Autumn Watson enrolls at Brock

A Campbellville student, Autumn L. Watson, is attending Brock University in St. Catharines this summer as part of a special Grade 12 Summer Admissions Program. She is among 67 top grade 12 students from across Ontario who are enrolled in this unique program which will give them a head start on their university education.

Over the five weeks of the program, students study four courses they have selected in the humanities, the social sciences and the pure sciences. The curriculum evening candlelit ceremony in Carmel Church was the bride's sister, Colleen Ann Page of Orangeville. The groom's brother, Peter Rasmussen, came from British Columbia to be best man.

An evening dinner and dance for 45 guests at the Edelweiss in Kitchener followed. Guests included four grandparents — three from Denmark. Others came from Ohio, British Columbia and Denmark.

The bride was entertained at showers given in Kitchener and Milton.

On return from a honeymoon in Ottawa Mr. and Mrs. Rasmussen took up residence in Kitchener.

Vacation Bible School popular with children

Vacation Bible School at St. David's Church proved popular again this summer with about 60 youngsters taking part.

The morning program for three to 12-year-olds is sponsored jointly by St. David's Presbyterian Church in Campbellville and St. John's Anglican Church in Nassagaweya. Volunteers from the congregations of both churches make up the staff.

This year the school was under the direction of Rev. Bev Shanley, rector of St. John's and of St. George's Church in Lowville. Although responsibility for organizing the summer school alternates between St. David's and St. John's, the program is always held in St. David's Church.

The purpose for vacation Bible school is to provide Christian teaching and an enjoyable experience of the Christian community. Some of the participants do not belong to either of the congregations. The life of Jesus was this year's theme.

Offerings collected from the children will be given to St. Matthew's House in Hamilton, a counselling centre in the inner city. The program includes music and crafts. Parents come on the last day to see their children's work.

Kiwanis art show

The Kiwanis Club of the Kingsway, Toronto, an "old friend" of 4-H agricultural clubs in Halton, this week announced its 15th annual Autumn Festival of the Arts, to be held Sept. 8-10 at the Carling O'Keefe plant grounds, Highway 401 and Airport Rd.

For many years the Kiwanis club has backed Halton 4-H work, as part of its ongoing agricultural service work. Kiwanians provide prizes and trophies for 4-H members and each year the top members in each agricultural club are treated to a luncheon with their Kiwanian friends, at the Old Mill Restaurant in Toronto.

The art show, featuring thousands of paintings, photographic art, sculpture and crafts to be displayed and offered for sale by Ontario and Quebec exhibitors, is one of the ways the Kiwanis Club raises money to support programs like 4-H in Halton.

Salmon at Bronte

The fish, ranging in size from six to eight pounds, were caught approximately one mile from the creek mouth in 60 to 80 feet of water.
