THESE FEET were made for walking and Saturday they covered five miles for the Lions walkathon held to raise money for youth activities. Altogether 28 pair of feet (with owners attached) braved the rain to make the trek from the Thompson Rd. arena, through town and back. Their sponsors pledged $932 to the Lions. Youngest participant was three-year-old Michael Grenier, who apparently insisted on walking all the way. Picking up honors for the oldest participant was the not-so-old Vern Gooding.

TREKKERS Susan Butson, Penny Rowley and Christine Heggie, all Milton High School students, tuck into their reward - donuts and Coke - enthusiastically after finishing their five mile walk.

FIRST TO FINISH in the Lions Walkathon was Don Norsworthy. Running all the way, Don, a student at Milton High School, covered the five miles in 45 minutes. And he wasn't out of breath.

Obituary

W.R. Stewart

William Richmond Stewart, who lived here as a boy, died in the Wellesley hospital, Toronto, on Thursday, April 28.

Oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Stewart, he was born in Acton while his father was principal of the continuation school. The family moved to Milton in 1918 when his father became the superintendent of the Gordon Home for children, a forerunner of the Children's Aid Society.

He graduated from Toronto Normal school and the University of Toronto. Most of his teaching career was at the University of Toronto Schools. He became an inspector for schools in Ontario and at the time of his retirement was the deputy minister of education for the province.

While in Milton he played on town baseball and hockey teams. He went on to play on the University of Toronto hockey team coached by the late Prime Minister Lester Pearson. He played for Toronto Marlboros on a line with future Maple Leaf stars such as Joe Primeau. He coached the U.T.S. hockey teams. In later years he was enthusiastic about bridge and golf.

He and Eleanor Sedgewick won the top athletic awards in their senior year at Victoria

College and married soon after graduating. She survives Mr. Stewart with four children, Sarah Thompson and Gillian Parker of Toronto, Frances Pool of Fredericton, New Brunswick, and Robert of London, England. Also surviving are sister Marguerite (Mrs. Roy Brown), brothers Bob and George Stewart of Toronto. He is predeceased by sisters Mary Louise Stewart Sinclair and Elsie K. Stewart.

Magazine nominated

Early Canadian Life, a magazine about Canadian history published monthly in Milton, has been nominated for three awards at the first annual Canadian Magazine Awards ceremony this Thursday evening in Toronto.

One of 69 magazines published in Canada today, ECL is nominated for best magazine award and an editorial by Joyce Beaton on Remembrance Day has also been put up for a prize. An article on the history of the Canadian National Exhibition, by writer Nancy Kee of Hornby, has also been nominated.
