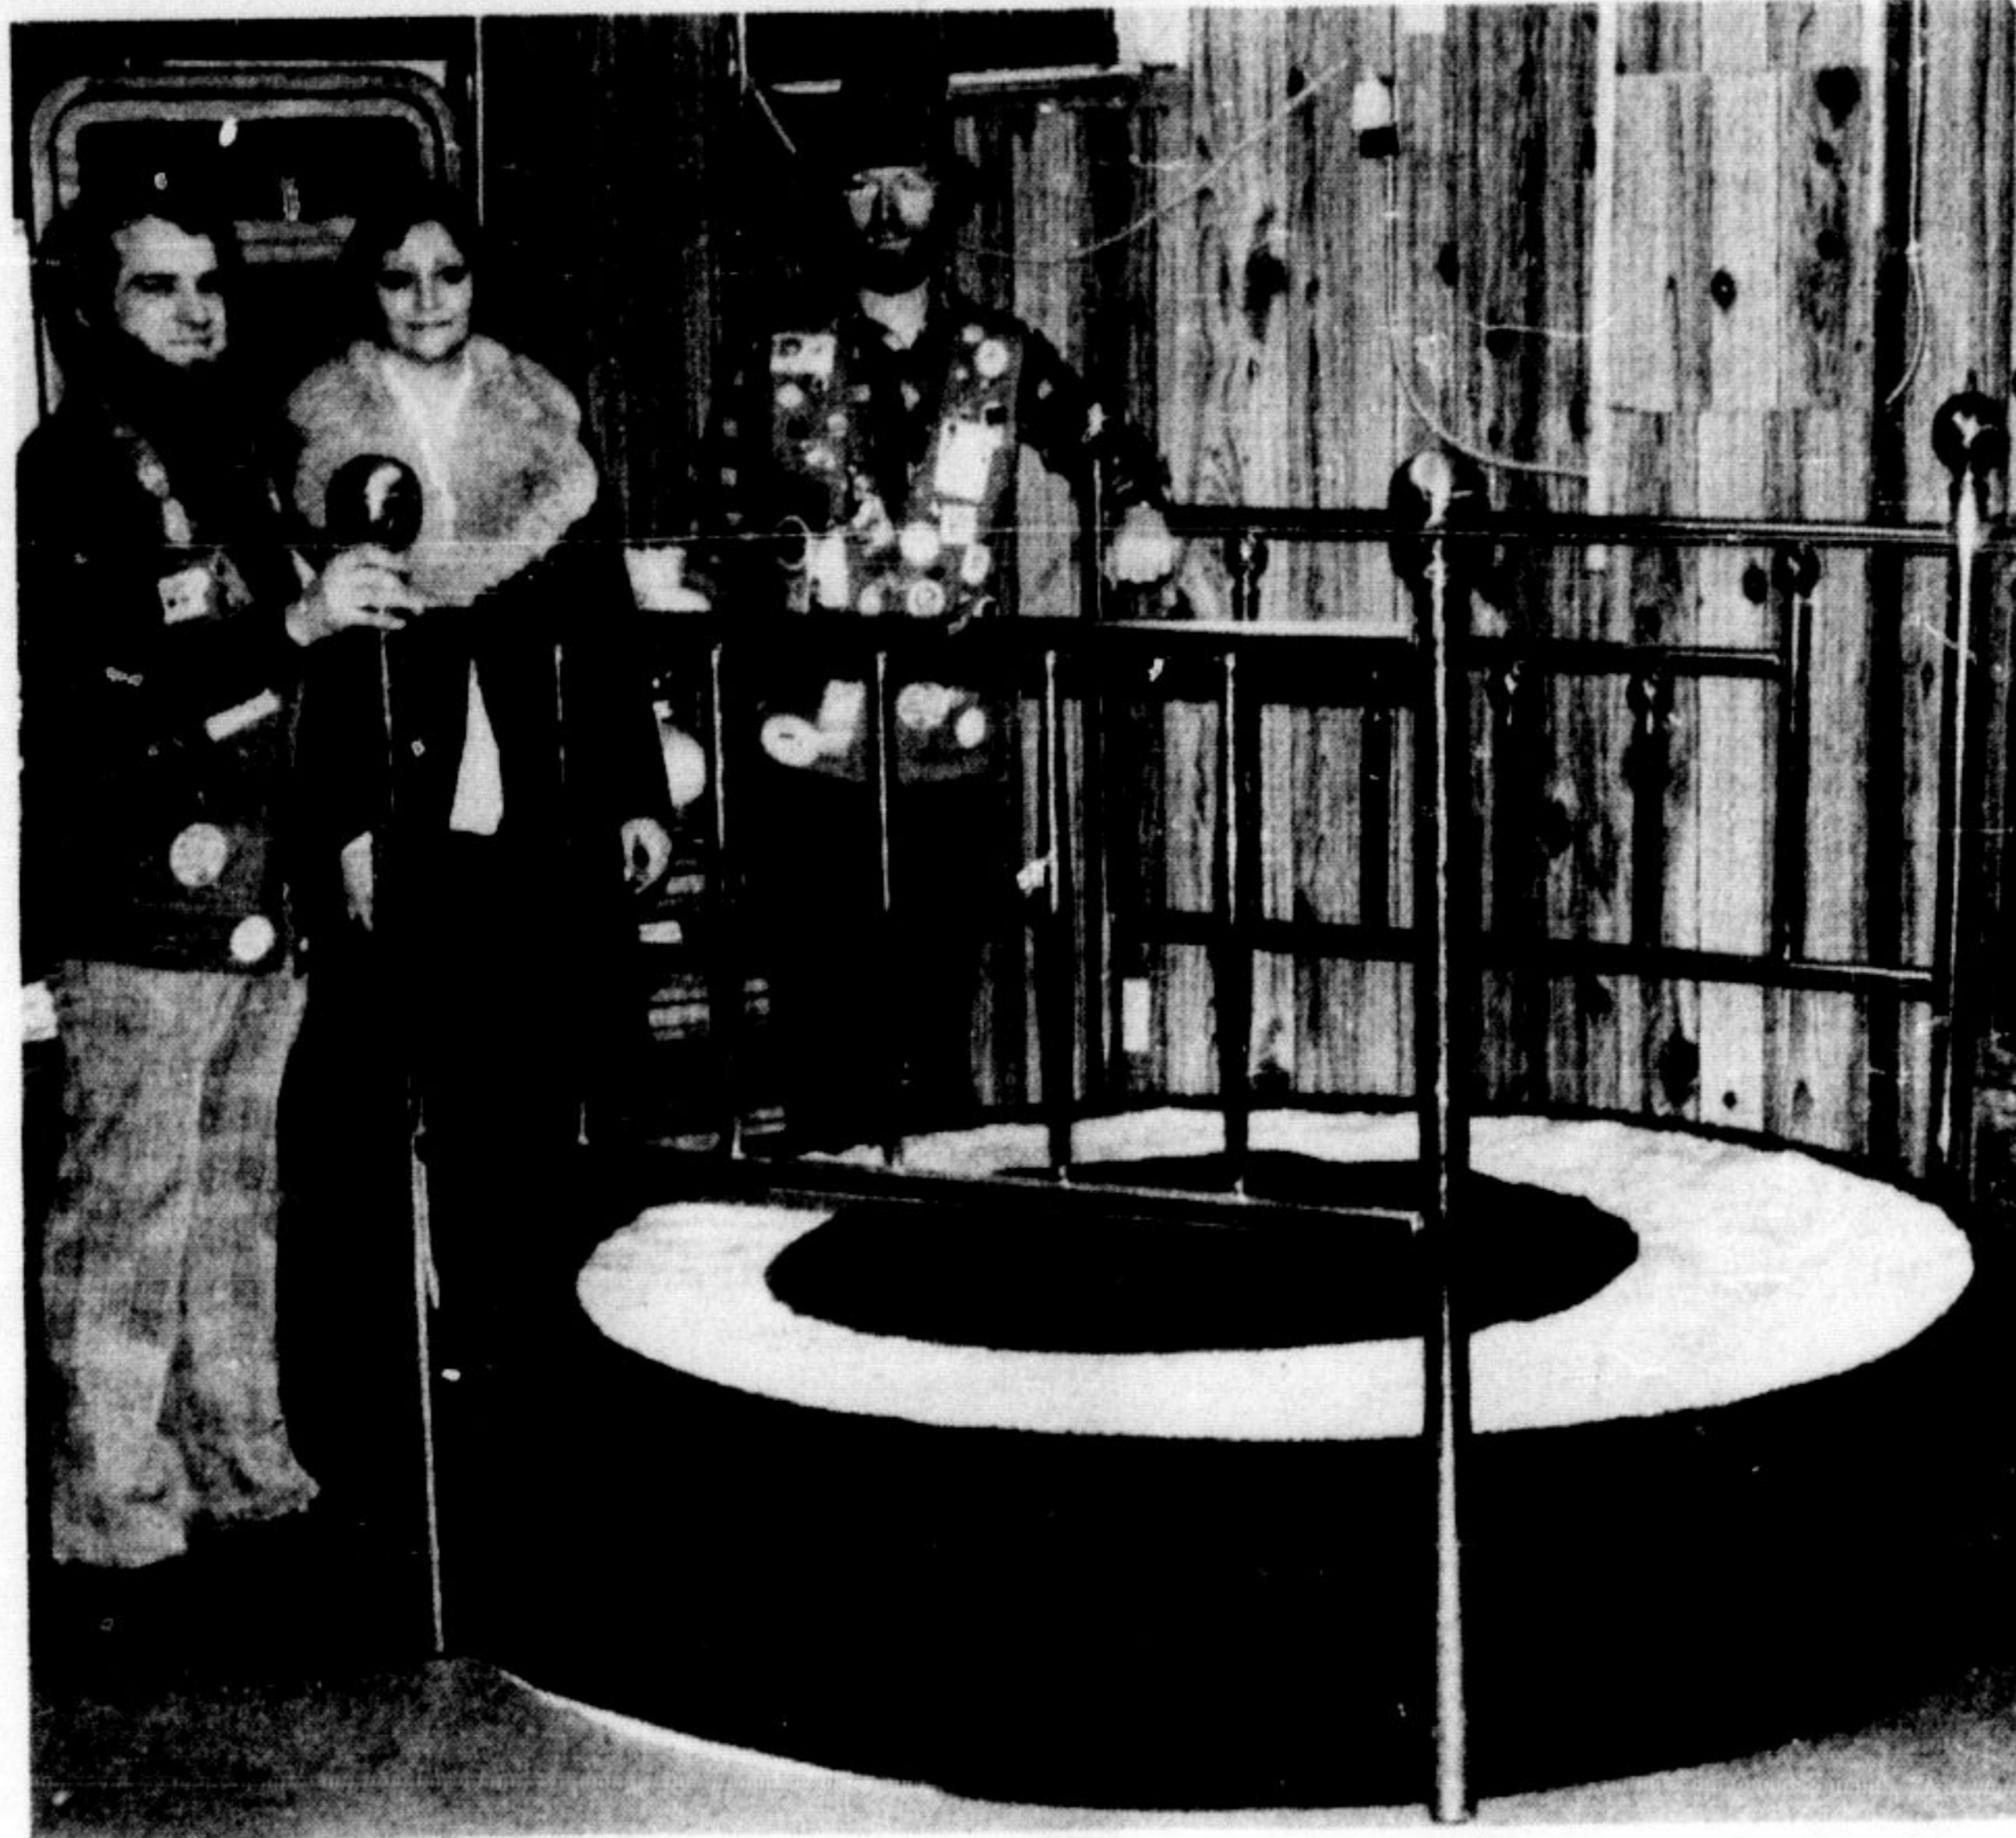

The Hiding Place, a true story filmed in Holland and other European locations, is based on the experiences of Corrie ten Boom, who, with her father, sister and brother, provided refuge for countless Jewish families. A secret room was constructed in their home as a hiding place for use during Gestapo raids. The ten Booms' activities were discovered, and they were sent to prisons and concentration camps. According to Kenneth Bliss, Director of Distribution for World Wide pictures, "The Hiding Place has been extremely well-received, both by audiences and film critics. 'Corrie' was produced to give people who have seen 'The Hiding Place' or read her many best selling books an opportunity to hear her share many of her memories about her life in Holland, her family, and her lifetime of service to others."

Bliss added that the film "offers a great lesson in the perseverance of a personal faith in a very dark and trying period of world history. Corrie ten Boom, now in her 80s, has a tremendous