

THOUSANDS WATCHED vintage steam traction engines strutting their stuff at the weekend Steam-Era reunion. The grandstand was full most of the weekend to watch competitions and parades at the 18th annual show.

HAROLD GADDYE of Binbrook was back again with his penny farthing bicycle. He's a master at riding it—no mean feat.

TRADING POST WAS BUSY all weekend at Steam-Era. Members brought their castoffs, to be resold to other members and visitors and the booth did a roaring trade.

THE PAST ON PARADE passed through Milton Saturday when the Steam-Era organizers held their annual parade to the fair grounds. Antique cars and trucks, steam engines and early gas tractors made up the mile-long parade.
