Cut hay catches fire

WHAT DO you do when you're a skateboard fanatic and you don't have a ramp to skate on, and you keep being chased off the streets? If you're Blake Morgan, 13, Mike O'Shea 15, and Frank "Hot Dog" Schmidt, 13, you build your own ramp and take yourself and friends off the roads. The boys made the ramp from particle board, which has the necessary flexibility, given by Milton Construction on space provided by Milton Bun Masters.

By Mrs. Cecil Patterson Milton Fire Department was called to the farm of Colin Marshall, Fifth Line, last Wednesday when smoke was smelled. On investigation it was found to be coming from the large bark barn. Lots of water was available from the nearby pond to aid in controlling the blaze.

The fire started in a mow of cut hay which had heated and caused spontaneous combustion. Firemen were on the scene for several hours and the only loss was a quantity of feed.

Earlier in the week on the farm of Dr. Maloney, Fifth Line, workers prevented a fire when they discovered the cut hay in the barn was heating.

Robert Brownridge and Dalton Coin are on the R.R. 4 Milton mail route to allow the regular carrier to enjoy a vacation.

Birthday greetings and good wishes to Mary Curtis and Cecil Patterson who celebrated their special day July 31st. Also to Sam Finnie Sr. whose birthday falls on Aug. 5; Art Peacock on Aug. 2; Frank Chisholm on Aug. 3.

Get well wishes to David McCann who has been a patient in Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto, for surgery on his hip following an injury.

Many churchgoers from Omagh Presbyterian Church have worshipped with the Boston congregation for the month of July. While the minister, Rev. R. Lewis, and his family have a holiday in August, Rev. W. Milligan will preach on the second and fourth Sundays.

Sympathy is extended to all who mourn the passing of R. K. Munro of Toronto. He is survived by his wife, the former Dot Featherston, and children. Funeral service was held Saturday in Bethel United Church and burial was in the nearby cemetery. The cemetery was given by Mrs. Munro's grandfather, the late David Featherston, many years ago from his farm.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Larry Simmons who celebrated their 18th wedding anniversary July 30. May they have many more. Barry Bauman of Elmira is holidaying this week with his grandmother and uncle, Cecil Patterson, at Cedar Hedge Farm, Fourth Line. Neighbors and friends are happy to welcome home Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Beatty back for a holiday from Brazil.
