Milton minor teams gear for playoffs

NOVICE DIVISION

In Milton Minor Hockey Association novice house league play recently, Men's World Hairstyling defeated the Firemen 3-0 on Wednesday Feb. 22. Cory Wilyman scored two and assisted once for the winners and teammate Steve Bowes potted the single. Mike Budworth assisted on Wilyman's second goal in the penalty free contest. Steve Winczaryk recorded the shutout.

Scannell and White Oaks played a 2-2 draw as Todd Hlushko scored two for the WOHL team. Bill Allan and Ian Swance scored for Scannell in the game played Saturday.

Rebekahs dropped the Speed Queen 4-0 on Saturday as Matt McCandless played the hot shooter and scored three of his team's four goals. Keith Newell scored the other marker with McCandless assisting. Brent Tasker assisted on one of McCandless' goals. Blair Lenard recorded the shutout.

An inter-city house league "Select" game was played between Milton and Brampton, with Brampton winning 5-1. Todd Hlushko scored the lone Milton goal assisted by McCandless. The game played on Saturday had Steve Dall in the Milton net. Brampton's Kevin O'Neil scored twice for the win.

In an earlier game on Saturday, Feb. 18, Milton and Streetsville Selects played to a 3-3 draw. Todd Hlushko, Tyler Koshurba and Jason Kinsdale scored for Milton while Sandy Walker potted a pair and Doug MacDonald a single for Streetsville. Steve Winczaryk was in net for Milton.

League play on Saturday, Feb. 18 saw Rebekahs beat the Firemen 2-0 as Matt McCandless worked his magic and potted both goals for the lodge. Blair Lenard recorded the shutout.

Justin Varga scored and was assisted by Shawn Hasselredt in the WOHL's 1-0 win over the Man's World recently. Steve Dall recorded one of his shutouts.

Scannell had handed Speed Queen a 4-1 loss on Feb. 15 and it was the two goals and assist of Doug Drennan that made the major difference. Tyler Koshurba scored once and had two assists for Scannell and teammate Doug Carles added the single. The lone Speed Queen goal was netted by Chris McKenna.

ATOM DIVISION

In MMHA atom house league action, Milton Upholstery covered Mowbray Fuels by a 5-4 margin on Saturday at Laurier Ave. arena. James Watt scored two and Murray Vandenhoevel, David Harrison and Shawn Whaling one each for the winners. Tracey Kelly, Robert Vangroote, Greg Newell and Jeffrey Marino slammed goals for Mowbray Esso Fuels.

Under the stalwart goal-keeping of the noted Curt Ackerman, Pro Hardware cut down Milton Lawn Service 4-1 Saturday. Geoffrey Landers, Brian Paupst, Frank Peferel and Dean Ellison were the marksmen for the Pro team. Jeff LaPointe was the lone scorer for the Lawn.

The Milton Lions doubled the goals IWA scored in a 4-2 win Saturday. Ron James had a tough time in net as Alan Anderson beat him twice and Patrick Roche and Graham Koshurba once each for the Lions' goals. Lions' goaltender Wayne Reynolds was tricked by David Hunter for IWA and Alan James scored one for his brother in the IWA net.

A week Saturday, the Lions defeated Pro Hardware 2-0. Goalie Curt Ackerman was beaten by Graham Koshurba and Mark McCluskey. Wayne

Reynolds recorded the shut-out.

IWA made mincemeat with Milton Upholstery just over a week ago. 7-4. Alan James was a hot shooter with four goals for IWA and has since marked over 60 for the season. Paul McCutcheon, Richard Burrows and Cedrick Kelly tallied singles for IWA. James Watt scored a hat trick on Ron James in the IWA net and teammate Rory Bergin added a single for the Upholstery effort.

On Saturday, Feb. 18 Mowbray and the Lawn Service played to a 3-3 tie. Shahin Kassam scored two goals and Steve Ralph one for the Lawn Service corps. Trevor Shear-mur, Ken Tonelli and Anthony Porter scored singles for Mowbrays.
