9. IN MEMORIAM

STOKES—In memory of a dear father, James Stokes, who passed away July 13, 1957 and of a dear mother, Maude, who passed away July 12, 1977 and a brother James Earl who passed away July 11, 1976. In a quiet country grave yard Where the gentle breezes blow Lie ones we love so dearly And lost some years ago. We do not need a special day To bring them to our minds For the days we do not think of them Are very hard to find. Always remembered by son and brother Jack, Hazel and family. 31447

STOKES—In memory of our dear father and grandfather James Earl who passed away July 11, 1976. In tears we saw you sinking To suffer all again. Our hearts were almost broken When you didn't fight to stay. But when we saw you sleeping So peaceful, free from pain We would not wish you back To suffer all again. Always remembered by son John and daughter-in-law Janis and family, daughter Sharon and son-in-law Ken & family and daughter Kathy. 30561

STOKES—In loving memory of a dear father, mother and brother, James who passed away July 13, 1957, a dear mother Maude who passed away July 12, 1977 and a dear brother Earl who passed away July 11, 1976. This month comes to us with deep regret. It brings back days, that we shall never forget. You fell asleep without goodbye Your memories shall never die. Always remembered by Mervyn, Edna & family. 31403

STOKES—In loving memory of a dear father, mother and brother, James who passed away July 13, 1957, Maude July 12, 1977 and Earl July 11, 1976. Today recalls the memories Of loved ones gone to rest And those who think of them today. Are those who loved them best. The flowers we lay upon their graves May wither and decay But the love for them who lie beneath Will never fade away. Lovingly remembered by Belle Kitchen. 31417

TURNER, Bernard T.—In loving memory of a husband and father, who passed away July 17, 1977. Two tired eyes are sleeping. Two willing hands are still. For one who suffered far too much. Is resting in God's will. You never said goodbye to us. For perhaps it's just as well. We never could have said goodbye. To one we loved so well. Remembered always by wife Gladys and children Gail, Nadine and Lyle. 30485
