MARTHA CORKER, Miss Milton Fair was one of 95 contestants at the Miss C.N.E. competition last Tuesday and Wednesday. The girls were interviewed Tuesday and judged Wednesday. Miss Niagara Region, Andrea Bynkoski is the new C.N.E. queen.

TRACEY HORNE was one of the first girls this year to sign up for Milton Minor Hockey. The 12-year-old was the centre of a hockey controversy last year when she was registered by her father. This year the MMHA will allow girls to register and play hockey. Miss Horne, pictured above filling out her registration form with her dad Rick, is one of six girls so far to take advantage of the changes.

Raise $75 with MD carnival

Sister and brother Noeleen and Ian Gibbons organized a back yard muscular dystrophy carnival at 742 Willow Ave. on Saturday, and the day's efforts raised a grand total of $75 for the fund. Helpers during the day included Julie Ann Curren, Cathy and Karin Holloway, Nicky Wallace, Sean O'Dell, Karin Krekeli and Kris Nutbrown. Several local merchants donated prizes for the raffle.

Games included the sponge toss, fish pond, digging for gold, milk can and fortune telling. Adults were invited for coffee and cookies, too.
