Smile of the week: We know Milton Optimist Club members will go to almost any lengths to raise money for their new Optimist Youth Centre in Brian Best Park. But we didn't know "infiltration" of the Lions Club was one method. Local Lions last week announced the names of winners of their September "200 Club" draw and guess who won first prize? None other than Dennis Kwasnicki — he's president of the Optimist Club!

Joanne Karen Traas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. (Mac) Traas of Campbellville, has recently begun working for Wellesley Hospital in Toronto. A graduate of Milton District High School, she recently completed a medical secretarial course at Herzing Institutes of Canada.

Ontario Farm Safety Association recently elected its officers and Peter Fisher of Burlington was named president. Another man well known in this area, Maurice Sisler of Brantford, is the vice-president. Sisler has shown cattle at Milton Fair for many years.

was presented with a silver tray for 10 years of service with A. E. LePage Limited, Realtor. His wife Marion was presented with four silver wine goblets and a dozen roses. The presentation took place at a company dinner in the Granite Club, Toronto.

Remember Douglas Lawless who served many years as a senior staff official with the Halton Board of Education? He retired this week. Lawless was assistant to the Director of Education in Halton until 1975 when he became Chief Executive Officer of the Ontario Education Relations Commission. The Commission sets out negotiation procedures for teacher-school board bargaining and assists boards and teacher groups in negotiations.

Claudette and Howard Norsworthy of Milton recently attended the Culligan dealers' convention in Chicago, along with about 2,000 other Culligan representatives.

Pumpkin winners

Miltowne Centre stores were sporting pumpkin faces this past week, as many local children entered carved-out pumpkin faces in the contest. Winners of first prize when the contest judges sorted out the entries were Consuelo and Linda Castaneda, who split a $25 gift certificate. Second prize was also shared, this time by Sonia Grasian and Christine Burra. They will share a $15 certificate. Dorothy Ewing was winner of the third prize, a $10 certificate. The pumpkins were part of a special Hallowe'en shopping promotion in the downtown core area.

Four run for mayor

With the stepping down of Mary Munro as Mayor of Burlington at the end of this term of office, a four-way race has developed to fill the vacancy. Vying for the position are Roly Bird, Ray Botten, David Coons and Ann Stasiuk Bird and Coons are present members of council. Approximately 73,000 voters are eligible to cast their ballots for mayor Nov. 13. There will be one advance poll Saturday. There are eight regional seats to be filled, four of which have been filled by acclamation. Acclaimed are Walter Mulkwich (Ward One), Vern Connell (Ward Five), Steve Toth (Ward Six), and Jim Grieve (Ward 7).

Brechin, Ted Freeman and Gary Gregson; and Ward Eight Gloria Hincks, Bill O'Connell and J. King Yates. Each of the wards in Burlington elects one city councillor, one regional councillor, one trustee to the Halton Board of Education and one trustee to the Separate School Board. The mayorally candidates run at large. There are 16 members on Burlington council plus the mayor. Of the eight positions open on the Board of Education, three have been filled by acclamation. Helen Howard-Lock was acclaimed in Ward One, Fred Armitage in Ward Six and Garry Morton in Ward Seven. Morton is currently chairman of the Halton Board.

There are three two-way races. In Ward Three are Cam Jackson and James Micules, in Ward Five Florence Mearns and John Vaughan and Ward Eight, Paul Mooradian and Elaine Riehm. In Wards Two and Four are three-way races. In the former are Janet Coker, Frank Gold and Edna Robinson. In the latter are Noel Cooper, John Cowan and Grahame Stap. Four of the Separate School Board positions have been filled by acclamation. Elected are Bob O'Brien in Ward One, Mike Strelbisky in Ward Three, Bill Hawken in Ward Six and John Visser in Ward Seven. Ward Two is contested by Randy Kawucha and Ed McMahon, Ward Four by Greg Costa, Andre Paradis and Jim Sherlock, Ward Five by Bob Bertram and Jim Hourigan and Ward Eight by John Carney and Harry McDermott. The Separate Board's representative to the Halton Board is William Priestner.

Contested are Wards Two, Three, Four and Eight. In Ward Two are Robert Coker and incumbent Jack Raftis; in Ward Three are Ted MacDonald and Keith Strong. Ward Four has newcomers David LaCombe and Marg Turner and in Ward Eight, Margaret Kennedy challenges incumbent Pat McLaughlin. Two of the city wards have been filled by acclamation. Both Jack Cowman and Joan Allingham returned to their seats in Wards One and Two respectively without opposition. There is a two-way race in Ward Four where Barry Quinn and John Turingia vie for position. All the remaining wards have three contestants. In Ward Three are Robert Allan, Linda Pugsley and Joe Walsh; in Ward Five Rob Forbes, Henderson Norre and Yvonne Roach; in Ward Six Tony Bedini, Mike Crosty and Bill Little; in Ward Seven Bob

Fire destroys trailer, truck

Highway 401 near Highway 25 was the scene of a fiery blaze late Friday evening, after the tire of a westbound transport truck caught fire. The ensuing blaze destroyed the tractor trailer and the three trucks being hauled by the trailer. The driver of the vehicle, Danny Lembata of Kansas, escaped with no injuries, said Milton Fire Department.
