Absent was Musician Marjorie Powys.

On Thursday, Oct. 26, the elected and appointed officers of Evening Star Rebekah Lodge No. 79, Milton were installed into their respective offices by Sister Jean Reid, District Deputy President of Toronto Centre District No. 11.

It was an impressive ceremony under the guidance of Staff Captain Sister Sadie Thomas, P.D.D.P., of Evening Star. Sister Helen Varley, N.G., was escorted to the office of the Jr. Past Noble Grand by Sister Hazel Bundy, Deputy Marshal and Sister Kay Clarridge, Assistant Marshal to receive the charge of that office from Sister Sharon Hyde, P.N.G. of Milton.

The elected officers for the year are, Sister Ruth Allen Noble Grand; Sister Cathy Goulding Vice Grand; Sister Hazel Bundy Recording Secretary; Sister Helen Jones Financial Secretary; Sister Marguerite Teasdel, treasurer.

The appointed officers are Sisters Lucille Cole, Mary Brownridge Doris Tonelli, Kay Clarridge, Sharon Hyde, Margaret Beeler, Mary Pollock, Edna Waldie, Pearl

Maxwell, Irene Gilbert and Marjorie Powys.

Sister Jean Reid, D.D.P., spoke to the members and wished a successful year to Sister Allen and her officers. Sister Reid was presented with an orchid corsage and a gift from Evening Star.

Sister Thomas, staff captain, commented on the efficient manner in which the staff performed their duties. The installing staff consisted of members of Evening Star of Milton, Verdun of Georgetown, Mystic Link and Prosperity Lodges of Toronto.

Sister Helen Varley was presented with her Past Noble Grand's Jewel and it was pinned on her by her mother, Sister Emma Paupst.

A friendship circle was formed on the floor and Sister Reid and Sister Thomas were presented gifts from the staff. Sister Reid presented each member of the staff with a gift of appreciation and remembrance.

The soloist for the evening was Sister Dorothy Shepherd and pianist was Sister Annie Drew.

After the installation, guests, a delicious lunch was served by the members of Evening Star and a social hour enjoyed.

RUTH ALLEN was installed as Noble Grand of Evening Star Rebekah Lodge at a ceremony in the Lodge hall last week. She is pictured at right, receiving congratulations from District Deputy Jean Reid.
