Peacock clan holds reunion

By Mrs. Cecil Patterson
A large number of the Peacock family clan gathered on Sunday, June 25 for their reunion at Boyne Centre. It was a very special event to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the get-togethers first started in 1928 of the descendants of William and Harriet Peacock who immigrated to Canada in 1832 with six children and had five more born in Canada.
President Harvey Tasker of Mississauga welcomed the cousins and presided for the meeting which followed, a delicious noon buffet was enjoyed by all, with Kenneth Watson saying grace. A minute's silence in memory of those departed since last reunion was held. These were Mrs. Herbert Peacock, Mrs. Gertrude Peacock, Tom Burch, Arthur Halterman, Joe Lawson and Cliff Speers. Secretary-treasurer Miss Anna Peacock, read the minutes and financial reports. Letters were read from J. J. Peacock, Frontier Sask., and Russell Peacock of Mississauga.
The president reminded the clan of their good fortune in having a family history and tree and that this should be updated. Harry Peacock of Port Colborne is in charge of the history book and offered to do this work.
It was decided to meet again in 1979 at Boyne Centre in June. Officers for next year are president Harry Tasker, vice Ken Peacock of Milton, secretary Don Peacock, and treasurer Mrs. Cecil Patterson, Milton.
A fine program of sports was carried out by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Peacock, Port Colborne. Special prizes were awarded to the oldest person present, Mrs. George Peacock, Milton; youngest, Heather Peacock; longest married, Mr. and Mrs. F. Peacock, 44 years; newest married, Mr. and Mrs. C. Peacock; nearest birthday lady, Miss M. Nooke; nearest birthday gent, Frank Peacock; longest distance, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Peacock, Calgary; lucky chair, Toni Chambers; guessing candy, Nancy Taylor; guessing beans, Ella Patterson; most articles in purse, Myrtle King.

Other prizes were given for a nail file, Joanne Bauman; an all day sucker, Laura Lawson; a curved comb, Ken Watson; nail clippers, Mrs. J. Peacock; bobby pins, Ivy Peacock; a scarf, Jacque Moisan.
Children under three years, Brian Jackson, Jason Garbutt; over three years, Bradley Tasker.
The door prize, a beautiful hurricane lamp, was won by Mrs. H. King. Races were held in the park grounds and later Bingo was enjoyed by all, with scores of prizes for lucky winners.
In 1979 Miss Joanne Bauman will be the sports convener. The meeting closed with a vote of thanks to the executive and sports convener for planning this pleasurable day together, to renew old friendships and meet new members of the clan.
Guests were present from Hillsburg, Hamilton, Toronto, Paris, Elmira, Calgary, Port Colborne, Oakville and Milton area. Many photographs of earlier reunions were on display and the younger generation spent time trying to see what their mother, dad or even grandparents looked like when they were younger.
Sympathy is extended to the family of Robert Crozier who passed away in Halton

Manor after a lengthy illness on June 25. He is survived by his daughters Annie Bird and Margaret Downs and son Robert and their families, also brother Harry Crozier and sister Eva. Funeral service was held on Tuesday with interment in the family plot at Omagh Presbyterian church cemetery.
Omagh Presbyterian church will be closed for the month of July but the congregation will worship at joint services in Boston church at 10 a.m.
The choir from Boston Presbyterian church presented a musical program at Omagh church on Thursday evening, June 23, sponsored by Omagh choir. Proceeds went to the organ fund. All enjoyed the concert and social half hour which followed. The concert was under direction of Mrs. Flora Solaski, and organist was R. Argall of Milton.
Following church service on June 25 the congregational picnic of Omagh Presbyterian church was held at Bronte Park, with a good attendance.
Get well wishes to Mrs. Tom Luke, who is a patient in Milton hospital.
The sacrament of communion was held at church Sunday, June 25 at Omagh church. Former members attended, these were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Peacock of Calgary and his sister Mrs. Laura Lawson of Washago.

Drury pupils demonstrate water safety

The water safety program at E. C. Drury School for the Hearing Handicapped culminated in a demonstration of safety procedures by grade 6 pupils last week.

Awards for the best water safety posters were given out the same day. John Mans captured first prize. Patty O'Rourke received second prize; Anthony Natale and Nancy Hart were tied for third.

Milton Then and Now . . .

socoa, chocolate and coffee with whipped cream.
In those days there was little talk of dieting. Women did a great deal of physical work, especially on wash days and their weekly house cleaning days. Many men were engaged in hard physical labor. Calories were never discussed. Sundaes, whipped cream, and other rich delicacies were.

Milton people patronized these two business well—and were well served by them.
