

Martin Street holds memorial service

A memorial service for Mary McEachern was held at Martin Street School Thursday.

Mrs. McEachern, for many years librarian at the school, died June 15 after a brief illness.

In a tribute to the late teacher principal Dave Haley said she always put others before herself. Student Shelley Upshaw gave a tribute on behalf of the student body while teacher Tom Travis offered a remembrance from the staff. Heather Bailey gave the Bible reading. Joyce Hayward, a Milton resident, provided piano accompaniment for hymns.

Mrs. McEachern was herself a pupil at Martin Street when it was a secondary school.

RECYCLE
North America could save the equivalent of 123 million barrels of oil per year by recycling much of the trash it now throws away at the rate of 1,300 pounds a year for each person.

NOT ONLY THE HORSES were prancing around at Mohawk Raceway in Campbellville Sunday night — a bevy of beautiful models also drew the attention of dining lounge and Sport's lounge patrons. The fashion show, featuring dresses and robes from two Toronto firms, helped to kick off Grand Circuit Week at the local raceway. More special events are on tap for the remainder of this week.

UP, UP AND AWAY the youngsters flew, at Rotarama's rides and games in the Mall all last week.

Obituary

Mrs. D. Henderson

Funeral service was held for Ida Jane Henderson of 3797 Welland Ave., Niagara Falls, at the Shemaker funeral home in Acton on June 21. Mrs. Henderson had had a short illness.
