

SKIERS WERE TREATED to an excellent view as well as fine conditions Sunday at the regional winter carnival.

AND AWAY WE GO. Skiers found conditions and weather excellent on Sunday for the regional winter carnival. A "never ever ski pass" was a popular feature at the winter carnival.

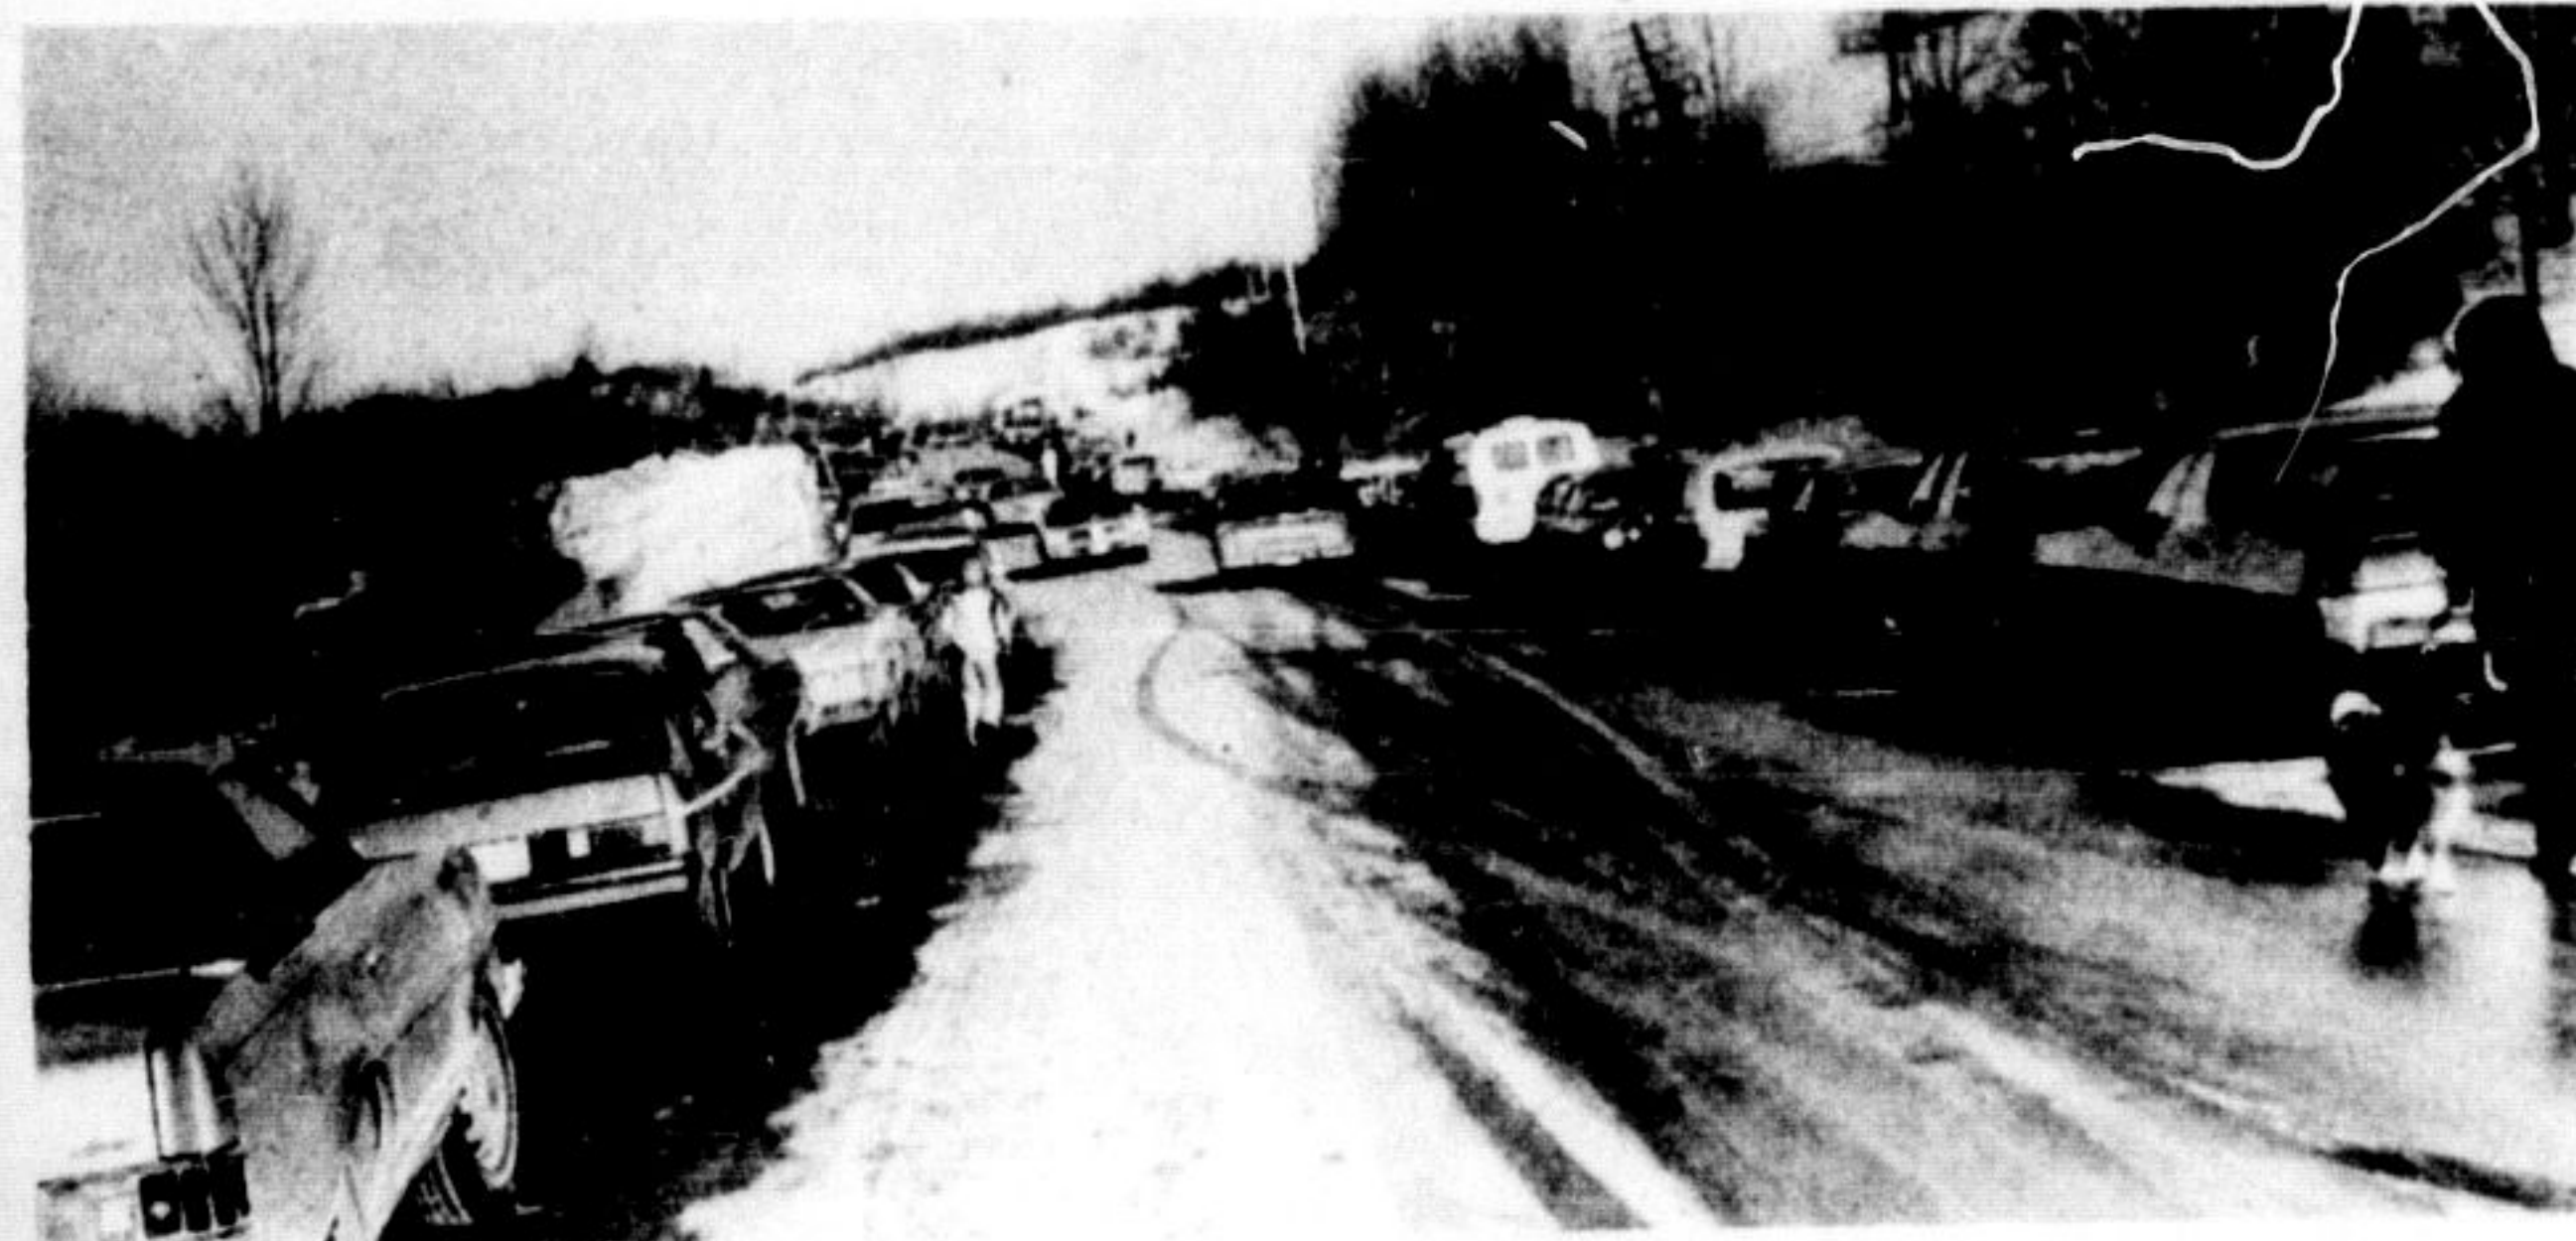

KAREN BRADING of Halton Hills Recreation Staff watches action at the Regional Winter Carnival Sunday.

THE OAKVILLE Rod and Gun Club was overwhelmed with people wanting pancakes and sausage. They sold out early.

JIM PRAUGHT and Michael Steadman take donut eating seriously. That was a popular event at the winter carnival Sunday.

A SEEMINGLY never ending line of cars lined both sides of the road at Kelso Sunday. The line extended right back to Milton Heights.

—Bigger crowds than expected attended the regional winter carnival on Sunday.

—Winter weekend programs continue at Mountsberg Wildlife Centre west of Campbellville.

Still time to help fund

If you were out when your Heart Fund Volunteer called last week, you can still support the fight against heart disease. Just mail your gift in the envelope she left you. Any day is a great day for you to contribute to your Heart Fund.

You see, it's not a question of the calendar—but a question of the heart and the understanding heart.

