

SYMBOLS for hazardous products are displayed by children at Milton Library. Learning the symbols was made easy by a puppet show featuring Martians Binkley and Doikle and dog Sniffer. Students Cheryl Stock and Brian Patti put on the show sponsored by the Department of Consumer and Corporate Affairs. Just in case you've forgotten, the symbols (from the left) indicate explosive, inflammable, poisonous and corrosive substances.

QUICK REPAIRS to the back fastener are made at Bronte Creek Provincial Park pool by Mass Assogna to Rose Romikat, on Sunday afternoon. Both are from Hamilton.

CO-OPERATIVE effort gets a tent up in no time. Camping skills, swimming, canoeing, archery, are but some of the activities offered by Camp Mildaca, a day camp operated by Milton Parks and Recreation Department at Woodland Trails. Four two-week sessions are held during the summer. The last commences Aug. 14 and registrations are still being taken.

CHRISTMAS in July was one of the treats in Parks and Rec's Play Leadership Program. But visit from Santa Claus and Christmas carols didn't make the day any cooler.

SPLISH SPLASH at Milton Heights Camping Grounds

OUTER SPACE visitors were winners of the costume contest on Future's Day, a project of the Play Leadership summer program for kids. From the left are Steve Bergin as Darth Vader, Rudy Perosin as a man from outer space, and Deedee Bergin as a Martian. Rudy and Deedee painted their faces with green vegetable dye to add to their disguises.
