

Minor Hockey House League results

BANTAM HOUSE
Milton Minor Hockey house league is gearing up with the bantams and senior leagues underway and the others to follow league play this week.

In bantam house action, Hood's Chicken Kings edged the Kinsmen 5-4 Sunday. Scoring for Hoods were Scott, Kerr, Mike Paupst, Kevin Marino, Peter Maleuris and Geoff Pfeiffer. Kinsmen markers were tabbed by Jay Frosh with a hat trick and Glen Faulkner.

The Apple Eaters scored a 4-3 win over Super Save as Kevin Foley scored two, Graham Griffiths and Chris Wilhelm singles. Steve Duquay notched the hat trick for the losers.

Parton Realty bombed the Kinsmen net with eight goals Monday evening for an 8-1 win.

Mark Schreiber potted a pair while single goals were fired by Kevin Koshurba, Steve Harris, Regan Fascinato, Tom Cook, Scott Morey and Mike Horning. The lone Kinsmen marker was fired by Jay Frosh.

Jayne plucked Hood's Chickens 5-3 Monday as Barry Hlushko led the way with three goals, Ted Rea and Rob Foster each adding singles.

Kevin Marino was not outdone with his hat trick for Hoods.

SENIOR HOUSE
Pigment Color and Chemical whitewashed Harris Stationery 7-0 in Senior house league play Monday evening 7-0.

Brian Serafini scored a hat trick and Jeff DeFretias two goals to pace the win. Single goals were scored by Mark Yorke and D. J. Bergin.

Milton Bus Lines claimed an early season win over Bill's Auto Body 8-5. Bob Benton had the hot shot, firing four tallies with Paul Harris scoring a pair. Earl Essery and Bruce Johnson added singles for the winners.

Brent Alkema notched two and Mike Willats, Craig South and Steven Jane added singles.

Minor atoms fall to Streetsville

Milton Minor Atoms lost their first game of the schedule on Saturday in Streetsville 5-0.

The Docs and Dents were down 3-0 at the end of the first period before Jason Newby beat Fabian Ghanev, the hot little Streetsville netminder, on a setup by Geoff Pollen and Scott Ellwood.

The Streetsville team went on to fire two more past the goaltending duo of Dave Dillon and Blair Leonard as the Milton defence appeared to be a little flat in this contest.

On Sunday the Docs and Dents played host to Preston in an exhibition game that turned into a real shootout and when the final buzzer went, the Milton boys were out in front 8-6.

Preston was down 4-1 at the end of the first period but fought right back to tie the game. Once again Milton took a two-goal lead but the never-say-die team from Preston tied the game 6-6, then with five minutes left, Milton scored the winner. With 47 seconds left on the clock Stuart Thorne scored the insurance goal.

Jason Newby led the Docs and Dents scorers with two and adding singles were Scott Ellwood, Travis Cole, Robbie Wilson, Wayne Rivers, Scott Hillson and Thorne.

Dennis Poulin and Dave Dillon shared the goaltending chores for Milton.

Guelph hands Optimists first loss of season

The Optimists minor peewees suffered their first Tri-County loss this year in a 4-2 defeat at the hands of Georgetown Sunday afternoon. The loss ended an otherwise successful week on a sour note after convincing wins over Guelph 5-2 and Streetsville 9-0.

In the Guelph game, the Optimists started fast and built a comfortable 4-0 lead before Guelph hit the score-sheet.

Scoring for Milton were Perri Hood, Terry Boudreau, Paul Rowan, Trevor Riebot and Tim Pollen. Strong defensive efforts by Paul Wilson and Bruce Syer complemented the offensive attack.

doing, displayed their strongest team effort of the year.

Slick passing and a controlled attack in the opposition end of the rink maintained constant pressure on the Streetsville netminder. Sharing the scoring spotlight were Pollen, Riebot, Bob Warwick, Rowan, Ron Lassaline, Boudreau, Chris Austin, Marshall Cram, Hood and Jon Griffiths.

Wayne Wyckoff registered the shutout in a rather easy evening in goal for the Optimists.

Sunday against Georgetown, the Optimists started fast, scoring two quick goals. However, that was to be all the scoring for Milton.

Georgetown fought back with three goals in the final period to go home with the victory.

Perri Hood and Graham

Koshurba found the range for the Optimists. Marshall Cram, Tracy Harding and Mike Mangotich turned in strong defensive efforts for Milton.

Team captain Trevor Riebot suffered a bruised knee midway through the final period and did not see action for the rest of the game. It is not expected he will miss too much action in upcoming games.

Saturday, the men of the Milton Curling Club celebrated the close of the golf season and the beginning of the curling season. It was the men's annual get-acquainted day at the club.

Some 50 golfers played nine holes of golf at Hornby Towers Golf and Country Club in the afternoon, enjoyed a steak barbecue back at the club and after dinner tried their hand at four ends of curling to kick off the coming season.

Jim Sproat and Roy Selch were responsible for the fun afternoon. The steaks were prepared by Reg Corp and Murray Grenke. (Murray also had the low gross of the day with a 37 for the nine.)

Many new members were welcomed to the club by president Morley Rasberry and reminded that the club will be open all this week for practice and instruction.

Ron Tracey will be at the club Monday, Wednesday and Friday to offer instruction for new members and others wishing to brush up on their skills. Also this Tuesday and Thursday morning have been set aside as instruction time for the ladies.

The Milton Business Girls are looking for curlers for their group. Mondays, the Business Girls have a pot luck supper and curling beginning at 5:30. Tuesdays are for competitive Business Girls, also at 5:30 p.m. Anyone interested is asked to call Linde Colven (854-2575) or Dorothy Taylor (878-7335).

The Junior Curling will begin Nov. 2 at 4 p.m. at the Curling Club.

Russell wins first Grues take Charles

Grue Shell and Schroeder Construction continue to hold unbeaten records in White Oaks Hockey League play and Russell's Towing managed to squeak their first win of the early season.

Schroeder Construction came down hard on the Club Claire squad 10-2 to remain undefeated. Kevin O'Neill was the big pointgetter with a goal and four assists. Larry Dean had a pair of markers and two assists, Rusty Chapman a goal and two assists as did Ian Deeks, to name a few scorers.

Grue Shell turned over the Charles Hotel 3-1 in a well played match as the local Hoteliers trailed 2-0 going into the third period as Lou Girard scored from Bob Holmes and Brian Watson tallied from Bob and Mike Holmes to give Grues a cushion.

Rick McTrach brought the Charles within one goal assisted by Paul Kitchen, only to have Keith Mitchie score from Gary McDonald for the 3-1 win.

The new Georgetown entry showed improvement, despite losing 11-1 to Russell's Towing. For Russell's it was their first win of the season as Dave Kelly had a goal and three assists, Terry Adam had a pair of markers and an assist, Glen Austin had a goal and two assists. Howie Marten held the lone goal for Georgetown.

Grue Shell and Schroeder's tangle this Sunday in the early game at Milton Memorial to decide sole possession of first place.
