

FRESH PRODUCE is available Saturday mornings at the Farmers' Market behind the old Milton jail. Donna Farrell of Woodward Ave.

serves Betty Copley of 100 Main St. at the Woolridge Farm booth.

THE OFFICIAL OPENING of Brian Best Park on Commercial St. was held at 4:30 p.m. Saturday when Milton's Mayor Don Gordon and Freda Best, wife of the late Mayor Brian Best, cut the ribbon to officially open the park named after her husband.

HIGH CHAIR (on dad John's shoulders) gave two-year-old Christopher Brown a good vantage point for Monday's fireworks.

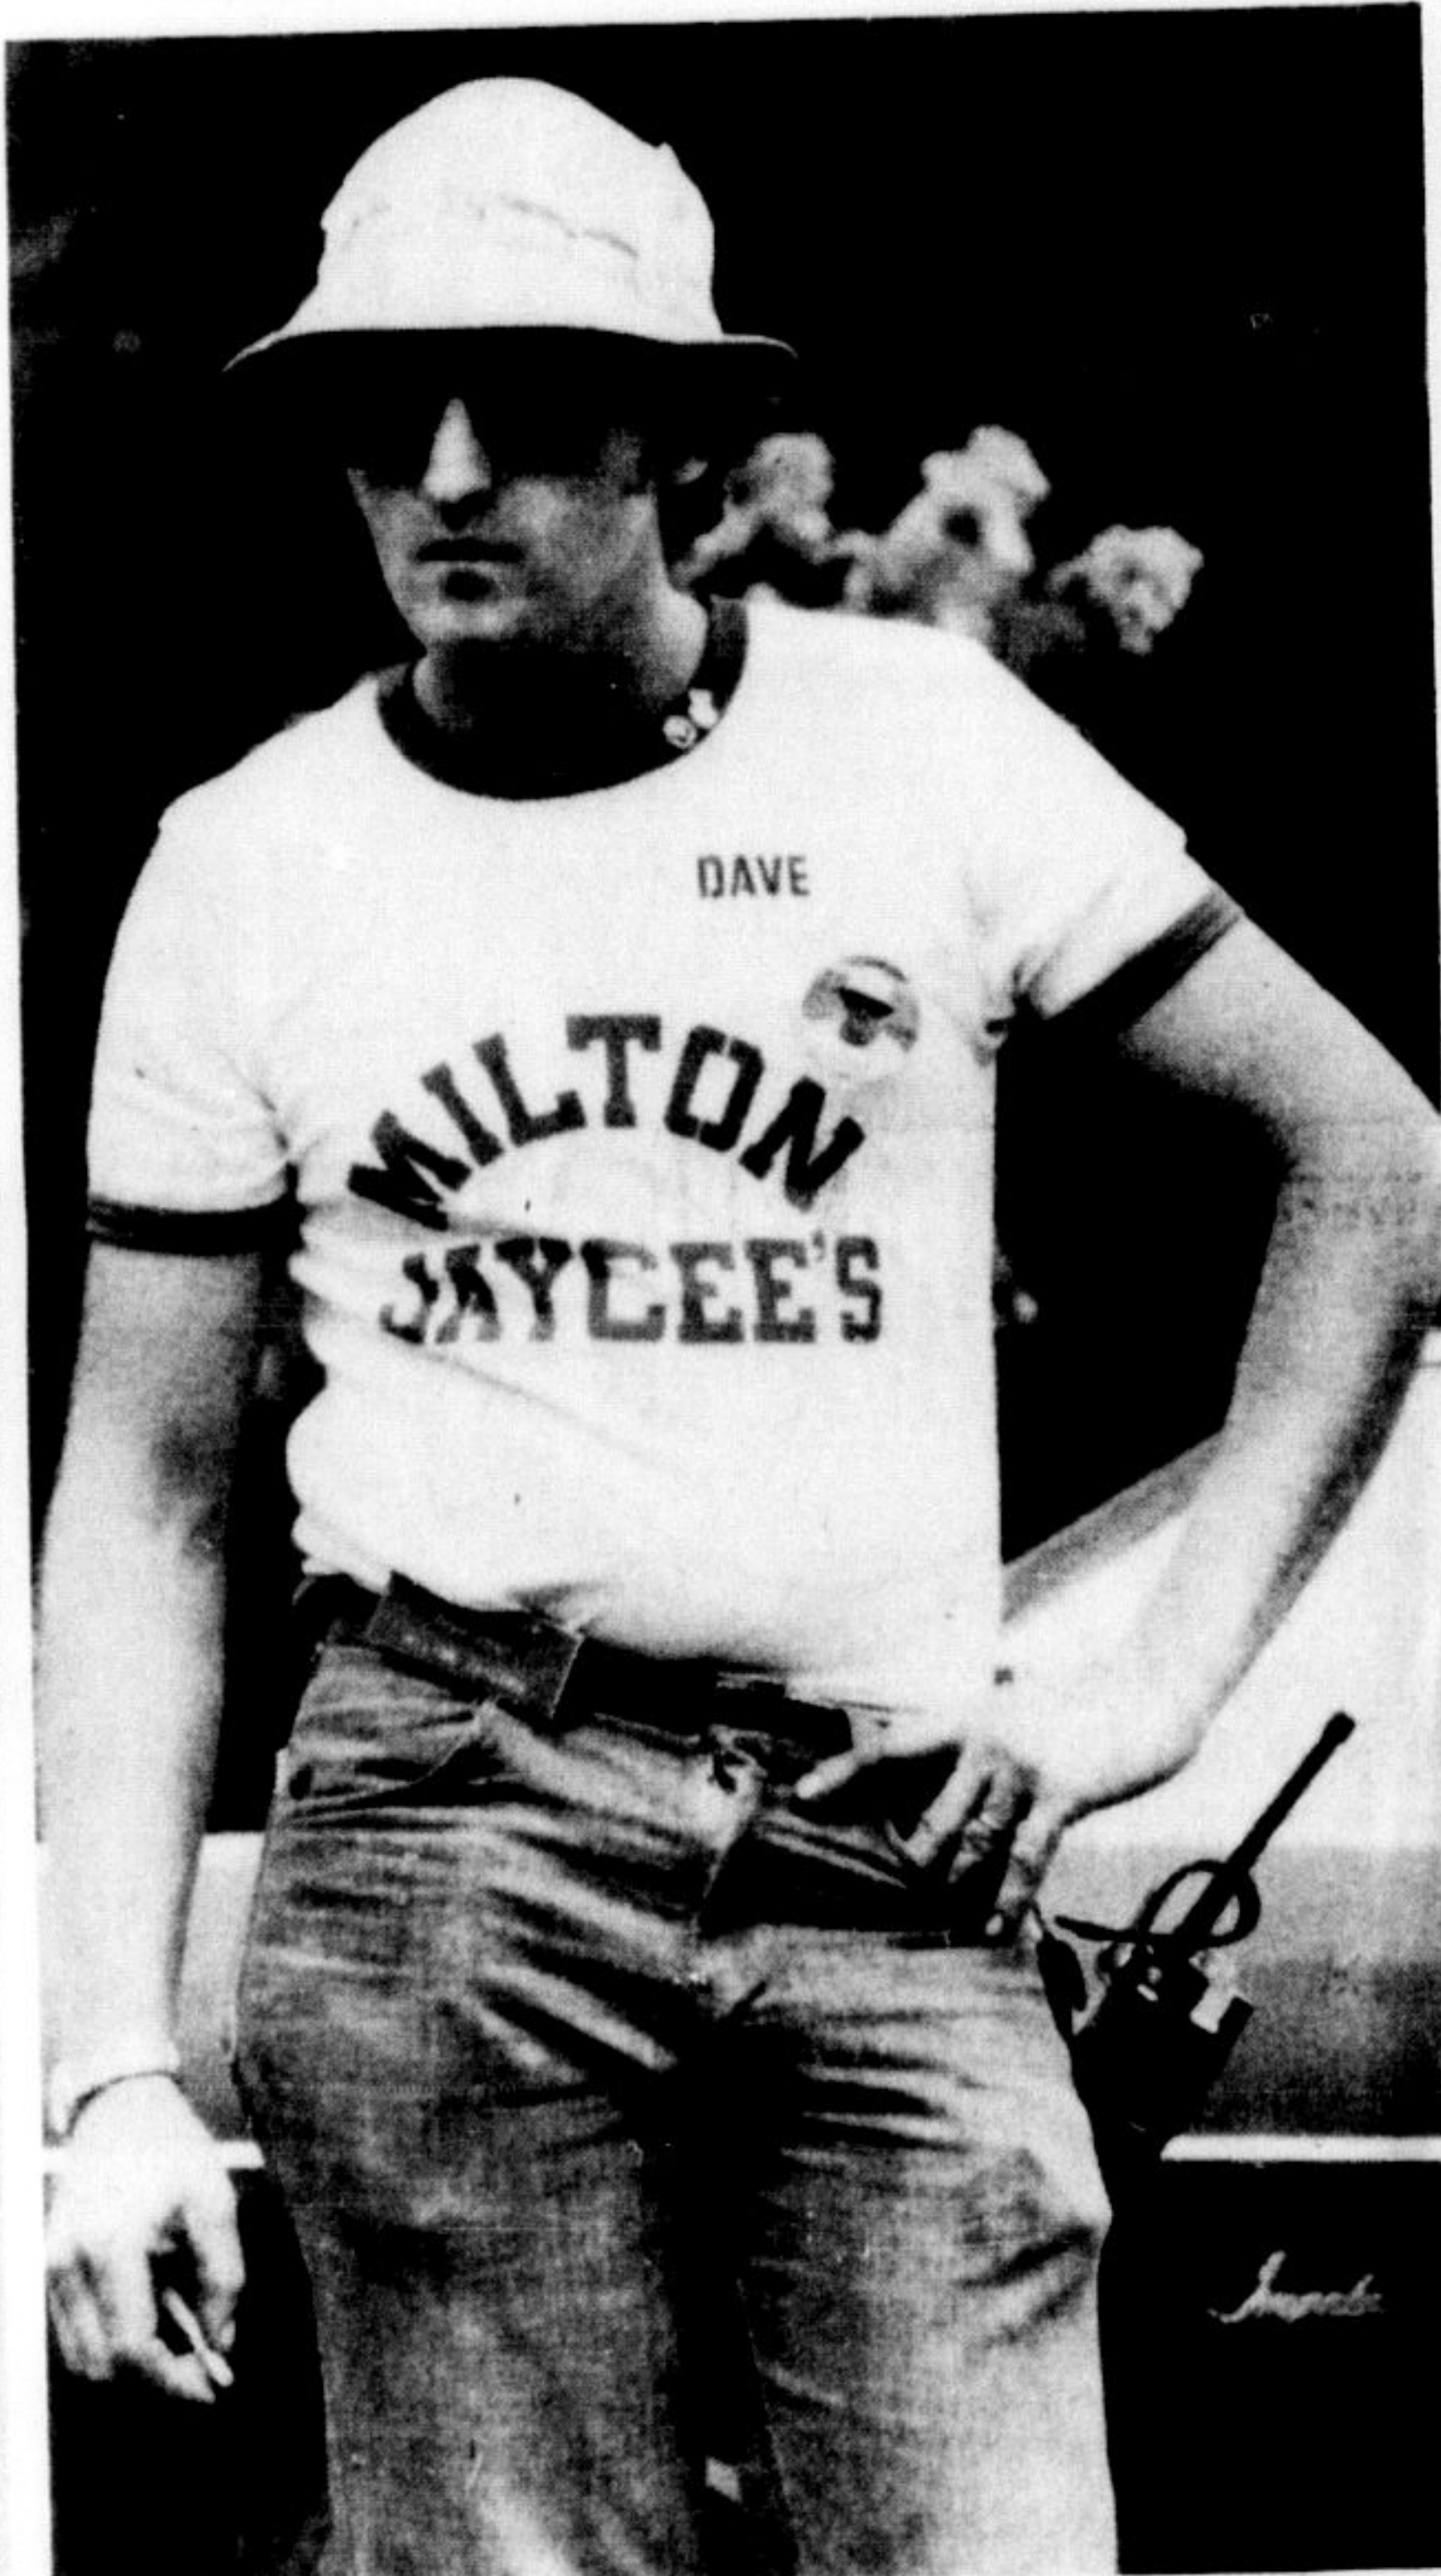

CLOSE AT FIRST: Dills InkSpots team first baseman Bob Burt looks like he's still waiting for the ball, as the Maplehurst runner touches the bag in an exhibition game at Rotary Park during Community Day. The Maplehurst employees won the game.

YOUTHFUL GYMNASTS demonstrated their skills during a Halton Gymnastic Club demonstration at Community Day Saturday afternoon. A good crowd watched the show.

WANT A DRAW? Milton Jaycee President Dave Thorton stands like a gunfighter—with his Motorola radio at his side. Jaycees used the radios to keep their operations running smoothly and in case of emergencies. The draw, well that was made by Mayor Don Gordon to conclude the Canada Day events at Rotary Park.

JAYCEE BILL GREIG Takes the order of Denise Dinelle, 12, of Pickering. Miss Dinelle was with her parents and the Nadalins of Milton on Canada Day.

EYES DOWN, watch your cards, and the Kinsmen-sponsored bingo games were underway on Main St. Saturday, as part of the town's July 1 holiday festival. Young and old enjoyed the games.