Get movin' to Metro Trust!

You can get more out of an RRSP with us.

All Registered Retirement Savings Plans are not the same. Some charge you a variable fee and give you a fluctuating interest rate that can leave you guessing as to what you're really earning. We don't work that way. A Metro Trust Guaranteed RRSP combines one low monthly administration charge of $1 with a guaranteed fixed rate of return to the term you select. And that lets you know exactly where you stand.

(see chart for example). Before you buy a RRSP, talk to us. We'll be glad to show you how much more you can get out of your Metro Trust RRSP. And be sure to ask about Metro Trust Redeemable Investments. We'll show you how they can work for you. Discover all the advantages of Metro Trust money management with a personal touch.

If you're 35 years old, married with two dependents under 16, the following indicates your Income Tax savings and the value of your investment over 30 years, if you invest in a Metro Trust RRSP today.

Income $10,000 a year	you can contribute up to $2,000 in an RRSP	After tax rebate of $770 your actual investment is $1,230	If you contribute $2,000 each year until age 65, your Plan will be worth $297,150.*

JASPER used to have the same problem a lot of us have: too many people lined up for showers and not enough hot water to go around. Luckily, he got a new Gulfstream Natural Gas water heater a few days ago. The Bunny Rabbits told the Beaver who told the Fox who then told the Raccoon who passed it on to the Bighorn Sheep who couldn't wait to tell the Cougar all about it, and the word spread to the Deer and the Wolves and now even Mr. Moose is in the know. Now, everybody knows there's lots of hot water for everybody. Needless to say, Jasper is enjoying a new found popularity. And it is everyone's considered opinion that he is one smart Bear. Because, you see, his new Gulfstream Natural Gas water heater heats up water a whole lot faster than his old electric one. Not only does it do all that, but it can also save a heavy hot water user like Jasper clear up to $100.00 a year on his energy bill. Imagine that! Now the Cubs have all the hot water they need to wash behind their ears and Jasper's friends don't have to worry about being last in line. It goes without saying that Jasper is very happy, indeed. As are all his furry friends. Anyway, why don't you get a hold of your local plumbing contractor or your neighbourhood Union Gas Appliance Centre and get yourself a new Gulfstream Natural Gas water heater. Whether you rent or buy... Gulfstream is a sure fire way to get yourself into a lot of hot water.