vitality, a deep spiritual commitment, and a profound love for her fellow man. We believe that we have succeeded in transmitting a part of her zest, personality, and source of strength through this film."

Bliss noted that the film includes "interesting side-lights on the experiences of the cast and crew during the filming of 'The Hiding Place.'" Rev. M. C. Christensen, pastor of Highway Gospel, stressed that the showing of "Corrie" is open to the public, free of charge. "We encourage families to plan to attend together, for what we believe will be a memorable experience."

SHOPPING SPREE WINNER: Cathy Brindle of 235 Ontario St. N., Milton, won the Milton and District Kinsmen Club's third annual shopping spree this year. The winner is allowed to shop free for five minutes, with a $500 limit, at any store in town. Mrs. Brindle chose a brass bed at Farmer Jack's Furniture, worth exactly $500, so she didn't need the whole five minutes to make her selection. She's shown picking up the brass ends of the bed with draw chairman Kin Doug Brown (left) and Kin President Barry Tonner, in hat. The club made approximately $1,000 profit on the draw.

A crowd of 400 to 500 attended the New Year's Eve ring-in at the town hall Saturday at midnight. Gus Gou-

Many holiday visitors

By Mrs. Cecil Patterson
Sincere sympathy to Mrs. Neville Dolby and other members of her family on the passing of her father, Stafford Bennett.

Douglas Peacock is spending a week's holiday and New Year's day with his parents and relatives on the Fourth Line. Douglas is residing in Calgary and is employed as a R.M.O.—registered male orderly—in a Calgary Hotel. Doug went west in September by car but flew home on Dec. 30. He reports that he likes the country very much and has met many young people from Milton who are living there.

Get well wishes to Rev. Rod Lewis who is confined to his home with a severe cold. Rev. William Milligan took the service at Boston and Omagh churches on Sunday, Jan. 1.

Out-of-town visitors for the holidays included Mr. and Mrs. Bill Proud and Ken, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hood of Mooreville with the Rayner families; Mrs. Eva Burton and family, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Taylor and family, Mr. and Mrs. Marcel Moisan with the H. Peacock family.

Mr. and Mrs. Aden Bauman and sons of Elmira, Mr. and Mrs. W. Harper and Scott of Milton, Miss M. Nookes with the Pattersons at Cedar Hedge Farm.

Miss Ann Luke and her mother and brother and Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Laing returned home on Saturday from a fine three week holiday in sunny Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sifton and children had a pleasant holiday with their parents and relatives at Ridgetown. Mr. and Mrs. Steven Sokoloff and baby have enjoyed a month's holiday in Florida. Miss Lynne Ellis spent Christmas and holiday with her parents and brother, Third Line.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Robertson and Mrs. Ruth Lockie spent Boxing Day with their families, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Lockie and children at Fordwich.

The annual Christmas concert given by children of Omagh Presbyterian Sunday school was held on Friday evening, Dec. 16. Mrs. Joy Cole, superintendent, was M.C. for the program. Recitations were given, and a play on the birth of Christ was portrayed. Readers were Ruth Gillies and David McCann and thus acted in pantomime the various parts.

Christmas carols were enjoyed. At the close the tree was unloaded of the gifts and there were oranges for all present, donated by a kind friend. Later cookies and coffee were served in the church hall.

The icy roads and bad weather caused the church service and Sunday school to be cancelled on Dec. 18.

The previous Sunday was white gift service and the children gathered the parcels from the congregation to be delivered to Scott Mission, Toronto.

Sincere sympathy is extended to the Curtis family and all who mourn the passing of Miss Angelina Curtis on Monday, Dec. 12 in Halton Manor. Miss Curtis was laid to rest in the family plot at Omagh Presbyterian church on Wednesday, Dec. 14.

To all readers, a sincere wish for all good things in 1978.

Santa is sick misses S.S. party

By Mrs. Cecil Patterson
The weekly euchre was held in Hornby Community Centre on Saturday evening, Dec. 17, with eight tables in play. Prize winners were Lilly Hayward, Hazel Preston, Olive Tasker, Ed Parsons, Ernest Martin, Dorothy Featherston, Ethel Brownridge. Two large poinsettia flowers donated by Keith Webb were given as lucky draws and won by Florence Parsons and Walter Hug. The next party will be held Jan. 7.

Despite icy roads and inclement weather a large number worshipped at Bethel United Church, Trafalgar Rd. on Sunday, Dec. 18. Following the service all adjourned to the S.S. rooms for a hearty pot luck dinner.

The children of the church school presented an enjoyable program of vocal and piano selections and short plays, each class contributing to the concert. Ross Wark superintendent was the chairman, Santa was not feeling well so did not attend, but willing helpers distributed the gifts from the beautiful tree.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. Jack Trischler, formerly of the Sixth Line is in critical condition in a Toronto hospital where she has been in a coma since a car-truck accident in Mississauga on Oct. 15.

Sheridan

Night classes start Jan. 2

Sheridan College will offer evening courses at Ernest C. Drury School starting Jan. 12 on a variety of interests, as part of a winter program of evening courses.

Courses will cover hobby interests as well as career and academic topics, including two credit courses in accounting.

Registration for any of the 16 classes will be held at Ernest C. Drury School, on a first come, first served basis on Thursday, Jan. 5 between 7 and 8:30 in the evening.

Subjects included are crocheting, knitting, yoga, psychology of the deaf child, consumer mathematics, first aid and several management development courses.

Other courses including automobile care, construction welding, sewer and watermain pipe laying and truck care are offered at the Milton campus of Sheridan College on the Sixth Line, Nassagaweya. Basic grooming of harness horses will also be held at the Milton campus, with some of the 10 sessions held at Mohawk Raceway.

Registration for the classes at Milton campus can be made in person during the day, Monday to Friday, and in the evenings, Monday to Thursday, effective Jan. 2.

Senior citizens 65 years or older may register in any Sheridan continuing education course upon payment of a $5 registration fee.

Sheridan College is offering courses in applied arts, business administration, technology, English and media and visual and creative arts in their other campus locations in Oakville, Burlington, Mississauga, and Brampton. Further information on courses is available by contacting Sheridan College.

Inaugural January 5

Halton Board of Education will hold its inaugural meeting January 5 at the main offices, Guelph Line, Burlington.

At the meeting a chairman and vice-chairman will be elected by the 20 man board.

It is not known if 1977 chairman Rev. Garry Morton and vice-chairman Noel Cooper will seek re-election.

—The Burlington Teen Tour Band is performing in Florida over the New Year's Holiday and took part in the Orange Bowl parade.
